SOCIETY

LOCAL ENTRIES WIN IN DETROIT RIDING EVENTS

Horses! Horses! Horses! Everyone seemed "crazy over horses" last Friday and Saturday at the Detroit Riding and Hunt Club on the Seven Mile Road.

The day was ideal with the blue skies and golden sunshine matching the blue and gold of the flying pennants, the club colors.

Many prizes were carried off by the local entries, Mrs. S. L. Depew, Mr. J. A. Braun, Mr. E. P. Hammond, Mr. E. S. Nichols, and Mr. T. R. Donovan in the ladies' hunter class, with many contestants. Miss Josephine Braun, on "Stony Creek," a real thoroughbred, took the blue, exhibiting some excellent handling and riding. Miss Betty Stahlen of Long Lake road won the young people's saddle horse event on "Early Dawn." Mrs. T. R. Donovan's little Irish mare, "Holm Belle," just a baby of three years, won the blue in the green hunter stake on Friday and also the "horses suitable to become hunters" event on Saturday. A better mannered little mare than "Holm Belle," in all the confusion of the show ring, is seldom seen.

In the light weight and middle weight hunter class, "Pickert" and "Reina O" from the stables of Mr. E. S. Nichols of Bloomfield Center carried off the blues.

Among the constellation of excellent riders at this most recent of local horse shows, perhaps Miss Margaret Standart of Lone Pine road could receive especial mention. In the Ladies' hunter class; Miss Standart rode no less than six entries, displaying a manner of handling and riding her mount which won the admiration of all.

Many of the Bloomfield riders are looking forward to the the Grosse Pointe show scheduled for three days beginning next Thursday, July first. A large entry is expected.

Entertains Graduates

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. S. Gordon, formerly of Ridgedale Avenue, entertained the graduating class of the Fowlerville High School at their summer home on Pine Lake, last week in honor of their nephew, L. Dan Adams, president of the class. There were between forty and fifty present. Lunch was served on the lawn after which the young people danced at Sunset Club, and later went swimming and boating on the lake. The class expressed their appreciation of the courtesy and hospitality extended to them. Mr. and Mrs. Gordon attended the class day and commencement exercises which were held Wednesday and Thursday evenings.
