Here Are Some Tempting Appetizers With Warm Weather Appeal

LOCAL CHURCH IS SCENE OF WEDDING

Reception For 71 Guests At Home Of Parents, Follows Nuptials

Miss Gertrude Agnes Coryell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Coryell of Hazel street, became the bride of Graydon Frederick Cory, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Cory of Royal Oak, last Thursday evening, at a ceremony in the M. E. church. The Rev. Dr. John E. Martin read the marriage rites at 8:30 o'clock.

The bride was attended by her sister, Margaret Coryell, and Harold Bowie of Lincoln Park was best man for the bridegroom. Miss Coryell wore a gown of light blue chiffon, made redingote style, over pink chiffon. Her finger tip veil of pink tulle fell from a tulle cap, and she carried a bouquet of white roses and baby chrysanthemums.

The maid of honor's gown was of aqua marine over peach chiffon, with which she wore a blue hat of horsehair braid, and carried a bouquet of pink roses and small white chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Coryell chose for her daughter's wedding a blue figured chiffon and large hat of Navy blue leghorn. Her flowers were tea roses in a corsage. Mrs. Cory also wore blue figured chiffon and a corsage of white roses.

A reception for 71 guests at the home of the bride's parents followed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Cory will make their home in Birmingham.

For Wear on Beach

Screen star Claire Dodd selects a striking black cire jersey, one-piece bathing suit for summer sun bathing and beach wear. Over it she wears a long white piqued beach coat, set off with short puff sleeves, flared skirt and large patch pockets. Black and white sandals and a halo effect with braided string to keep her hair in place complete the ensemble.

Mary Lee Cole Will Wed At Simple Rites

A quiet wedding ceremony Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Anderson of Villa road will unite Mary Lee Cole, sister of Mrs. Harry McNine of Albany, N. Y., and Walter A. Webb, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Webb of Royal Oak.

Miss Cole will be attended by Betty Rohrer of Detroit and Frank Webb, Jr., will be best man for his brother. The Rev. Dr. John E. Martin of the Methodist Episcopal church, will officiate.

LEFT-OVERS MAKE THESE DAINTY BITS

They Are Easy To Prepare And Will Tickle The Most Jaded Palate

Hot days when the appetite fails, try some of the appetizers which are easy to prepare, delightful to look at and taste as good as they look. There are two essentials when serving appetizers which must be kept in mind—let them be appetizers and not a full meal and, if it is to be a cold appetizer, let it be cold; if hot; let it be hot. Be sure to have plenty of seasoning. Left-overs may be used to advantage.

Grilled Sardines.

Cut bread in thin oblongs. Place a sardine split through the center on each side, the split side up. Sprinkle with paprika, brown under broiler. Garnish with a slice of lemon and sprig of parsley.

Tomato Wedges.

Wedges of tomato make excellent appetizers, if, after the seedy pulp has been removed, they are marinated and then filled with a smooth highly seasoned spread of ham paste.

Pickled Beet Appetizer

Bore small sweet-pickled beets with a cover, and into the holes tuck a tightly rolled baby herring, pickled with celery seed.

Onion Appetizer.

Slice a Spanish onion very, very thin, spread it with caviar, sprinkle with lemon juice and top the center with a halved stuffed olive. Serve on lettuce or cress.

Caviar Appetizer.

Cut bread into 1-4 inch slices and then into oblongs 2 inches wide and 4 inches long. Toast on one side only. Spread 1-2 of each oblong, on the untoasted side, with finely minced onion and the other half with caviar. A tiny strip of green pepper may divide the two mixtures.

Tongue Appetizer.

Toast 6 slices of bread, cut in pretty shapes. Butter and cover with 1-2 cup of deviled tongue moistened with 2 teaspoons of vinegar. Garnish with chopped relish and parsley.

Shrimp Appetizer.

Cut 6 slices of whole wheat bread in fancy shapes. Brown in fat. Pick 1-2 cup of shrimp and mix well with 2 tablespoons of tomato catsup, 3 tablespoons of vinegar, and 1 teaspoon of paprika. Spread on bread, sprinkle generously with grated cheese and brown in oven. Serve hot. Garnish with parsley.

