SOCIETY

By CLARICE TAPSON

NINE HILLS HORSES ENTER CLUB SHOW

Events Tomorrow At Droitot Expected To Be Gala Affair

Nine horses from the Bloomfield Open Hunt club are entered in the Detroit Riding and Hunt club show tomorrow and Saturday afternoon. There will be 21 events in the show, and to date more than 400 entries have been received.

The B. O. H. horses are "Holmbelle" and "Freckles Sister," owned by Mrs. T. R. Donovan, "Roland," belonging to Mrs. Walter Judd, C. C. Winningham's "Silver String," R. O. Gill's "Burglar," Mrs. Robert M. Allen "Marshall Ney," Mrs. Mary E. Gilbert's "Gray Man," and "Mollie Gray" and "Overlook," Jean belonging to the club.

Large Attendance Seen

Most of these horses were entered in the recent horse show at Lansing, and several of them carried off first honors. They are considered to be some of the finest in these parts.

Grosse Pointe, Detroit, and Bloomfield Hills Society is expected to turn out en masse for the two days' show. Among the Birmingham and Hills residents holding boxes for the affair are Mr. and Mrs. Walter O. Briggs, of Squirrel road, Gordon Mendelsohn, of "Quartermore," Mrs. T. R. Donovan, of "Valhalla," Mr. and Mrs. J. H. DeVisser, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Braun, of "Linda Vista," Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Stallin, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Winningham, of "Robin Hood's Barn," Mr. and Mrs. Walter Judd, of Lone Pine road, Mr. and Mrs. Carlton M. Higbie, and George E. Phillips, of Adams road.

Bloomfield Girl to Ride

Miss Margaret Phillips Stewart, of Bloomfield Hills Village, will ride some of the Alger horses along with Miss Frances Alger.

Three judges from the east have been engaged for the show by the club: W. Wilbur Osborne, of Gordonsville, Va.; Major S. C. Reynolds, of Front Royal, Va.; and George Hulme, of Long Island. There will be accommodations for those not having reservations beforehand, it is announced.

CONDIT WEDDING TO BE QUIET AFFAIR

Immediate Friends And Relatives To Attend Nuptials Here Wednesday.

In the presence of only a few of their most intimate friends and relatives, Miss Marion Condit, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clement F. Condit, of Suffield road, and Lowell T. Snell, the son of Mr. Marie Snell, of Webb avenue, Detroit, will speak their marriage vows at 2 p. m. next Wednesday. The ceremony will be performed in the home of the bride's parents by the Rev. Lloyd Emerson Logee, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church.

Miss Condit will be attended by her sister, Mrs. Harry Bondi and Edgar A. Curtis, will act as the bridegroom as best man.

The couple will leave by motor for Chicago and Lake Geneva, where they will spend a week or 10 days. They will be at home to their friends after that at 3265 Boston boulevard, Detroit.

MRS. PEABODY, SON TOUR THROUGH EAST

Mrs. J. Bert Peabody and her son, Clyde, of east Maple avenue, motored to Salisbury, N. C., last week to visit Mrs. Peabody's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Schlhack. Accompanied by Mrs. Schlhack, they drove over to New York City and, before their return, they expect to go to Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Peabody and her son, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Schlhack, are expected back Sunday. The Schlhacks, who are former Birmingham residents, will visit with their families for a short time.

James Vernor, of Detroit, is planning to move to the Hills soon to reside permanently.

Birmingham Lodge F. & A. M. No. 44

June 23— F. C. DEGREE

June 30— M. M. DEGREE

Marinello Method Swirl Shingle Eugene Permanent

THE Eugene Wave will give the most satisfactory permanent wave to your hair that modern hair dressers know of.

You'll like this smart Swirl Shingle that is given by our competent hair-bobbing specialists. Unusually chic and individual.

