SOCIETY

Birmingham, Hills People Leaving For Florida, California

With the simultaneous departure of the holidays and the school set, a decided lull has been noticed in the social activities of Birmingham and the Hills during the past week. Many people are planning winter sojourns far from snowy, blustery Michigan, and, in fact, several of the local residents have already made their departures.

Miss Mary G. Satterlee left last week for Kansas City and Mexico and Miss Mary Utter for Louisiana. Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Bayley the same week closed their homes and departed for Florida. The first part of this week Mr. and Mrs. Ruluff R. Sterling left for California to be gone until the middle of April and Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Copland sailed for Europe. Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Deming and family of North Woodward avenue are en route to California where they will spend the winter months. Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Mitchell and Mrs. Carrie Aldrich left on Wednesday for St. Petersburg, Florida. They will return to Birmingham in March.

Today Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Clizbe of West Maple avenue are making their departure for California. Next Wednesday Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Campbell of East Maple avenue will leave on a trip to the south and west. They will spend some time in Texas and Louisiana before going on to California and Oregon. Dr. and Mrs. D. M. Johnson and their son, Dean, will leave on February 1 for California where they will be for three months, visiting among other places, Long Beach. Also expecting to spend some time in California are Dr. and Mrs. N. T. Shaw of Aspen road.

Becoming Nurses

After a visit with their grandmother, Mrs. Julia C. Adams of Oakland avenue, the Misses Elizabeth and Bernice Bodine of Bloomington, Illinois, have entered the training school for nurses at Grace Hospital in Detroit.

Hosts At Bridge Party

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Stone of East Maple avenue and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Blodgett were hosts at the home of the latter on Poppleton avenue Saturday evening at four tables of bridge. The affair was given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Russel Carlisle who are leaving Detroit. All the guests were from Detroit also.

Farewell Dinner-Dance

In honor of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Harry who are soon to leave for California where they will spend the winter, the Bloomfield Hills Dancing Club is giving a dinner-dance this evening at the Bloomfield Hills Country Club. Mr. and Mrs. Harry are now living in Detroit but formerly made their home on Long Pine Road.

Returned From New York

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolf Zabel returned on Sunday to their home on Manor road from New York City where they spent the previous week. Their son, R. J. C. Zabel, has returned to his school, the Chicago Academy, in Chicago.

Guests Of Sister

Miss Ella Davenport of East Maple avenue and her sister, Mrs. E. R. Smith, Jr., of Park street, were the guests at the home of another sister, Mrs. Birt Cox, in Flint on Sunday.

Visited Parents

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Stone of East Maple avenue spent last weekend in Flint with Mrs. Stone's parents, Reverend and Mrs. A. C. Barclay.

13th Birthday

J. Wilbur Dalley, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Dalley, celebrated his 13th birthday by giving a dinner party to six of his school friends on Saturday night at his home on Floyd street. The guests included Howard Sennett, Maurice DeVilbiss, Grant Hoople, Leonard McClure, William Gross, and William Melvin. Decorations for the dinner were carried out in detail in the high school colors, red and white.

Gave Bridge-Supper

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Burtraw of Ann street and Mr. and Mrs. David Levinson of Pontiac were joint hosts last Wednesday evening at the Greenfield Country Club where they had six tables of bridge followed by a buffet supper. The guests were from Birmingham, Pontiac and Detroit.

Waltons Entertain

Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Walton entertained very informally at a dinner party at their home on Lone Pine road. The guests who were from Detroit included Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Garvin, Mr. and Mrs. Kipp, and Mr. and Mrs. Wilkie.

Ladies Church Society

Next Wednesday afternoon the Ladies' Church Society will meet in the parlors of the First Presbyterian Church. After the business meeting a birthday party, in charge of Mrs. G. W. Jensen's division, will be given.

Back To College

Miss Katherine Dixon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Dixon of South Woodward avenue, last week returned to her studies at Nazareth College, Nazareth.

Pot-Luck Dinner

In their hall in the Parks building the Ladies of the Maccabees will have a pot luck dinner next Tuesday noon. As a hive deputy is expected at the meeting all members are urged to be present.

