VILLAGERS and the VILLAGE

By THE WANDERER

Mr. and Mrs. Birmingham were a trifle downcast today. Reason: Their 1932 village tax bill falls due tomorrow, July 1. Some of their neighbors, however, have already paid up and "got it over with," for more than $6,500 had been collected up to yesterday, it was reported at the treasurer's office.

The reward offered by Chief of Police John P. Hackett to the person who will direct him to a spot in Birmingham where a man can plank his dough on the table and receive a glass of liquor or beer in exchange is still burning the chief's pocket, he told this Wanderer yesterday. Since he made the offer, to be taken up by either wet or dry group or individual alike—he has received but one communication, and that was concerning a place which has been under surveillance by the police for months, but against which evidence to warrant even a "tip-over" raid was not sufficient, the chief said.

J. B. Howarth, local real estate and insurance man, for many, many years has been engaged in helping others. Among his efforts was a period of service in France during the World War, where he was in charge of recreation work for the Y. M. C. A. in one of the leave areas. So it was so he expected that "J. B." would remember the significance of 1918 to 1932. He reminded this Wanderer that it was on June 28, 1914, that the Archduke Ferdinand of Austria and his Morganatic wife were assassinated by a student fanatic in Sera Jero, Serbia, precipitating the greatest war in history; on the same day in 1919 peace terms were signed in the Palace of Versailles where William the First, of Germany, was made Emperor in 1871.

Birmingham Rotarians, under the leadership of Louis Hascall, will soon play three golf games against the local Exchange Club, the winner to have its name inscribed on the silver trophy that is played for annually by these two service organizations.

The following communication addressed to Police Chief John P. Hackett by Rev. W. Clarence Wright, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, is pinned to the wall in police headquarters in the Municipal Building. "Save this," admonishes an order written in red pencil above the letter, "for we don't get very many of them." The letter follows:

"Dear Sir:

"I want to commend and thank your department for the very prompt and willing response to my two calls; one the evening of May 29 and the other early on the morning of June 12. Such response and courtesy creates a confidence in the force in Birmingham.

"W. CLARENCE WRIGHT.

"The church appreciates the courtesy of police protection to children and adults of the church Sunday mornings. Many have noted and mentioned this."

Takes Traffic Case To Circuit Court

Motorist Found Guilty Of Reckless Driving Appeals Justice's Verdict

An appeal had been taken to Circuit Court today of a decision handed down by Justice Floyd S. Buck last Thursday in which James Bayes, 39 years old, proprietor of a shoe repair shop on West Maple avenue, had been found guilty of reckless driving and sentenced to pay a fine of $35 and costs of $18.

Bayes was arrested on June 11 after an automobile he was driving had crashed into another driven by Mrs. Evalene M. Brodine, 8047 Hamilton avenue, at Woodward and Lincoln avenues. Mrs. Brodine had suffered cuts and bruises over the left eye, and the force of the impact had shoved her car into a third machine parked at the curb.

Bayes claimed at his trial Thursday that he was travelling at a moderate rate of speed, and that the collision occurred by the fact his brakes locked and made his car swerve into Mrs. Brodine's machine as he was rounding the cut-over at the place where the double pavement ends on Woodward avenue.

Will File Today In Sheriff Race

H. RAY JUDY

Petitions will be filed with the county clerk today by H. Ray Judy, for the past eight years a member of the Berkley police department, announcing his candidacy for sheriff on the Republican ticket.

Before coming to Berkley, Mr. Judy was engaged in business in West Virginia, his native state, and later in Detroit.

Economy through equalization of salaries in the sheriff's office and enforcement that will "build up a wholesome respect for law in the county" were announced by Mr. Judy as his campaign policy.

"It seems to me that the cost of the sheriff's department in this county is entirely too expensive," Mr. Judy declared. "In fact, it is all out of proportion to the cost of administering law enforcement in other counties of about the same population. I realize that our county is a summer playground for thousands of persons from Detroit and other sections outside of Oakland County, requiring many deputies for special work, still I am convinced that there is room for greater economy without cutting down the force."

Miniature Menagerie Marches In Pet Parade At St. James' Church Street Fa

Ponies, dogs, cats, turtles, toads, alligators, and even a raccoon—pets of every size and species—were among the entries in the pet parade held in conjunction with the St. James' Episcopal Church street fair Saturday afternoon. Some tots hardly able to walk strutted pets twice their own size.

The warm weather did not improve the dispositions of the entries, and some minor trouble was created when certain of the animals tried to tear apart their fellow contestants. Peace was soon restored, however, and the parade was allowed to continue.

A pair of beautiful red setters with a brood of 11 pups, the property of H. J. Rue, Yorkshire road, carried off the first prize as the most attractive entry. The dogs were led by Eustace Vynne, Jr.

Patsy and Joan Ley of Hazelwood avenue won first prize for originality with their pair of twin kittens.

A Victorian horse and buggy, driven by Raynale Kline, was judged the most unique entry. About a dozen others were awarded prizes for various distinctions in their pets.

The smallest participant in the parade was a mud turtle, no larger than a half-dollar. Bobby McCauley was the owner.

Led by a police escort, the parade started from St. James' Church, proceeded down West Maple to Woodward, south on Woodward to Merrill, and west on Merrill to the "fair grounds."

The parade was part of the all-day fair which also included a vaudeville show composed entirely of home talent, concessions and stands of every description and an outdoor dance in the evening with music by an orchestra of high school students.

DRUNK DRIVER FINED

Harry Shawl, 1518 Church Street, Flint, arrested here Tuesday night for drunk driving, was fined $50 when arraigned before Judge Floyd S. Buck yesterday. The alternative was 60 days in jail.
