FUNERAL SERVICES SATURDAY FOR LADY

Mrs. Beach, One Of Troy Township's Oldest Residents Dies From Result Of Fall.

Funeral services will be held Saturday for one of Troy Township's oldest residents, Mrs. Hannah H. Beach, 86 years old, at the home of her son, Marvin C. Beach, on south Boulevard. Mrs. Beach died Tuesday night of complications resulting indirectly from a fall suffered more than seven years ago. Since that time, Mrs. Beach had been unable to walk.

Mrs. Beach was the widow of the late David Porter Beach, and had lived in these parts most of her life, although she was born in Clinton county. In her younger days she taught school in Bloomfield, Southfield and Troy.

Rev. Floyd Emerson Logee, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, of Birmingham, will read the service. Burial will be in Crooks cemetery, Troy.

Mrs. Beach is survived by two sons, Edwin P. Beach, of Grand Rapids, and Marvin C., three stepdaughters, Mrs. C. M. Lowes and Mrs. Gertrude Sumerlin, of Grand Rapids, and Mrs. Jennie Butler, of Pontiac, seven grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

money for general community use. In medium sized towns, strong organizations find that a community fund results in decreased personage interest in such organizations and mechanical operation of the organization is a result. Weak organizations profit by community funds in regard to the amount of money received and in a closer checking up on the expenditures made."

E. W. Lackie, manager of credit bureau: "I am heartily in sympathy with the plan proposed for a community fund drive. I have given a plan of this type some thought in connection with my own work. It seems to me that most people would rather contribute a bulk sum once a year, thus doing away with the continual soliciting of charity by organizations which may not be worthy. A plan of some kind in connection with this same proposal, by which needy families could draw from a charity loan fund would also be a great improvement over present methods, which often place a burden on our churches. Charity should only be placed where it is deserved and serious measures should be taken to see that this placing is done efficiently."

Ralph Wilson, druggist: "I am heartily in favor of the proposed community fund drive. The advantages of it if it were well handled are numerous and would benefit both those who give and those who receive."

Alfred J. LaBelle, book dealer: "Birmingham has undoubtedly reached the size where a community fund is a necessity. A community fund, is not however a thing to be rushed into headlong. It must be carefully thought over. The organizations to benefit from it must be decided upon. A system of collection and distribution must be planned. The organizations concerned must understand their position. There are many details to be considered but it's a worthy cause, this community fund idea, and systematically put over, I am sure it would meet with unbounded success."

Approval Is Given To Hiring Expert On Charter Change

later headed an open forum, declared he saw but few advantages in the proposed change. Except in one or two instances the village has all the powers of city, he said.

The advantages as listed by Mr. Fishack follow: possibility of eliminating, to a degree, township taxes; supplying its own assessment for the collection of state and county taxes; spreading of special assessments over a period of ten years rather than the five years now allowed; and a greater representation on the county board of supervisors. The village is not represented on this board now except by the one supervisor from the township. With the change there would be six representatives. Mr. Fishack said.

There is a possibility that under the city form of government the state would not pay for the completion of the widening of Woodward avenue through the limits, Mr. Fishack said. He pointed as illustration Pontiac, which is aiding the state financially in the work on Woodward avenue there.

Reports Incomplete.

Reports from the chairman of other committees were not completed pending the result of the investigation of the taxation and school committee problems. Their work, they found, hinged considerably on the outcome of this investigation.

The expert should be ready to make a report in February, Mr. Campbell said. The next meeting of the committee to report on findings and discuss matters pertaining to the proposed change will be held at 8 p. m. Jan. 28 in the village hall.

The Indians meet every Wednesday. The first week of each month is devoted to initiation, which was held last night; the second week to a business meeting and the third and fourth weeks to entertainment.

The Oneida tribe was organized with eight members in October 1926. The membership now is 30 and if there is much more increase it is expected that another clan will be organized to meet on Monday evenings, Chief Deer said.

The leaders of the tribe, each of whom wears a distinguishing emblem on his breast, are as follows: Frank C. Deer, Big Chief; Donald Parry, assistant big chief; Arthur King, chief; Harry Whittaker, tom-tom beater; Bennett Root, wampum bearer; James Schooley, medicine man; Jack Carnahan, Indian runner; George Purdy, guide; Ross Morgan, guardian of fire, No. 1; Carmen Atkins, guardian of fire No. 2; William Parry, guardian of fire, No. 3; Gordon Purdy, guardian of fire No. 4.

The first group of this sort was organized in California several years ago. Chief Deer's clan is following some of the ideals of the original California group, but it has more of its own original and individual ideas, he said.

chronicling events of the two departments and events of significance to Birmingham in a general way, and by an annual dance.

Officer Harry Johnson, of the Police department, is chairman of the committee for organization. He appointed Sergeant Clark Green, also of the police department, as chairman of the publicity committee.

Plans for such a club have been under consideration for some time by members of the two organizations. The need for one, they believe, is sufficiently great to warrant definite action at this time, Sergeant Green said.

"The spirit of co-operation between the two forces now visible will be increased by a fraternal association of this sort," he explained. "An ideal in community life, this fund, which will serve both the policemen and the firemen, will bring the departments closer together."

new telephones were added to the list served at Birmingham, making a total of 2,400 now in service here. A continuance of this steady growth is anticipated by the telephone company's engineers, for some years to come.

Building New Plant.

At present, telephone construction crews are building new plant in the territory tributary to Woodward avenue, between the Twelve and a Half Mile road and east Maple road, and in the area adjacent to Adams road, between Woodward and Kensington road, where a very rapid development of high grade residence property is taking place. This area, which is adjacent to wider Woodward, includes Beverly Hills, Woodward Hills and other residential communities east and west of Woodward.

Approximately 11,646 feet of telephone cable containing 909 pairs of wires, 4,065 feet of telephone cable of various sizes and 69,235 feet of various sized aerial cable is projected. When completed, the work in these sections will represent an investment of new money totalling $73,000, it is stated. Mr. Tatham says that further developments in the western portion of the Birmingham district tributary to west Maple road, from Southfield to Lasher roads, which includes Bloomfield Hills, requires an appropriation of about $57,000, for telephone plant expansion.

Other Projects.

Various other projects already completed by telephone workmen, in several sections of the city, involved expenditures totalling more than $85,000.

The quarter million dollar program planned at Birmingham this year by the telephone company will bring the telephone plant investment here up to $658,000.

and Miss Peterson's pumps were quite as good as new. Therefore, Henry Ford is a good dancer.

Miss Peterson attended one of the famous old-time Ford dances last week, in company with Harry Brooks, whose father, Joseph Brooks, plays the fiddle in the old-time dance orchestra. She danced a schottische with Mr. Ford, who, she claims, is a delightful dancer and unusually light on his feet. He is likewise a charming conversationalist, she said, which always adds to a dancing partner.

Mr. Ford explained that his objection to modern dancing is the lack of spring in the dancer's heels. 'Everybody dances flat-footed," he said. "That is why I prefer the old-time dances, and why I am trying to popularize them. Grace is essential to them, and it is not to the modern dance."
