Junior Musicians Will Present Program For Art Group Of Club

A group of junior musicians will present a program Tuesday afternoon when members of the art department of the Birmingham Woman's Club meet for tea at the home of Mrs. L. J. Slusser of Pierce street, at 2 p. m.

The other three departments of the club are planning meetings for the same day. Mrs. J. H. Rosso of Pierce street will be hostess at a dessert luncheon at 1:30 p. m., for members of the International Relations Department, at which four foreign-born students from Detroit will be honor guests.

Mrs. Carl Binkle of Pine road will entertain members of the American Home department at a dessert luncheon at 1:30. A Michigan Day program will be observed and Mrs. Arthur L. Genung of Fairfax road, will speak on "Fiction from the Author's Viewpoint."

Members of the literature department will meet at the home of Mrs. T. B. Smith of Mohegan drive for tea, and to plan their program for next year.

Most elaborate of the programs will be that of the art department. It will open with two piano solos by Margaret Gardner, "To Spring" by Grieg and "Tarantella" by McDowell. Jean Alice Potter will play several violin solos, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Earl G. Potter. The solos will include Beethoven's "Minuet in G" and "Country Gardens" by Percy Grainger.

Leschetizky's arrangement for the left hand of the Andante from the Sextette by Donizetti, and "Valse in A-flat" by Brahms will be offered as piano solos by Rosemary Essig. Accompanied by her mother, Mrs. H. H. Gardner, Mary Gardner will sing two solos. They will be "Thank God for a Garden" by Teresa del Riego, and "Come Unto Me" by Tchaikowsky.

Harold Jones will play "Culver Polka" by Steinhauser, as a trumpet solo, accompanied by Mrs. A. W. Berndt. The program will close with two piano solos by Bob Slusser, Chopin's "Waltz in C-sharp Minor," and "Nocturne in C Minor" by the same composer.

Tempting Recipes For Cooking Lamb

There are many ways of serving lamb, which makes it a very satisfactory meat for the housekeeper to serve. Slices from the leg or shoulder are good either served cold or heated in gravy. Lamb en casserole, lamb souffle or lamb mousse are a few of the ways of using left-overs.

Stuffed Shoulder of Lamb

Select a tender young roast and have the butcher bone it for you. Make a filling by mixing ½ cup of finely chopped raw ham, 1½ cups of soft bread crumbs, 2 tablespoon of fat pork, ¼ cup of rich milk, a grating of nutmeg, 1 teaspoon of onion juice, pepper and salt to taste.

Chop the salt pork fine and cook it until crisp; add the bread crumbs and brown them; add the other ingredients and mix well. Stuff the cavity neatly and fasten securely. Rub the outer surface of the meat with butter and lemon juice, a little sugar and about 1 teaspoon of cream. Sprinkle with pepper and salt. Place in a hot oven to sear nicely; then lower heat and continue cooking until done, allowing from 2 to 2½ hours. Baste occasionally with the juice in the pan to keep the roast tender and moist. Do not add water unless the meat is very dry.

Baked Lamb Chops.

6 lamb chops, cut 1 inch thick.
1 cup sliced onion.
3 tablespoons shortening.
4 cups sliced potatoes.
3 cups sliced cucumbers.
2 teaspoons salt.
2 cups canned tomatoes.
½ teaspoon pepper.

Saute the lamb chops on both sides and when brown place in bottom of greased baking pan. Pour the drippings over the chops. Saute the onions in the shortening until soft and mix them with the potatoes and cucumbers. Season with salt and pepper. Cover the lamb chops with the vegetables and pour the tomatoes over them. Place the cover on the pan and bake 2 hours in an oven 400 degrees.

Curried Lamb.

1 sliced onion.
1½ tablespoons butter.
1½ tablespoons flour.
¾ cup lamb stock.
¼ to 1 teaspoon curry powder.
Salt and pepper.
Cooked lamb.
Cooked peas.
Steamed rice.
Parsley.

Cook onion, chopped fine, with butter until tender. Add flour and lamb stock, stir until thick. Flavor to taste with curry powder, salt and pepper. Add lamb cut in slices free from fat and let stand in sauce until heated through. Do not allow to boil, as meat will become tough. Put a row of peas in the bottom of a greased ring and fill with cooked rice, mixed with chopped parsley. Unmold on hot platter and fill the center with curried lamb. Garnish with peas and sprig of parsley.

Lamb Souffle.

Pour 2 cups hot medium white sauce over 3 beaten egg yolks, stirring constantly. Cool and then add 2 cups minced lamb, ½ teaspoon minced parsley, ½ teaspoon minced onion. Fold in 3 beaten egg whites. Pour into a greased casserole, set in pan of hot water and bake in oven 375 degrees for 45 minutes.

Lamb Mousse.

1 cup hot lamb broth.
3 egg yolks.
¼ teaspoon paprika.
1 cup cooked lamb finely chopped.
1 tablespoon cold water.
2-3 cup evaporated milk.
Few grains cayenne.
1 tablespoon gelatin.

Beat egg yolks slightly, add salt and paprika. Stir constantly, while gradually adding lamb broth. Cook over hot water until mixture thickens. Add gelatin which has been softened in cold water. Stir until dissolved. Add lamb. Season highly with salt and cayenne. Chill until mixture thickens. Whip evaporated milk (which has been heated and thoroughly chilled) until stiff. Fold into mixture. Pour into a ring mold which has been rinsed in cold water. Chill until firm. Unmold and fill center with finely shredded cabbage, minced green pepper and minced pimento which have been marinated in French dressing one half hour. Garnish with mound of shredded carrots, turnips and beets.
