OAKLAND COUNTY DOGS QUARANTINED

Sheriff Announces Enforcement of Restrictions Against Animals.

Dogs in Oakland County are under quarantine today, and will remain so until Sept. 4, according to an announcement by Sheriff Frank Schram.

The regulation provides that all dogs owned or kept in Oakland County, unless properly vaccinated against rabies within the past year by a qualified veterinarian, and unless identified by tag, shall be properly confined on the premises of their owner or keeper, or, if allowed to run at large shall be securely muzzled, to prevent them from biting any other animals, or persons.

No dog may be removed from the county, according to this regulation, unless it has been properly vaccinated against rabies by a qualified veterinarian within one year of the date of removal. All dogs not identified caught running at large, will be shot, Sheriff Schram said. The quarantine was made necessary, he explained, by cases of rabies discovered in the county recently. Dr. H. J. Killham, state veterinarian, placed the quarantine.
