OAKLAND COUNTY NEWS

Considerable groceries and small amounts of cash were obtained Tuesday from chain grocery stores located at Bernard street and John R, Hazel Park and Hayes street and John R. Deputies Walter Alschbach and Clifford Murray discovered while making their rounds. Entrance was gained to both places by breaking windows in the front door.

State and county taxes collected so far by Minnie M. Reeves, Ferndale treasurer, exceeds by 11 per cent the money collected up to Dec. 21 last year, the commission was told by Manager R. J. Whitney. Collections this year have reached $37,705.51 while last year at this time the total was $33,958.60.

About $10 damage was done Monday afternoon to the Higgins Garage when the walls caught fire from a blow-torch. An overheated furnace caused a fire at 5:20 p. m. at 355 Nine Mile road west. Firemen extinguished the blaze around a hot air register after about $10 damage had been done.

Petitions asking that Raymond J. Whitney, not be engaged again as city manager, of Ferndale, were not presented Monday night to the city commission as expected. One petitionh stating that "he has outlived his usefulness" bore four signatures when seen Monday afternoon. It is understood that three other petitions are in circulation. Annual appointments are to be made by the commission next Monday night.

City Can Control Busses

Royal Oak can control operation of and fares charged on busses and interurbans within the city limits, City Attorney W. C. Hudson told the city commission. The opinion was requested because of the recent agitation against the service rendered and fares charged by the Eastern Michigan system. Harry J. Merritt, representing the system, told the commission the lines have been losing money for many months and that the recent fare increases were needed. The commission took no action against the lines, pending an investigation by the Inter-Municipality Transportation Committee, formed two weeks ago.

Declaring the assessment levied against property he owns in Troy Township is inequitable. Joseph Grindley has petitioned the Oakland Probate Court to appoint a board of review of three disinterested citizens to review the assessment roll prepared in the office of County Drain Commissioner Arthur W. Spencer for the Birmingham Gardens Drain, a half million dollar project. The contract is about to be let. Grindley declares his assessment for this drain is $72,000, or about $300 an acre, regardless of the fact that he has been assessed $12,200 for the Lawson Drain, constructed recently, and which is to be an outlet for the Birmingham Gardens Drain.

Convicted of involuntary manslaughter earlier in the week in Circuit Court, James Travis, 26 years old, 162 Seminole avenue, Pontiac was sentenced to from 6 to 15 years in the Michigan Reformatory at Ionia, by Judge Frank L. Doty, just before noon Saturday.

Travis drove an automobile which caused the death at Orion the night of Oct. 23, of George Andreson, 56 years old, prominent Orion township farmer.

Hubert Hadley, former resident of Rochester, and one of the most accomplished athletes ever turned out in that village, professional baseball player and roller skater, died Friday of last week at the home of his uncle, James W. Horn, Detroit, following a three days' illness of pneumonia. At the time of his death he was employed in the coal business in Detroit, and also was manager of a number of chain stores. He was unmarried.

Police today were investigating the attempted holdup of J. F. Codling, former mayor of Royal Oak, Christmas night at his home, 321 East First street. Codling said one of two men pointed a gun at him and the hat he slammed the door in the men's faces, following which they ran.

John James Everett, Aged 81 years, one of Ortonville's most respected citizens passed away Monday at his home in that village after a week's illness. Mr. Everett was regarded as one of the best known men in that community, having lived practically all his life in that vicinity and on a farm a short distance from Ortonville. His summers were spent at Hummers Lake, where he owned a number of cottages.

At a meeting of the board of directors, Evi Dunn, was appointed Director of the Oxford Savings Bank to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Monroe G. Dunlay.

Mr. and Mrs. William Robert, of Metamora, observed Christmas Day in two ways: first as the birthday of Christ and second as the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding day.

As a memorial to Harry Brooks of Southfield, who lost his life in the Atlantic ocean during a flight along the Florida coast, a fountain was dedicated during the formal opening of the new McKinley school in Southfield Park. The fountain is located in the school.

Another epidemic of break-ins in Hazel Park started Friday when three gasoline filling stations and one Kroger Grocery store were entered. A complete check-up on the amount of the loot had not been completed at noon today but it will probably total $50, deputy sheriffs believe.

George K. Ball, artist and illustrator, who for the last two years had made his home at 1119 Maplegrove avenue, Royal Oak, died this morning at 9:15 at Grace hospital, Detroit. He had been ill for about six months.

A. O. Greenough, retiring president of the Royal Oak Real Estate Board, will be succeeded by Fred W. Smith, former Royal Oak City Commissioner. Smith was elected at the annual meeting of the board, Dec. 23. Other officers chosen are: Correll Damon, vice president; Paul Telhorster, secretary-treasurer; and James E. Lawson, member of the board of control.

Oscar Aranon, 39 years old, of Detroit, was fatally injured on Tuesday when he fell from the roof of a new addition to the Calvin Coolidge school in Fern dale to the second floor, 12 feet below. Aranon, according to the report of the accident, had just placed a beam in position and started to walk across it when it slipped from its position, throwing Aranon off.
