The newspaper men have been pestering me for the past six weeks to write out a new advertisement for their columns.

Now, as I am very busy and have no time to write it out myself, I will give $20 in gold to the first person who will straighten it out again for me as it was originally.

W. H. BRUMMITT.

Where is our roller rink? School commenced last Monday under favorable circumstances.

What has become of the many attendant weddings hereabouts? The funeral of the infant son of Frank Kenney took place at the home last week Wednesday.

Charles Cantlie has accepted the charge of Capt. Steven's green-houses on Woodward avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Franckel and Mrs. Wood stated the Campbell's and Oaks, their relatives, last week.

Watch and Brown have purchased a circular saw with the aid of other of their sawing wood.

Mrs. Moore of White Lake has been visiting her daughter, who teaches the primary department in the high school.

Robinson & Co. have exchanged their engine for a larger one, and it is rumored that bearing machinery will be put in.

It almost makes us disgusted to come in with feet wet, clothes wet and body wet, to hear friends, good and bad, all say "It's damp, weather, rather rainy."

The Wayne County Courier says the boys around here have come on the lamp, but that they capture no game.

Somewhat tends to know why we didn't note the death of Mrs. Gosdalk here last week. When another correspondent lives in the same neighborhood, we conclude, it is out of our latitude to chronicle his trials.

The Y. P. S. has prepared their rooms in the M. E. church and greatly improved it. The society meets at 2 o'clock to-morrow evening. All young people are invited to attend.

Was, was, into us when the valiant heroes shall draw their swords, and all of "up" and heartily echo, or rather defend us from our dearest rights given by the powers that be.

None come rather scarce this week. We might follow the example of a worthy exchange and tell which way the wind blows. Thanksgivings will occur on Thursday this year, it is drawing near to winter.

The greatest foe of America's people's consumption, its various number thousands each year. Physicians and druggists have at last found a remedy they feel justified in recommending it.