Freeman's Beautie Salone
112 Levinson Bldg. Phone 1630

BIRMINGHAM GIRL MARRIES IN OHIO

Announcement Just Made Of Miss Margaret Green's Marriage

Announcement is made today by Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Green, of Townsend avenue, of the marriage of their daughter, Miss Margaret H. Green, to A. Hillard Williams, of Detroit. The marriage took place Dec. 11, 1926, in Rosford, O., but the announcement has been delayed until after the bride should finish her studies at the University of Michigan, which she was a student the past year. Mr. Williams is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Laban Williams, of Huron, Ind.

Mrs. Williams will receive her bachelor of arts degree in education, Monday from the University of Michigan. Mr. Williams was graduated from the University of Michigan Law School last June, and is at present employed in Detroit. He is a member of Sigma Delta Kappa fraternity.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams will live in Royal Oak.

C. HARPER IS ELECTED DE MOLAY PRESIDENT

Hazberger Chapter Holds Final Meeting of Season; Other Officers Are Named.

As one of the largest turn-outs of the year, new officers were elected and installed in the Jamestown Berger chapter of the Order of DeMolay Tuesday night. This was the penultimate meeting and closed the season for the chapter.

Clifford Harper was elected master councilor, to succeed A. Stanley Rosco. He and Ralph Wilson, who was chosen senior councilor, and Claude Streb named junior councilor, will serve for six months. William Spence, the new treasurer will serve for one year. He took the position vacated by Claude Streb when he was elected junior councilor. Russell Stephens, the present secretary, will serve for another six months. The last two offices are filled only once a year.

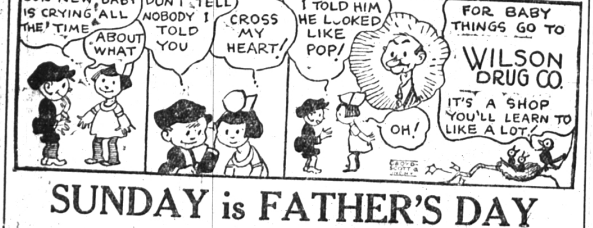
Charles A. Bingham acted as installing officer at the effective ceremony of installation. He was assisted by Past Master Council for Carpenter Hewitt, as master; Barnett J. Merrow, as senior counselor; Stanley Rosco, as junior councilor; Spencer, by the newly-elected officers and Mr. Bingham and Mr. Merrow followed the installation.

A glance over the past year reveals it as the most successful year since the formation of the chapter three years ago, membership has been added to the chapter, making a total membership of 116, and a larger number of activities than ever before has been carried on.

The chapter plans next year to go out for the Founder's Trophy, a reward given to chapters making a certain number of points in activities and in putting on the DeMolay work. It is offered by Grand Scribe, Frank S. Land, the founder of the Order.

Members of the Community House board met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. T. R. Donovan, in Bloomfield Hills, to discuss further the plans for the proposed new Community House.

Birmingham Folks By Wilson



SUNDAY is FATHER'S DAY

— SURPRISE HIM WITH —

Box Cigars - Pipe - Tobacco
Carton Cigarettes - Deck Cards
Sheaffer Lifetime Fountain Pen - Sheaffer Pencil
Razor - Shaving Set - Bill Fold

OR—BEST OF ALL—ONE OF SHEAFFER'S NEW DESK SETS

Wilson Drug Co.
104 SOUTH WOODWARD
BIRMINGHAM, MICH.
PHONE 35
PRESCRIPTION SERVICE
WE DELIVER

Social Briefs

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Yeats, of Cranbrook road, are entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Lines, of Cleveland, O., at their home on Cranbrook road.

Mrs. Lewis K. Walker is spending some time at the Bloomfield Hills county club, having returned but recently from a six months sojourn in southern California.

Mrs. John Watling, of Long Lake road, entertained this week at luncheon honoring Mrs. Emily Davis, who is going abroad soon. The guests were members of the Mercury club. There were 12.

Mrs. M. M. Morgan's Sunday School class at the First Methodist Episcopal Church, met Saturday afternoon at her cottage at Elizabeth Lake. Nine girls were present.

Mrs. L. M. Eager, of Dorchester road, was hostess to 16 guests at supper last night preceding the dance festival at Cranbrook.