Old Fashioned Dances

Last Saturday night the Independent Order of Odd Fellows gave a party at the hall on Pierce street. Old fashioned as well as modern dances were danced by almost 70 couples.

James Hunter, of Lakewood, Ohio, is spending the week visiting George R. Averill, of Poppleton avenue. Mr. Hunter is a chief engineer on the Great Lakes.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lanyi of Hamilton avenue left this week for Lombard, Illinois, where they will make their home temporarily.

December Was Busy Month At Village Community House

December was a busy month at the Community House. Beside the routine duties there were two meetings of the Literary Club, one of the Civic League, three of the Girl Reserves, one of the Village Players; four Sunday school sessions, three dances, three Christmas parties, two scout meetings, three carol practices, four commission meetings; one meeting of the Woman's Benefit Association, one of the scout council, two of the Blue Birus, one of the Altar Society, one class reunion, and one social evening for the teachers. The house was open to the boys Thursday and Saturday afternoons. These activities brought about 1800 people to the house. An average of six people a day have been sent out through the employment file.

Christmas Eve about 75 people, including the carolers, were served hot chocolate and cakes contributed by friends. Through the Community House 16 Christmas baskets were sent out. Substantial gifts were made to three families by the Business Girls' Club. There were also gifts and toys from the Girl Reserves and Blue Birds, and the Bloomfield Hills School sent a quantity of fascinating Christmas stockings, fruit, and toys. Organizations and individuals contributed enough money, food, clothing, and toys to make unnecessary a drawing on the Community House or Village funds.

Many people gave generously of their services and the use of their cars during the holiday season. The Rotary Club donated a live Christmas tree which Mr. Coryell had planted close by the House and the Exchange Club furnished the holiday decorations. At the Twelfth Night Celebration, the last of the Christmas festivities, about 140 people were present.

Miss Griffith, the Community House director, wishes to extend her sincere thanks to all those who did so much to promote a happy holiday spirit at the house.

Senior Girls Will Be Guests Of A. A. U. W.

This Saturday the senior girls of the Baldwin High School will be the guests of the Birmingham branch of the American Association of University Women at a luncheon at the Lone Pine Tea House. Mrs. Frederick Ray, who will give the address at this annual affair, is a member of the board of the Merrill-Palmer School and Dean of Girls in the Highland Park schools. She is a former president of the Detroit Federation of Women's Clubs. Miss Fandalra Crocker of Ann Arbor, who is the state president of the association, will also be present and give a short talk.

Following are the names of the girls in the senior class: Zella Andrews, Margaret Austin, Hazel Black, Hilda Bowden, Jeanette Brown, Katherine Butler, Mabel Cook, Mary Curry, Margaret Edgar, Frances Giles, Zella Gill, Bernice Haddrill, Irene Hanley, Mary Lammert, Dorothy McClelland, Frances Looney, Mary Maxwell, Carrie Stalker, Bessie Vaughn, Kathleen Miller, Oakel Morse, Helen Reid, Mildred Roode, Margaret Ross, Helen Savage, Helen Shepherd, Winona Singers, and Dorothy Lankin.

MISS DAISY FINLEY AND ARTHUR BOWEN ARE WED

Miss Daisy Pearl Finley and Arthur Bowen were married Tuesday evening by the Reverend C. M. Thompson at his home on Ferndale avenue. The bride was attired in a light blue lace trimmed georgette dress and carried a bouquet of roses and sweet peas. Her only attendant, Miss Luella Finley, wore a pale pink dress of lace and georgette.

After the ceremony the bride and groom went to the home of the former on Lincoln avenue where a wedding supper was served to members of the immediate families. Mrs. Alvin J. Beatty, a sister of the bride who lives in Capreol, Canada, and Roy Hamm of Amy were the only guests from out of town. Mr. and Mrs. Bowen will reside in Birmingham.

FORM HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY IN COUNTY

An event of interest to Oakland County gardeners and horticulturists is the organization of the Oakland County Horticultural Society. It has been felt by many that Bloomfield Hills and surrounding districts should have an organization of this kind both for social and educational purposes, and as a result the society was formed.

