ROYAL OAK RUMBLINGS.

EDITED AND CONDUCTED BY ARTHUR W. CAMPBELL.

Subscriptions Received and Advertising Contracted for in this Paper by the Agent, Arthur W Campbell, of Royal Oak.

Corn is about all cut.

The threshing season is about over.

Services at the Memorial M. E. church will now begin at 2 p. m.

We noticed Frank Blackmon of Belleville on our streets Saturday.

The Pontiac Democrat is one of the newsiest weeklies we receive.

Go to the corner of Main and Sixth streets for postage stamps; only 2 cents apiece.

Elmon Knowles' house is progressing finely, and it is to be no ill-looking structure.

Lewis Carlton has a 4-months' old Clydesdale colt that weighs 470 pounds and he wants to know who can beat it.

A slander suit in high society in Greenfield is to be the sensation in a few days. Royal Oak will be interested.

The D. & M. R. R. Co. have been putting in some much needed repairs around the depot. We propose going at the old shell itself next time—needs it.

Rev. Hollingshead of Imlay City is helping Mr. Barker in the revival at the Congregational church. He is a wide awake preacher and does much good.

Ira Slade has bought a hundred barrels of snow apples of Albert Campbell, and also the rest of his apples, which will aggregate several hundred barrels.

Mrs. O'Donnell has found a score of her fowls at the house of a colored man on the 7-mile road, who has been taking them gradually for some time. He will be prosecuted.

The prospect are for a good frost before this reaches the reader's eye. But it can do but little harm, and some say much good by killing worms in the wheat.

Quarterly meeting services were held at the Congregational church on Saturday and Sunday. Three persons were taken into membership Saturday afternoon. This is a partial result of the revival there.

A stirring revival prevailed at the Congregational church last week, and it will probably continue through the present one. It is one of our greatest blessings and every one for miles around should attend.

Whitewood correspondence of Wayne County Courier: A young son of Wm. Brown was buried on Monday. The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. D. R. Tracy at the Memorial church, and the remains were interred in Royal Oak cemetery.

Now that fall has arrived with an abundance of crops and every one has lots of money, we would suggest that our subscribers look up their accounts with us and settle. Many are behind from one to six months and we would enjoy nothing more than to put their names over another year.

The postoffice was changed last week Wednesday and Louie began his existence with P. M. at the end of his name. It is believed he will be a good incumbent and his appointment is favorably considered. His second task so far was taking care of the ECCENTRIC last week. He will earn his wages in just distributing them.

In the last two months Folger and Schliaske have threshed over 17,000 bushels of grain. One hundred and eighty-two acres of wheat produced 5,453 bushels, an average of a little less than 30 bushels per acre. It is a safe estimate to put the yield of wheat and oats in this township at from 50,000 to 60,000 bushels, which exceeds any previous record.

As it is concise and to save writing it up ourselves, we clip the following from the Pontiac Gazette: A tramp giving his name as Charles J. Sims broke into the residence of A. P. Darrow, Royal Oak, on Wednesday and stole a few dollars in money and some provisions. He was arrested by Mr. Lewless and on his person was found a marked coin stolen from Darrow; also a miscellany of silver and plated spoons. He was brought to Pontiac and jailed. He refuses to give his true name; said "he would die first." He is evidently not an old tramp, but a young man who has just commenced operations as a thief.

A few Sundays ago a load of city roughs got tired of riding in the country and stopped at Hazel park. Just to kill time they smashed a lot of tiles for J. B. Grow and then skipped for the city. Next morning Mr. Grow skipped to the city, too, and found the depredators. They can pay for the tile in short order or something else they may not like very much. Detroit police say they are old crooks and ought to be laid by for a while. We think it is about time Detroit's scum was sent somewhere else to work off their surplus jollity. On every Sabbath scores of them make Royal Oak their rendezvous, desecrating our usually quiet Sundays and leaving a track of lawlessness behind them. LATER—Since writing the above the fellows have concluded that their safest way is to pay for the tile. Two of them paid $15 apiece and the other $5. The fourth got out of it by giving the others away. The expenses incurred in their arrest and prosecution will omount to over $25 apiece. Guess they think fun comes high in Royal Oak. Mr. Grow says he lost about double the amount received.

J. S. STOCKWELL & CO.,

Pontiac, - - - - Mich.,

All the new fall styles of Dry Goods will be on our counters in time to be inspected by the visitors to the Oakland County Fair.

Why our store is always crowded:

1. We sell a good article and sell it cheap.
2. Our assortment is very large and we keep what the people want.
3. We strive to please our customers by selling them desirable goods, as we are determined to handle goods that will please our trade.
4. We extend to all a cordial invitation to visit our store whether you wish to purchase or not.

We also call your attention to our where we can show you one of the finest assortments of Cloaks ever shown in this city and our prices are the lowest.

CLOAK DEPARTMENT

During the four days of the county fair we shall make arrangements to check all packages brought to us for safe keeping free of charge, so bring your parcels right along and make yourself at home. No matter whether you trade with us or not, you are welcome just the same.