An annual fancywork and bake sale is to be held by the Ladies' Aid of the Redeemer Lutheran church Friday, June 24, in the church parlors adjacent to the street. The sale will begin at 2 p. m. and will extend into the evening, when ice cream and cake will be served.

Mrs. Clarence E. Botsford, of Bloomfield Hills Village, was hostess at luncheon Tuesday for 12 friends. Sweetheart roses and tall green tapers lent an attractive note to her lovely home.

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Green and their son, Irving L. and their daughter, Beatrice A., will go to Ann Arbor Sunday to be present at the commencement activities. Their daughter, Mrs. A. Hillard Williams (Margaret Green) will receive her degree from the school of education. The Greens will attend the baccalaureate services Sunday in Hill Auditorium and commencement Monday in Ferry Field. They will return Monday night. Mrs. Williams and her husband have been at the cottage at Whitlemore Lake, and will remain there for a few days following commencement.

Mr. and Mrs. James Wooster of Poppleton avenue, motored to Kalamazoo for the week-end.

Mrs. Edward P. Hammond, of "Hillcrest," has been elected honorary membership in the Grosse Pointe and Eastern Michigan Horticultural society in recognition of her interest in horticulture. The members of the society will visit the gardens of Mrs. Austin Church, Riverside drive, Trenton, at 7 p. m. tomorrow.

Miss Mary Clark Griffith had four guests at supper Saturday evening at the Community House preceding the entertainment at Cranbrook.

Miss Grace Heacock was the guest of honor at a surprise housewarming given her by her friends and relatives in her new home at 371 Purdy street last Thursday night.

The regular meeting of Birmingham chapter No. 222, Order of the Eastern Star, will be held Wednesday evening in the Masonic Temple.

Mr. and Mrs. Purdy, of Kenmore road, are entertaining at the Levinson-Levin wedding and reception at the Hotel Statler, in Detroit, last week.

More Society Items On Woman's Page

Oakland Women In Detroit Meet

A number of women from the surrounding golf clubs were active in the playing at the Detroit Golf club Tuesday. Mrs. L. P. Dodd, represented the Birmingham Golf club, in the championship flight over the difficult north course of the Detroit club. Her card read 107. Mrs. J. E. McBride, representing the Bloomfield Hills club, had low gross and low net in the second flight, over the south course with 105-22—83. In the third flight over the south course, Mrs. F. A. Smart, from the Oakland Hills club, took low net, with 113-53—78.

Other members of neighborhood clubs who rated in the playing Tuesday were Mrs. C. E. Van Wormer, with 104-16—88, and Mrs. R. L. Lee, with 100-16—84, who tied for second low gross with Mrs. W. F. Ladd, of Red Run, in the first flight over the south course. Mrs. Van Wormer and Mrs. Lee are from the Birmingham club. Mrs. H. Bingham, from the Bloomfield Hills club, had a score of 144-15—99 in the same flight. Mrs. C. F. Craig, from the Birmingham club, had a card of 114-25—89 in the second flight over the south course. Miss Cora Myers, from the Bloomfield Hills club, had a card score of 127-33—94 in the third flight.

An exchange tells of a check for $100,000 sent to a charitable organization by an anonymous donor. So determined was he not to have his name known that he omitted to sign the check.

GIRL SCOUT TROOPS HAVE RAPID GROWTH

Rise Of Organizations Here Seen As Indication Of Their Need; Plans Made.

Growth of the Girl Scout movement in Birmingham is seen today as proof that the girls of the village had long wanted the organization.

Starting with troop 1 at the Pierce School last winter, the organization in Birmingham now consists of six troops, with tentative plans for a troop for older girls at the high school and for one at the Bloomfield Hills school. Each full Girl Scout Troop accommodates 32 girls, so there are almost 200 Girls Scouts in Birmingham.

