Miss Rose Chester.

"Lair, sir, said: 'what do you suppose Miss Chester does for her living?'"

"I can't say, Mr. Dunning," replied Miss Chester, "she is a widow."

Humors in the Blood

Dr. Geo. W. Allen, of the New York Dispensary, writes: "I have treated many cases of humors in the blood, and I can assure you that they are not difficult to cure."

"I can't say, Mr. Dunning," replied Miss Chester, "she is a widow."
