ROYAL OAK RUMBLINGS
EDITED AND CONDUCTED BY ARTHUR W. CAMPBELL.

Thinking next Thursday!
A real snow storm on Saturday.

Turkeys are beginning to warble their death songs.

Charles Felker has moved into Charlie Allen's home.

John Welch is building an addition to his residence.

Bert Russell has resumed his residence in our fair village.

Rev. Barker will preach in the Hazel park school house next Sabbath.

Miss Nellie Reynolds has been home on a short vacation and gone back again.

Robert Compton has been spending the week here and will visit New York.

Next Saturday and Sunday will be the first quarterly meeting of the M. E. church. Dr. McElowney will officiate.

Seth Roberts has gone into the creamery and dairy business, thinking it more profitable than delivering milk at the depot.

It makes our citizens pale when they take a load of their mammoth squashes to the city and don't get a single offer for them.

A pond social at the Congregational parsonage, Tuesday evening, for Rev. Barker, was a few hours late for a report in this issue.

To go with our crop reports the Ann Arbor Courier tells of a hen that lays cream eggs each day and gives three times as large on Sundays.

The Y. P. S. S. will give a grand cap and necktie social at the town hall next Tuesday evening. Come out and bring her.

Nice moonlight.

This week closes the third quarter of the Rumbblings and with it the writer will step down and out, because of other affairs requiring close attention.

The large number of green poplar, ash and elm, pine, that have been shipped from here go to the paper factory in Detroit and return around our tea and to havo.

The M. E. Sunday school expects to have the grandest affair on Christmas eve that has been known here for years ago. A variety of forty characters is to be enacted and Christmas trees full presents to be given away.

Sore throat and diphtheria are among the varieties around here. Mamie Erb has not attended school for some time for this reason, and the wife of Assistant Postmaster Felker has just recovered from an attack of diphtheria.

Miss Mary Baine was united in marriage last week Wednesday with Frank Hill of Greenfield, Me. Dr. McElowney is officiating. A long acquaintance with the bride convinces us that Mr. Riley's choice was a wise one.

Mario Robinson is just booming things at his bit mill. Instead of getting another hand, he has engaged for the coming time since reported, he has got a big brain new one. A building is now being put over it and a lot of machinery for making flour will probably be the next thing in order.

"What's become of the Rumbler?" "Where's the Royal Oak now?" and like expressions were current last week when the eccentric came to hand. "We had the lions all prepared for the coming and intended there should be no delay, but plans don't always come out as we make them, and unavoidable circumstances prevented our getting to the train, or even to the telephone, hence the Rumbler was silent."

New fall millinery at Mrs. Furman's. Detroit bread at Mrs. Furman's at 7c.

Mrs. Furman sells newspapers and magazines and would like to increase her advertising list; also sells Franklin Square and Seaside publications.

The greatest foe of American population is consumption; the victims number in the thousands each year. Physicians and druggists have at last found a remedy, which is felt justified in recommending it as Dr. Bosan's cough and lung syrup, which cures consumption in stages that other remedies are of no benefit, cures coughs, colds and all throat and lung diseases speedily and safely. Price 50c and $1. For sale by Whitehead & Mitchell.