Name Officers

The captains of the six troops with their lieutenants, are given here: Troop 1—Captain Margaret Edgar, Lieutenant Edith Cramer; Troop 2—Captain Dorothy Button, Lieutenant Lila Mergard; Troop 3—Captain Gladys Rogers, no lieutenant yet chosen; Troop 4—Captain Muriel Prusse, Lieutenant Mrs. C. D. Cole; Troop 5—Captain Lita Dolbridge, no lieutenant; Troop 6—Captain Nadia Terell, no lieutenant. Troop 1 is at the Pierce school; Troop 2, 3 and 4 have headquarters at the Adams School; Troop 5 at the High School; and Troop 6 in the Parmum School for its meeting place.

A council, composed of troop committee-women has been formed temporarily to care for the six troops. The members are: Mrs. Victor R. Ogden and Mrs. S. F. Wilson, representing Troop 1; Mrs. Clinton Sears, Mrs. Rodney Weeks, and Mrs. Lee A. White, representing Troop 2; Mrs. Rolf. C. Simmons, and Mrs. L. M. Baker, for Troop 3; Mrs. Lawrence Thomas, Mrs. Fred W. Johnson and Mrs. S. F. Harsen, from Troop 4; Mrs. Richard C. Fowler, Mrs. Frank Packard, and Mrs. R. D. McCutcheon, representing Troop 5; and Mrs. V. C. Smith and Mrs. E. A. Healy representing Troop 6.

The council, still temporary, will become permanent next fall. Women will work with the council on the matter of summer camps for the girls.

Leaders to Take Trip

Four of the leaders are making a trip to the Chicago stamp. Miss Gladys Rogers, Miss Lila Mergard, and Miss Dorothy Button are to attend the Edith Macy training camp near New York, for Girl Scout training and then, for their troop meetings. Mrs. Fred Bridge will attend a training camp near Chicago for the same purpose.

The council will, for the summer, keep in contact with national headquarters through the Longtime council. Birmingham council has elected the following officers: Commissioner, Mrs. White; Deputy Commissioner, Mrs. C. D. Cole; Secretary, Mrs. R. C. Fowler; Treasurer, Mrs. Frank Packard.

ORDER OF RAINBOW ASKED TO INITIATE

Birmingham Chapter Will Install 30 New Members At Royal Oak Next Week.

For the first time in its one year of existence, the Birmingham chapter of the Order of the Rainbow for Girls has been invited to perform the ceremonies of initiation of a new chapter. They will go to Royal Oak next Wednesday night, where they will do the institutional work, and initiate 30 members into the new chapter of the order.

The 60 members of the Birmingham chapter will be the guests of the Royal Oak chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star at a banquet preceding the ceremonies. Birmingham's chapter has doubled its membership since its inception a year ago the month.

The officers of the Birmingham chapter, who will do the initiatory and institutional work are: Mrs. Roy Montgomery, mother advisor; Mary Louise Lipka, past worthy advisor, who will act as worthy advisor in the absence of Marion Quarton, present worthy advisor; Mildred Patterson, who will substitute as associate advisor for Loretta Porritt, who has left with her family for Alaska; Alice Upward, charity; Dorothy Cook, hope; Katherine Lipka, faith; Alta Clark, substituting for Mildred Patterson as secretary; Elizabeth Bray, treasurer; Dorothy Smith, chaplain; Blanche Bell, drill leader; Sylvia Weier, red; Edith Gaskell, orange; Marguerite Kamm, yellow; Allison Fell, green; Elizabeth Pollock, blue; Margaret Arnold, indigo; Margaret Johnson, violet; and Margaret Truax, choir director.

Dr. Thomas To Lecture On "Blacksmith's Philosophy"

Dr. James Thomas, pastor of St. Mark's Methodist Church, Detroit, will speak in the Southfield Methodist Church tomorrow night. The subject of his lecture will be the "Blacksmith's Philosophy."

A short musical program will precede Dr. Thomas's lecture. Tickets are to be had at the door by anyone desiring to hear Dr. Thomas.

