MISS GILES SPEAKS HER VOWS IN LOVELY CHURCH CEREMONY

The wedding of Miss Frances Wolfe Giles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. Giles, of Knox street, to Theodore H. Stahl, son of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Stahl, of Bloomfield Hills, was solemnized Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock in St. James Episcopal church, beautifully decorated with delphiniums, lilies, and other garden flowers, donated by friends of Mrs. Giles. The service was read by the Rev. Warner L. Forsyth and witnessed by relatives and a few intimate friends. The couple are now motoring in the North, and will return shortly to establish their home in Jackson.

The bride wore a long princess gown of white taffeta, with long, close-fitting, lace sleeves. Her cap was of white tulle, trimmed with orange blossoms, and her bouquet was composed of lilies of the valley, white roses, and babies' breath. Four attendants preceded her to the altar. Miss Eleanor Young, of Brampton, Ont., as maid of honor, was attired in a gown of rose figured net over rose.

The dresses of the bridesmaids Miss Ruth Stahl and Miss Hester Giles, were fashioned like those of the bride, and differed in color only, Miss Stahl's being of green, and Miss Giles', of yellow. Miss Carolyn Giles, the junior bridesmaid, wore figured orchid net over orchid. All the bridesmaids wore mohair hats, and satin slippers which matched their dresses, and carried colonial bouquets.

Lawrence E. Smith attended as best man; and ushers were Walter Guthrie and Harold Smith. The wedding reception was held at the Giles' home after the ceremony. The bridal table was graced with a large basket of garden flowers and tall ivory candles burning in silver candelabra. Garden flowers were used as decoration throughout the house.

Now is the time to save money on your renewal subscription. After The Eccentric's "Everybody Wins Campaign" the subscription price is going to be raised from $1.50 per year to $2.00 (in Oakland County). Help your favorite candidate now and save.

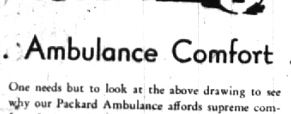
Gloria Caruso, young daughter of the famed tenor, is said to have inherited her father's musical talent to a marked degree.



∴ Ambulance Comfort ∴

One needs but to look at the above drawing to see why our Packard Ambulance affords supreme comfort. It is a motor vehicle of great riding ease in which the patient rides well forward. There is almost a complete lack of the "throw" sometimes found in ambulances when driven at high speeds.
