ORDINANCE NO. 9
Licensing and Regulating Restaurants

An ordinance providing for the licensing and regulation of restaurants.

The Village of Bloomfield Hills Ordains:

Section 1. That no person, firm or corporation shall own, maintain, or operate a restaurant in the village of Bloomfield Hills, without having first obtained a license therefor from the village commission. For the purpose of this ordinance the term "restaurant" as herein used shall be taken to mean and include every buffet, lunch room, lunch counter, dinner room, hotel and every other public place where food is served, or where food is sold for consumption.

Section 2. Applications for such licenses shall be made upon blanks furnished by the village clerk, and shall state the name or names of the applicant or applicants and if the same be a partnership the names and addresses of the partners, together with their addresses, and if the same be a corporation the names and officers, together with the names and addresses of persons interested in the issuance of the license; it shall give the contemplated place of doing business and all other information that may be deemed necessary for the proper enforcement of the terms of this ordinance. Said application shall be addressed to the village commission and filed with the village clerk, who shall within a reasonable time report to the commission as to whether the applicant is a suitable person to become such licensee.

The commission may, after the receipt of such report, grant to any suitable person or persons, a license authorizing such person to operate a restaurant as defined by this ordinance in the village of Bloomfield Hills, provided, they have the sanitary arrangements of the building suitable for the conduct of such business. Said license shall designate the particular place or and village where such business may be carried on, and shall be conditioned for the license to operate any such business at any place other than designated in the license. Said license shall apply just to the place of business, and shall not be transferable or assignable.

The village clerk, shall issue such license upon receipt of a receipt from the treasurer of the annual license fee of $5.00.

Section 3. The Health Officer or members of the department of health and officers, who are charged with the enforcement of this ordinance, shall at all times have access to any part of such premises to which a license is granted to operate a restaurant, and shall be allowed to take samples of food for the purpose of inspection and refusal by any licensee, his agent or employee to prevent the examination of said premises or the taking of any samples, shall be a forfeiture of the license.

Every licensee shall conduct his establishment in a cleanly and sanitary manner. No licensee shall sell or offer for sale or manufacture any article of food which is not clean and wholesome, and which, if eaten by a human being, shall be deleterious to health.

Section 4. No person who is affected with any infectious disease, or with any venereal disease in a communicable form, shall work or be permitted to work in any restaurant. Whenever required by the Health Officer, any person employed in any restaurant shall submit to a physical examination by the Health Officer, or by some physician approved by the Health Officer. If any person of such examination such person shall be found to be affected with any infectious disease, or with any venereal disease in a communicable form, such employment shall immediately cease, and such person shall not be permitted to work in any such place.

Section 5. Any person, knowingly, affected with any infectious disease, or with any venereal disease in a communicable form who shall work in any place defined in section one, and any person knowingly employing or permitting such person to work in such place, shall be deemed guilty of a violation of this ordinance.

Section 6. Said license shall be subject to all conditions and terms of this ordinance. Said license may be revoked at any time by the commission if they deem the licensee an improper person to carry on said business, or if said place is conducted in an improper manner or maintained in an unsanitary condition; provided, that the clerk shall have the right and power to suspend said license when in his judgment it is for the best interest of the community, and said suspension of license to be in full force and effect until an or before the second regular meeting of the commission immediately following said suspension. Said license shall always be displayed in a conspicuous place on said premises.

Section 7. All licenses shall expire on the first Monday in June, following their issuance, unless sooner revoked by the village commission.

Section 8. The word "person" wherever used in this ordinance shall be held and construed to mean and include natural persons, firms, co-partnerships, corporations and all associations of natural persons incorporated or unincorporated whether attended by themselves or by agent or employee.

Section 9. Any person who, himself or by his clerk, agent or employee shall violate any of the provisions of this ordinance, on conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine not to exceed $100.00 or to imprisonment in the county jail for a period not to exceed ninety days, or both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

Section 10. All ordinances or parts of ordinances of the village of Bloomfield Hills conflicting with or contravening or inconsistent with the provisions of this ordinance are hereby repealed.

Section 11. This ordinance shall take effect twenty days from date of passage thereof.

Made and passed by the commission of the village of Bloomfield Hills, Michigan, on the 5th day of July, A. D. 1927.

E. D. ALLEN,
President.
Wm. M. STORY,
Clerk.

I, William Story, Clerk of the village of Bloomfield Hills, Michigan, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a true complete, and correct copy of an ordinance passed at a meeting of the village commission of the village of Bloomfield Hills held on Tuesday, the 5th day of July, 1927, and of the whole thereof as appears from the record of such meeting now on file in my office.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal of the village of Bloomfield Hills, this 5th day of July, 1927.