ROTARY ANNS IN FINAL MEETING

Reports of the year's work were read at the season's last meeting of the Rotary Anns here Friday at the Bloomfield Tavern. The meeting followed a luncheon at 1 p. m. The program consisted of readings by Mrs. Ethel Crawford.

A lovely gold brooch was presented to the retiring president of the organization, Mrs. Mina Vliet, and Mrs. Sabra LaBelle, the new president, was introduced and gave a short talk.

MISS ELSIE SYMONS TO MARRY AT HOME

Monday Noon Is Time Of Wedding of Birmingham Girl to Okla. Knox.

A lovely home wedding will be that of Miss Elsie Symons and Okla Knox, which will be solemnized at noon Monday.

The Rev. Calvin M. Thompson, pastor of the Southfield Methodist Church, will read the service at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Symons, on Brown street. Mr. Knox, a son of Mr. and Mrs. D. Knox, of Dayton, O.

Miss Symons' sister, Mrs. Alta Symons, will act as bridesmaid and Glenn Moore will assist Mr. Knox as best man.

The bridal couple will spend their honeymoon in Sante Ste. Marie and Dayton. After their return, they will reside with the bride's parents for a time.

CHILDREN TAKE PART IN MUSICAL RECITAL

First Presbyterian Church Is Scene Of Recital By Students Of Music.

Mrs. S. M. Dudley presented her piano pupils in a recital last night in the First Presbyterian Church. Mrs. George Tyson, the piano, sang. The recital began at 8 p. m. with Rafie's "Wind a Flute" played by Otto Middlebrant.

Frank Lanson played three good numbers, "Airy Fairies," by Scambatti; Kowalski's "Marie and Brown Eyes," by Dennis; "Dance of the Elves," by Marie Fyle and Donald Dreyer, respectively, were next in order. Vadee White played "Spindrift" by Lohr, and Donald Dreyer and Harold Mott gave a duet, "The Cliffs Flower, by McIntyre.

Solos Given

Freeman Logee gave a number by Grandfield and Irene Hammond played the "Grande Polo" by Wedel. Mrs. Tyson then sang "Brook O' Day," "Flower and the Flyer of Love," by Carew, and Odell Oliver played the "Cliffethene Drill," by Lemont. Marian Fowler did "Love Lorn," by Bayard, Edith Gaskill played "Autumn Idyl," also by Bayard, and Marie Wade gave "My Ideal," by Hodgins.

Mary Johnson and Josephine Hutchinson played a duet, the "Peetle's Dance," by Hold, and Fern Nelles did the ever-popular, "Humoresque," by Dvorak. "La Lavanderie," by Bohm, was next, played by Virginia Reutter, and Bernice Wendelboff gave the "Waltzing Doll."

"Scarf Dance" Given

Mrs. Tyson then sang "Scarf Dance" came next, with Thelma Fisher playing. Mrs. Tyson sang "Lindsay's Valley of Laughter," to Ed Ray. Baker played Brown's "Flirtation Dance." Harriet Clark gave Godard's "Valse Chromatique" and Ellen LaClear did "Glissando Mazurka," by Bohm. Mary Johnson played "Rapsodie Mignonne," by Koelling, and Nettie Bassonette did the "Spring Song" of Mendelsohn. Rachmaninoff's "Prelude in C Sharp Minor" was played by Myra Renwick. The program closed with a duet by Myra Renwick and Elizabeth Clear, the "Priests March" from Mendelssohn's "Atlalia."

Parties Are Given For Bride-To-Be

Much entertaining is being done these days in honor of Miss Mary Quarton, of Pontiac, the niece of Fred V. Quarton. She is to be married June 22 to Thorndyke Edward Waterfall.

Miss Fannie Catherine Smith and Miss Valeria Dickinson entertained at a bridge luncheon and crystal shower for her Saturday, and Mrs. Lester Brown and Miss Wilma Bird entertained the prospective bride and her mother, Mrs. Albert Quarton, at a theater party Monday.

Miss Cleo Burke was hostess at a luncheon and kitchen shower Tuesday, and on Saturday Miss Elizabeth Bishop will be hostess at a bridge breakfast and shower. In the afternoon Mrs. Florence Buttolph and Miss Jean Casteel will honor Miss Quarton with a tea at the college club in Detroit.