At Briar Bank, the home of W. T. Barbour, the first meeting was held in December. The officers elected were: J. R. Dunlap, President; A. V. Dennis, Vice-President; Thomas Hind, Secretary; Mr. Claxton, Treasurer. The next meeting will be held at the Bloomfield Center School on the evening of January 14.

The society cordially invites all gardeners to join, also any person interested in horticulture.

Bridge Party

Mrs. J. D. Gay of Lincoln avenue was hostess at a bridge party followed by supper Wednesday evening. Her guests were Mr. and Mrs. F. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. W. Giles, Mr. and Mrs. W. Cruickshank, Mr. and Mrs. J. McLaughlin, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Roura, and Mrs. Roura's sister, Miss Harman.

TOWNSHIP FIRE PROTECTION

At a special meeting of the village commission Thursday morning an agreement to furnish fire protection to Bloomfield township on a pro rata basis was entered into by Birmingham. The same rates that apply to Troy township are held to. In the past Bloomfield township has paid $1,000 annually, but the rapid growth of outside territory, with a consequent increase in fire alarms, makes village officials feel that each fire should bear its own expenses.

STAUCH BRINGS SUIT TO FORCE FARM SALE

Mrs. Jessie M. Daniels Refuses To Put Through Sale of 62 Acres In Southfield

Judge Frank L. Covert took under advisement Tuesday afternoon in Circuit Court the specific performance suit brought by Loren G. Stauch, Birmingham real estate dealer, against Mrs. Jennie M. Daniels, formerly of Southfield, but now living in Pontiac.

Stauch asks the court to compel Mrs. Dahiels to sell him 62 acres of land in Section 4 of Southfield Township at $300 an acre while the property is declared to have a sale value at the present time of $1,000 an acre.

Mrs. Daniels gave Dr. N. T. Shaw of Birmingham an option to purchase the land at $300 an acre on Jan. 2, 1924. She claims she heard nothing more of the transaction until June, 1925, when Stauch tendered her $500 as down payment on a deal to take over her farm.

Stauch claims to hold an assignment from Dr. Shaw of the option under date of April 16, 1925. Mrs. Daniels refused to carry out the deal and claimed as a defense that the value of the land had been misrepresented to her.

A. L. Moore appeared for the plaintiff and Pelton & McGee for the defendant.

LITERARY CLUB WILL DEVOTE TUESDAY TO DISCOURSE ON RUGS

In collaboration with the Woman's Literary Club, which is holding an open meeting next Tuesday afternoon at the Community House, the Community House Board will present to the members of the Community House association the second of four attractions planned for the year. This is to be a talk on Oriental rugs by Sam Mardigan who will bring with him a loom and a native weaver in costume. Mr. Mardigan will have several types of Oriental rugs on exhibition.

There will also be talks on other kinds of floor coverings and various displays. Mrs. William Merrick of Ann Arbor, who will speak on Chinese rugs and show some of them, spent several years in China where she familiarized herself with its rug-making industry. The subject of the floor and its finish is to be discussed by C. Floyd Smith, a local painter and decorator.

Mrs. James Cobb is to be the chairman and the Home Economics Department of the Literary Club is in charge of the program.

ROTARIANS HEAR ABOUT "THE AMERICAN INDIAN"

Members of the Birmingham Rotary club last night enjoyed a stag banquet given by the Lone Pine Tea House given by two teams of ten each that recently lost to George Boutwell's team in a six months' attendance contest.

O. Padgett, who has spent a lifetime teaching the American Indians, and who is at present in charge of a U. S. Indian School at Mt. Pelasant, Michigan, spoke to the club on "The American Indian of Today."

TOWNSHIP'S SNOW PLOW

Bloomfield township's new tractor-plow, purchased a week ago, was given a splendid chance to "show its stuff" this week when an unusual amount of snow descended upon the many roads in the township. Fred Hauck, highway commissioner, reports that the new device works satisfactorily.

