WOMEN NAMED ON COMMITTEE

Mrs. Norman Lyle, of Yorkshire road, and Mrs. W. Whiting Raymond, of Harmon avenue, have been asked to serve on the advisory council of the Women's committee of the Detroit Symphony orchestra.

Mrs. Lyle and Mrs. Raymond will be the guests of Mrs. Jerome Remick, of Grosse Pointe for luncheon Friday when Mrs. Remick entertains the advisory council.

There is much interest among Birmingham residents in the concerts of the Detroit Symphony orchestra and more than 50 members of the Thursday Musicale club have purchased season tickets for the Friday performances of the orchestra.

SOCIETY

GIRL RESERVES FETE MOTHERS

Home of Mrs. N. T. Shaw Scene of Annual Village Affair

The annual Girl Reserve mother and daughter tea was given from four to six p. m. yesterday at Mrs. N. T. Shaw's residence at 15 Aspect road.

Margaret Strand, interclub pianist, gave a speech welcoming the mothers. Mr. Roland H. Mann responded. Miss Favi Frasier, who has charge of the Girl Reserve clubs of Detroit and vicinity spoke on the "Relation Between Mothers and Daughters." Refreshments were served.

Katherine Mann, Helen Manchester, Margaret Haldane, and Joan Winburn comprised the committee of entertainment and refreshment.

CLASS GIVES PIANO RECITAL

A piano recital was given Saturday afternoon in the auditorium of the Baldwin Public Library by the pupils of Miss Beryl Haynes.

Selections appropriate for children were played. The program included: "Song of the Lark," "The Gallant Fire March," "Rope Dance," "Fairy Waltz," "On Parade," "Rocking Horse," "The Cricket and the Bumble Bee," and "Robin's Lullaby."

Mozart, Grieg, Dvorak, Tschaikowsky, Shubert, Beethoven, Rubinstein, Haydn, Streabbog, Chadwick and Krogbann were some of the composers whose works were played.

Those of Miss Haynes pupils who played were: Marion and Winifred Quarton, Marjorie Sheeran, Donald Helferich, Dorothy Wright, Marjorie Allen, Dorothy Staebler, Dean Smith, Betty Cappbell, Betty Quarton, Victoria Gellatly, Frances Frye and Mrs. Rex Frye.

Mrs. Rachel Bunyan gave readings as a variation on the usual program.

A. A. U. W. WOMEN ENJOY PICNIC

Nearly 60 members of the American Association of University Women attended the annual meeting of the club yesterday afternoon at the summer home of Mrs. L. V. Chamberlain near Metamora. Due to the weather conditions the picnic luncheons were eaten indoors. Following the luncheon the last business meeting of the season took place. Activities of the past year were discussed.

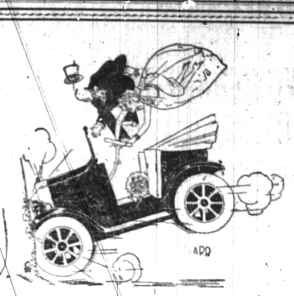
Mrs. Walter T. Elliott, of Townsend avenue, gave a tea at her home Saturday afternoon for her workers in the Community House drive. The guests were: Mrs. John B. Saunders, Mrs. Arthur H. Otis, Mrs. Charles C. Hommedieu, Mrs. Leigh B. Lynch, Mrs. F. H. Mellinger, Mrs. Howard M. Cox, Mrs. H. S. Sibley and Mrs. Donald E. Slutz.

COMMUNITY HOUSE DANCE SERIES ENDS

The dance to be given this Saturday night at the Community House will close the series of dances held at the House during the past season. Mrs. R. H. Mann and Mrs. H. E. Whalen will be the chaperones.

Mr. and Mrs. James F. Cain, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Holms, Mr. and Mrs. George Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Wagner, Mr. and Mrs. Simon Dunn all of Farmington, and Mr. and Mrs. Simon Dunn of Bloomfield Highlands will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Owens for bridge at their home, Kennesaw avenue, Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. McKay, formerly of Memphis, Tenn., have recently moved to Ravine road in the home formerly owned by Mr. and Mrs. William H. Chamberlain.



June Brides Need Help

USUALLY new brides start to equip their homes wishing that they might find counsel from an expert of detail. But it is so hard to find that expert. The result is a collection from which discards later are made with unnecessary expense. If you come across one of these June Brides suggest that they begin their search at LaBelle's, where YOUR problem becomes a personal one.