FRIEND OF LINDBERGH BACK FROM NEW YORK

Harry Brooks, of Southfield, is at home today, after having attended the banquet given for Col. Charles A. Lindbergh Saturday night at the Mayflower Hotel, Washington, D. C. Mr. Brooks, who is an aviator, and a friend of Col Lindbergh's, went on to New York, to the celebration there.

BIRMINGHAM RECTOR TALKS TO GRADUATES

The Rev. Warner L. Forsyth, new rector of St. James Episcopal Church, fulfilled a promise made a year ago, when he went to Alpena yesterday morning to speak at the high school commencement there tonight. The Rev. Mr. Forsyth was rector in Alpena prior to going to Baltimore, whence he came to Birmingham, and he had promised them in Alpena before he left that he would speak at commencement this year.

He and Mrs. Forsyth, who accompanied him, expect to return Saturday morning.

TUTORING
Six Weeks' Summer Work
PRIVATE HOME
Refined Environment
PERSONAL CONTACT
References Exchanged
Mrs. Ambrose List Shaw
17 Villa Road B'ham 912

52 Issues of The Eccentric $1.50

The Trustees and Directors of

CRANBROOK SCHOOL

ANNOUNCE ITS OPENING AS A

PREPARATORY SCHOOL FOR BOYS

in Bloomfield Hills, near Birmingham, Michigan, September 19, 1927

THOUGH the buildings are designed to accommodate 200 boarding and day students, enrollment for the school year 1927-8 will be limited to 75 boys of the seventh, eighth and ninth grades. Each year thereafter a grade will be added until full preparation is offered for all institutions of higher learning.

SPECIAL attention will be given to instruction in the arts, handicrafts and sciences, including a complete Scout troop. Sixty five acres of hill, dale and water afford unusual facilities for healthful outdoor sports in which all will participate, under tactful direction.

TUITION will be $450 a year for day students, $1,200 for boarding students, who may be expected to bring a very well furnished sleeping room at home. Application received for 1927-8 and future years. For further information address

DR. WILLIAM O. STEVENS, Head Master, CRANBROOK SCHOOL
LONE PINE ROAD, BIRMINGHAM P. O., MICHIGAN

Ye Bloomfield Tavern

Serving Luncheon, Tea and Dinner to discriminating patrons. :: :: ::

Auction Bridge - Special Dinner Parties By Appointment. :: ::

A LA CARTE SERVICE AT ALL TIMES

Situated at 1025 N. Woodward
One-half Mile North of Maple Avenue
Phone Birmingham 195

PERCY MORNINGSTAR, HOST

See Lindbergh's Flight in your own movie

Price: Lindbergh, The Epic Trans-Atlantic Flight. 100 foot (No. MM.) Kodak Cinegraph— $7.50

THE stirring incidents of Roosevelt Field, on the New York to Paris flight, are ready for you in a Kodak Cinegraph for Kodascope projection in your own home. Close-ups of the famous flyer and of details of his plane as well as a stirring portrayal of his hazardous take-off as he escapes death by inches.

Not history in a book, but history in a movie enacted before you and your children at a turn of the switch.

On the same reel are:
The crash of Commander Byrd's great plane.
The near catastrophe of the Bellanca ship.
The tragedy of Rene Fonck's take-off.
The departure of Nungesser and Coli.

Lindbergh
At Paris - London - Brussels - Washington
IN A HOME MOVIE
In a few days we will receive this film which pictures his world-wide receptions. Watch for our announcement.

SHAIN'S
West Maple Ave. Birmingham

The Rexall Drug Store
Four Registered Pharmacists
Miss E. J. Bassett Mr. C. J. Shain
Mr. Frank Willey Mr. G. E. Cook

Books — Gifts — Stationery — GRADUATION and WEDDING GIFTS

LaBelle's Book Store
Phone 1225 : 125½ W. Maple