EXCHANGE DELEGATES

Ralph Wilson and Harry S. Starr were elected delegates to represent the Birmingham Exchange club at the annual State Exchange Convention to be held in Flint January 24 and 25. Fred L. Tuckey and Kenneth Bingham were elected alternates at the same meeting, held Monday of this week. Next Tuesday Casper J. Linteman, Detroit realtor, will speak to the Exchangites on "The Greater Woodward Avenue Association."

NATIONAL THRIFT WEEK

National Thrift Week is to be observed next week in the Birmingham schools. Supt. Vliet is the chairman. There will be essay and poster contests open only to the high school and possibly some of the 5th and 6th grades. The two local banks will award prizes, consisting of small sums with which to start savings accounts. They and the women's clubs will distribute household budget books. On Sunday minutemen will speak in the churches.

SPOKE AT Y. M. C. A. MEETING

Cameron Beck of the New York Stock Exchange and Martin Berburg, secretary of the Oakland Co. Y. M. C. A. nine years ago, were the two speakers at the dinner and meeting held by the Y. M. C. A. at the Sunset Hill club Wednesday evening. About 70 were present, including the following men from Birmingham: Joseph Dalley, C. Vliet, R. Bethel, L. Bunyan, A. Peck, R. Peck, P. Burnett, and R. D. Lynd.

RUDOLPH SCHWENK IS DEAD

Rudolph C. Schwenk, 51 years old, died at his home on Bennaville avenue, Eco City, January 12. The funeral services were held from the chapel of Daines & Bell Thursday afternoon with burial in Roseland Park cemetery. Rev. F. E. Logee of the First Presbyterian church officiated. Mr. Schwenk is survived by his wife, Carrie Cullam Schwenk.

PAID YOUR WATER RATES?

Today, January 15, is the last day to obtain a discount in paying this quarter's village water rates. All unpaid accounts after February 1st will bring a shut-off man to the delinquent homes.

DEATH OF J. G. THURBER

Jefferson Gage Thurber, 52 years old, well known Detroit lawyer, died Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock of pneumonia at the family residence in Grosse Pointe, after an illness of two weeks. He was the brother of Thomas L. Thurber, of Oak street.

During this week Mrs. Orrie Mann of Coldwater is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Mark Harris of Vinewood avenue.

STEPS TAKEN TO GET NEW MUNICIPAL BLOCK

Village Commission Would Buy On Land Contract In Friendly Way

Steps to acquire the block of land bounded by Pierce, Martin, Merrill, and Henrietta streets, for municipal purposes began this week when the village commission drafted a form of contract to present to the various property owners. This new block of land is desired since the block bounded by Bates, Merrill, Martin, and Chester streets, acquired last Spring, is to be dedicated as a site for the proposed new public library.

According to president Shain, the village will try to purchase the new block on land contract terms. This cost is estimated to be about $110,000.00. Persons living in homes there will be given specific permission to continue their residences for at least 15 months, during which time they are expected to seek new homesites. If possible, the village will try to buy the lands without resorting to condemnation proceedings, believing that this policy is the least antagonistic.

NAME OF COMPANY CHANGED

At a meeting of directors and stockholders of the Birmingham Building & Loan Association, held in the Baldwin high school Tuesday night, the name of the company was changed to the Oakland County Savings Association. C. E. Hooke, manager and assistant secretary of the Association, reported that more than $200,000 in stock had been subscribed to since the formation of the company last Spring, and that 1926 promised even greater success.

"THE KISS IN A TAXI" AT THE GARRICK THEATER

After a run of two years in Paris, six months in New York, and three months in Chicago, "The Kiss in a Taxi" will begin an engagement at the Garrick Theatre, Detroit, next Sunday night, January 17th, with the usual Wednesday and Saturday matinees.

This is the clever farcical comedy which was written by Maurice Hennequin and Pierre Veber, and produced in Paris under the name of "The Five O' Clock Man", but in the translation by Clifford Gray, it was re-named "The Kiss in a Taxi." Cleverly brilliant, the comedy is handled deftly by a company of expert actors who bring out the witticism and skim quickly and delicately over the thin ice of what might prove in less skillful hands, a shock to the sensibilities: "The Kiss in a Taxi" which A. H. Woods is now sending on tour, has become an enormous hit.
