ST. JAMES' TO HOLD ROUND TABLE SERIES

Beginning next Wednesday evening, a series of regular weekly dinners and round table discussions on religious and other topics will be held at St. James' Episcopal Church. It has been announced by the rector, the Rev. Warner L. Forsyth. A leader will be provided for each discussion, and the meetings will be open to the public, including both men and women. Meetings are planned for Feb. 14, 21, and 28, and Mar. 14 and 21.

The church has also arranged for a series of services for children and young people to be held every Thursday at 4:15 P. M. during Lent.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Coley of Ridgedale avenue were hosts at an informal pot-luck dinner at their home Monday evening. In the party were Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Tremper, Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Elliott and Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Butters.

NEW WELFARE HEADS NAMED

Mrs. Haldane Named Visitor For Birmingham; Seibert Is Regional Chief

Mrs. Alice Haldane, former Birmingham policewoman, Monday assumed her new duties as Birmingham's welfare visitor under the Oakland County Welfare Relief Commission.

Mrs. Haldane's appointment to the post became effective with the transfer of Gordon Van Camp, of Pontiac, former regional welfare director for District 3, which includes Birmingham, to Royal Oak as director of the Royal Oak Township district.

Van Camp succeeded Harry Brimmell, who was dismissed by the County Welfare Relief Commission following investigation of charges that Brimmell is an alien. In turn, Van Camp was replaced at the head of the Birmingham district, which also includes Bloomfield, Waterford, Avon, West Bloomfield and Troy Townships, by Maynard Seibert, of Royal Oak.

As welfare visitor in Birmingham, Mrs. Haldane will be responsible for the distribution of grocery and surplus food orders, clothing and Red Cross supplies to welfare dependents, and with making regular personal visitations to their homes. This work was formerly handled by Mrs. Edna Cooper, who has been transferred to Troy and Bloomfield Townships. Mrs. Haldane had been Mrs. Cooper's assistant preceding the changes.

When Mrs. Haldane began her work Monday there were 63 families listed on the Birmingham-Bloomfield Township welfare rolls, and of these about 11 were resident in the township. As testimony of the benefits brought to Birmingham from the CWA program, only two or three of the city's welfare recipients would be able to work even if more jobs were available, Mrs. Haldane said.

Beginning this week, both welfare subjects and CWA workers are receiving surplus food allotments in addition to their regular grocery orders or CWA checks. The surplus includes smoked and salt pork, canned roast beef, butter and eggs. It will be distributed every two weeks.

Foremen on CWA projects will supervise the distribution of their workers, who have been reduced to a 24-hour, $15 a week basis, while local welfare visitors will handle it in the regular welfare cases.

Farrar To Decorate Kindergarten Walls

Local Artist Assigned To Draw Murals In Four Rooms As FERA Project

Fred D. Farrar, local artist and architect, has been assigned to decorate the walls of the kindergarten rooms of four of Birmingham's public school buildings as a federal public works in art project, a branch of the emergency relief program.

A sketch of the design for the Pierce School kindergarten was shown by Mr. Farrar to and approved by the Board of Education Tuesday night, and he was instructed to proceed immediately with the work. The design, which will be similar to those for the other three rooms, consists of mural drawings of brightly colored animal and floral figures taken from well known children's stories. They will be applied directly to the walls with chalk and charcoal, and covered with a transparent fixative.

With the exception of about $20 in materials to be purchased by the School Board, the work will be paid for entirely by federal funds. The kindergartens to be decorated are in Pierce, Quarton, Barnum and Adams Schools.

What The Women Think About It

Each week, The Eccentric asks several women, chosen at random from the telephone book, to answer a question of general interest in Birmingham.

The question this week: What do you think of the Paul Honore mural which was hung last week in the corridor of Baldwin High School?

Mrs. G. F. Johnson, 619 Pierce street: "I think it is a splendid piece of work to have in the schools. Not only is it valuable as a piece of art, but also it expresses the ideas so clearly that those who are not artists can appreciate it as well as those who are. For that reason it means much more to the students."

Mrs. D. L. Tate, 959 Westchesterway: "The mural is beautiful, but I do feel it would be much better if hung about a foot lower. It seems to be just a little high in its present position. I think it is fine for us to have it in our school."

Mrs. James Ransier, 511 George street: "It is very nice, and it seemed especially appropriate that it should be hung the day before graduation."

Mrs. Harry V. Collins, 218 Pilgrim road: "It is extremely good work and a real addition to the school."

Mrs. Carl F. Sitta, 1888 Oak street: "It is a very, very wonderful thing for the school. It is beautifully done—one of the best works of Paul Honore I have ever seen. I think it was a splendid move for the school to accept such a thing in exchange for tuition. Not only will it effect the lives of the students in school now, but it will effect the lives of future students as well."

Miss Louise Tuomey, 572 Harmon avenue: "I think it is very interesting. The background is especially good because it is symbollic. I have seen many of the most famed murals in this country, and Mr. Honore's certainly compares favorably with the best."

Mrs. Clinton E. Sears, 1091 Madison avenue: "I think it is perfectly beautiful, and that it is a great thing to be able to have it in the halls of Baldwin High School. I really can't use adjectives sufficient to describe it. I do think that it should be explained to the students, especially the symbols used on the pylons."

Mrs. George D. Clarx, 2187 Yorkshire road: "The mural is really beyond criticism. Mr. Honore used good judgment in not making it too modern or too conventional, and I like the symbols he has used. The more you look at the mural the more you see. It is too bad we can't have more of them. The Board of Education's action in accepting the mural in return for tuition payment was splendid."

Mrs. C. D. Matthews, 251 Brown street: "The mural looks fine to me. I don't know much about art, but I do know that this work pleases me. Every comment I have heard concerning it has been favorable."

Lawrence Rothenberg, Attorney, 14048 Woodward.
