Bits O' Birmingham

—By THE WANDERER—

Three new Birmingham businessmen were accepted into membership in the local service clubs this week at the joint meeting Wednesday at the Community House. They are: Charles Winningham, Exchange; John Daley, Rotary, and Hans Mackus, Lions. Mr. Winningham's classification is automobiles; Mr. Daley's is "rough diamonds," and Mr. Machus is a baker, former member of the Detroit Lions Club.

Deserved honor was tendered to H. C. Garrison, of Royal Oak, a member of the editorial staff of the Detroit News, two weeks ago when Governor Comstock offered him the appointment as commissioner of pardons and paroles, to succeed A. Debo, who is to be given another political job. Mr. Garrison, The News' political writer of recognized wide ability, modestly declined the appointment. Friends of "Hub" Garrison, who know of his great love for the newspaper game, understand his reasons for turning down the opportunity to enter politics.

—o—

Monday noon, at the luncheon of the local branch of the National League of Women Voters, two women whose relatives stack up large in the present Federal Government sat opposite each other. They were Mrs. A. D. McLaughlin, president of the local group, whose brother is Henry Wallace, secretary of agriculture, and whose father held a similar place in the Harding cabinet; the other was Mrs. G. Hall Roosevelt, (Dorothy Kemp), whose husband is a cousin of Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, the President's wife, and also more distantly related to the President himself, since the present White House couple are second cousins.

Information comes to the Wanderer of high honors won on the west coast by a dachshund, "Greenburg's Gretchen of G," owned by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Raynor Glennie, former Birminghamites who are now residing in Burlingame, Cal. At the age of seven months, the dog went reserve winner at the Golden Gate Kennel Dog show last year, and winner and best of winners at the recent Sacramento Kennel show. She was bred to Featherhill Heaven of G, owned by Richard Barthlemess, the motion picture star.

—o—

Inspectors for the city's election worked all day Monday without knowing how much they were going to be paid. The Commission neglected to set the remuneration for election inspectors at its previous meeting, and not until Monday, when the polls were closed and the precinct workers were counting ballots, did the word come to them that the city fathers had approved a rate of 35 cents an hour for their services.

—o—

Easter Sunday was a banner day in the history of nearly all Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills churches. Not only did the attendance at the Easter services this year exceed those of the past several years in most churches, but the offerings set new records as well, this Wanderer has been informed. At the 11 o'clock service at St. Jame's Episcopal Church, the largest congregation ever to attend a service there—320 persons—packed virtually every niche and corner.

Another prevue of a feature movie film which has not yet been generally released, even to first run houses, is scheduled for a showing at the Birmingham Theater tonight. It is "Come On, Marines!" starring Richard Arlen and Ida Lupino, the new British actress. The prevue, sent here to test "audience reaction," will go on at about 9 P. M., and will be an additional feature to the regular performance, according to Manager Howard C. Holah.

What The Women Think About It

Each week, The Eccentric asks several women, chosen at random from the telephone book, to answer a question of general interest in Birmingham.

The question this week: What is your opinion of the New Deal?

Mrs. Frederick A. Carey, 968 Madison avenue: "I think that, as far as we can see, it's alright. All the people seem to be behind the President and there isn't a lot of criticism."

Mrs. Stanton Clarke, 311 Aspen road: "I think that Roosevelt is trying to do all he can. His manner of bringing warring factions together is certainly very diplomatic."

Mrs. Wilson D. Flugstad, 511 Park street: "I think the New Deal has worked out very well so far."

Mrs. James W. Doyle, 119 Holland avenue: "It's just fine. It put our one boy to work, so we're all for it."

Mrs. Milton H. Bell, 4325 Verona circle, Beverly Hills: "The New Deal has certainly seemed successful to me."

Mrs. George H. Flynn, Charring Cross road: "It is my opinion that the New Deal would be a possible solution to the country's problems if all the administrative departmental heads were as sincere and honest as Franklin D. Roosevelt."

Mrs. J. A. Dean, 723 Ann street: "I am perfectly satisfied with the things that the President is doing."

Mrs. H. G. Doering, 940 Harmon avenue: "So far, it is working out very well, but I think it will be a matter of years before we can tell how successful it really is."

Mrs. M. D. Mills, 255 Linden road: "During the past year there has been a widespread improvement in economic conditions, with more prosperity and less unemployment. The President, through his forceful leadership, has initiated movements from which progress has resulted. However, it remains with the people themselves whether this is to be a mere surface betterment with conditions gradually approaching the thoughtless prosperity of pre-1929 days, or whether this betterment will accompany an awakened public consciousness and a concerted striving for national unity and well-being."

Mrs. Bert Fuller, 740 Ann street: "I think the New Deal is just fine. I'm spending my money to get it into circulation and help things along."

Mrs. William E. Essery, 240 Aspen road: "The New Deal has reinforced everything in the structure of American democracy except its foundation. Education has been forgotten. The case of education grows steadily worse, while NRA codes stabilize and increase the rewards of industry and labor and the AAA improves the condition of agriculture.

"Our public schools need emergency federal aid just as much as industry and labor and agriculture do. The George-Ellzey Bill, allocating $50,000,000 to keep the schools open for the remainder of 1933-34, and $100,000,000 for 1934-35, is now before Congress. Parents have no organized lobby, but they can help speed education's New Deal by writing today to their senators and representatives urging support of this bill."

Percy Grainger, pianist and composer:

"American music, composed by American, played by Americans and heard by Americans, is the truest music in the world."

The Way It's Put

One of those big strong men walked into a ladies' shop and said, "I want to get a set of ladies' furs. That brown set in the window will do."

To which the shopman said, "Oh, you mean skunk." And the shopman is still in the hospital.—Leyland Rubber Relay.

WE HEARD IT SAID BY—
James W. Parry, city manager: "This has been the year of the biggest of everything. We had the biggest rain, the hardest frost, the biggest police car smash-up, and the biggest snow."

When Booth Tarkington was visiting Naples he was present at an eruption of VVesuvius.

"You haven't anything like that in America, have yyou?" said an Italian friend with pride.

"No, we haven't," replied Tarkington, "but we've got Niagara Falls that would put that thing out in five minutes."—The Corn Cob.
