VILLAGE COUPLE WED AT POINTE

Bertha Jones and Earl W. Davidson Are Married In Lakeshore Church

Miss Bertha Jones and Earl W. Davidson, of Birmingham were married Saturday at 6 p. m. at the parsonage of the Presbyterian church of Grosse Pointe, by the Rev. W. A. McAnglin, pastor. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Dubey of Detroit were the attendants. Immediately following the ceremony dinner was served to the wedding party at the Book-Cadillac Hotel, Detroit.

Mrs. Davidson is the daughter of J. W. Jones, of Oxford. During the three years she has lived in Birmingham she has been connected with the offices of Dr. George L. Raynale and Dr. J. H. Gordon. Mr. Davidson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Davidson, of Orange, Cal. He is connected with Oliver's Market.

Mr. and Mrs. Davidson have taken the Charles Newman residence at 415 Brown street for the winter.

Legion Auxiliary To Give Supper

The Birmingham unit of the American Legion Women's Auxiliary will hold a potluck supper at the home of Mrs. Lillian E. Cook, 215 Greenwood avenue, tomorrow evening.

Mrs. Cook, who is the sister of Charles Edwards in whose honor the Birmingham Post of the American Legion is named, will be assisted by Mrs. A. D. Cooley and Miss Alice MacGregor. All service men and their families are invited to attend and are asked to call Mrs. Cook. Guests are asked to bring a toy which will be given to a child of a needy family of the vicinity for Christmas.

The next meeting of the auxiliary will be held Dec. 13 at the Community House. There will be election of officers at that time.

Miss Helen Jackson, of Kingston, Mich. is the guest of her brother-in-law and sister Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Bates, of Watkins street.
