POOR RICHARDS FROLIC ON FRIDAY

George Washington Party Will Be Given At The Village Playhouse

The Poor Richards will frolic at a George Washington party Friday evening in the Village Playhouse. Flags and decorations of red, white, and blue will transform the hall into a stronghold of patriotism and help to increase the spirit of festivity.

Mrs. W. A. P. John is general chairman of the party, and is being assisted by Mrs. Joseph P. Little, Mrs. Gordon Lefebvre, Mrs. Charles J. Shain, Mrs. Fred D. Farrar, Mrs. E. W. Shattuck and Mrs. Thomas R. Walton.

Many dinners are being planned by members to precede the affair. Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Shain will entertain 12 guests in their home. A subscription party is being organized by Mrs. Harold E. Middleton and Mrs. John Clayton, who will be joined by their husbands and Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Fellows, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. McDonald, and Dr. J. B. Hassberger, at the Lone Pine Inn.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Shattuck, of Wimbleton drive will be hosts to three couples at dinner, and Mr. and Mrs. F. F. McKinney, will entertain at a pot luck supper in their home for 12 guests.

COUNTY WOMEN TO HEAR TALKER

The Oakland County Council of Women will meet Tuesday at 10 a. m. in the Community House and will hear a talk delivered by Mr. Ellsworth D. Spooner, chairman of the Poor Commission, on the nature of his work.

Reports will be read by Mrs. Otto Sachse, of Pontiac, chairman of the court committee; by Mrs. Forest Smith, of Berkley, chairman of the Board of Supervisors committee; and by Mrs. L. W. Brummitt, of Ferndale, chairman of the welfare and Poor Commission committee.

Schubert Music Program Heard

The auditorium of Cranbrook school was the scene of a Schubert program of music under the direction of Vernon B. Kellett of the school faculty last evening. Mr. F. A. Franklin, soloist at Christ church, rendered six songs, and was followed by Mr. Kellett, who sang three numbers. They were accompanied by Mrs. Raymond Reilley.

Miss Grace Cunningham played two Liszt variations of Schubert's compositions on the piano. Mr. Kellett concluded the program with a talk on the life of Schubert and the explanation of his works.

EXHIBITION AT LIBRARY TUESDAY OF MRS. THURBER'S PAINTINGS

An exhibition of the paintings of Mrs. Alice Thurber, sponsored by the art department of the Women's Literary club, will be held Tuesday in the Baldwin Public library for the benefit of the student loan fund. The public is cordially invited to attend by Mrs. Clarence Vliet, general chairman of the exhibition, and by members of the club.

Tea will be served, with Miss Mary Clark Griffith and Mrs. Hugh H. Wellman pouring. Mrs. Mable Smith will be in charge of the tea and will be assisted by Mrs. E. M. Otterman, Mrs. George Singers, and Mrs. Harry Bayley. Tickets for the affair will be collected by Mrs. G. R. Norton.

"It is such a privilege for the village to have an artist who has had so many honors extended to her," said Mrs. Vliet, "and we expect many will show their interest when given an opportunity to see her paintings." Some pupils of Mrs. H. R. Ridder, art instructor at the Baldwin High school, have made posters advertising the exhibition which will be placed advantage points throughout the village.

Rotary Anns To Hear Musicale

A musical program given by members of the Thursday Musicale will feature the next meeting of the Rotary Anns, to be held in the Baldwin Public library, Mar. 10. On Feb. 24, members of the club will be the guests of the Rotary club at a dinner and dance at the Birmingham Golf club. The Rotary Anns will return the favor at a dinner and dance for their husbands at the Community House Mar. 31.

The last meeting of the organization was held Monday noon at the home of Mrs. C. D. Carr. A short business meeting followed the luncheon and was succeeded by a social afternoon at cards. The luncheon committee was composed of Mrs. Alfred La Belle, Mrs. Ross Riddell, and Mrs. Victor Peck.

LEGION AUXILIARY TO GIVE BENEFIT PARTY

The American Legion Auxiliary will give a benefit card party Friday at the home of Mrs. Lillian Cook, at 319 Greenwood avenue. Mrs. Thelma Bailey will assist Mrs. Cook in serving refreshments.

The Charles Edwards Post of the American Legion will meet Wednesday evening in the Community House for business. A joint social meeting of the two organizations was held recently at the Community House, to which members brought articles for service baskets for the soldiers' hospital at Battle Creek.