Cream Cheese and Wafers.

Select long narrow wafers which have been crisped in the oven. Meanwhile cream together 1 cream cheese and 2 tablespoons of caviar. Spread on crackers. Sprinkle with finely chopped onion and top with anchovies.

Salmon Appetizer

Make a paste of canned salmon, minced celery, lemon juice and mayonnaise. Spread this on oblongs of toast and set a whole shrimp on the top.

Star Appetizer.

Spread small star shaped pieces of toast with chicken liver paste. Garnish each point with a small rosette of green pepper butter.

Saratogo Chips

Spread potato chips with a paste made of Roquefort cheese, grated nuts and enough olive oil to hold together. Dust with paprika.

Parents Disclose Daughter's Troth

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Phalan of Erie, Pa., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Margaret, to W. Stoddard White, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee A White of Brookside drive.

Miss Phalan was graduated from the University of Michigan, where she was affiliated with Theta Phi Alpha and Theta Sigma Phi. Mr. White was graduated from Baldwin High School and attended the University of Michigan. He is a member of Sigma Delta Chi and Alpha Epsilon Mu. The wedding will be an event of early October.

Bob Hilty Engaged To Grosse Ile Girl

Another Birmingham youth to find his bride-elect elsewhere, is Robert Hilty, son of Mrs. Maude Hilty of Henrietta street, whose engagement to Margaret Connellan has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Connellan of East River road, Grosse Ile.

Miss Connellan was graduated from the University of Michigan, where she was a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority. Mr. Hilty is a graduate of Baldwin High School and the University of Michigan, where he was affiliated with Phi Kappa Psi.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Missionary Of Syria Will Be Speaker At Meeting

Missionary work in Tripoli, Syria, will be the subject of an interesting talk Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Harry Boyes, who will address members of Section A of the missionary group of the Women's Union of the First Presbyterian church. The meeting will be held at 2:30 p. m., at the home of Mrs. W. H. Uptegraff of Oakland avenue.

Mrs. Boyes is the wife of Dr. Harry Boyes, medical missionary in charge of the Kennedy Memorial Hospital in Tripoli. Dr. Boyes is the uncle of Miss Grace Boyes, formerly of Birmingham, now a nurse in the same hospital.

Social Briefs

Mrs. Draper Allen of Westwood drive has returned from Chicago, where she spent the week-end.

"ODDS AND ENDS—Martha Raye gets furious when anyone refers to her as a rubber-faced comedienne, but Joan Crawford always refers to herself as Elephant Annie, because she never forgets anything . . . All the girls on the RKO lot are grateful to the costume designer, Eddie Stevenson, for making them look so elegant. By way of showing their gratitude Ann Sothern, Harriet Hilliard, Gertrude Michael and Ann Shirley got together and knitted, sewed, and bought him a knockout summer wardrobe . . . Mary Carlisle has added a pretty penny to her earnings by having Bing Crosby advise her on horse-race bets.

PERHAPS the happiest, but certainly the most bewildered family in the country just now consists of Michael Kelly, his wife, and five children who live in that part of New York City known as the Bronx.

Their twelve-year-old Tommy has been selected to play Tom Sawyer in the Selznick-International film of the Mark Twain classic.

Such an opportunity for a youngster would be a dramatic thunderbolt in any family, but for the Kellys it was the first good break in years. Papa Kelly has been on the relief rolls for two years, his jobs as janitor in a school and life-guard at a beach having dwindled to nothing. Mamma Kelly has been to the movies only three times in her 23 years of marriage.

Tommy and his father are in Hollywood now, and Michael gets a day's extra work every now and then while his son is being groomed for stardom.

When you see Claudette Colbert in "I Met Him in Paris" you will find it the gayest, most utterly delightful film in many months. Claudette Colbert, Melvyn Douglas, and Robert Young romp through the picture as if they were having the time of their lives. It is the story of a girl who has saved for five years for a trip to Paris, and when she gets there everything happens as it might have in a fantastic dream. A giddy novelist and a cynical playwright fall in love with her.

For the first time since their marriage, Joel McCrea and Frances Dee will play opposite each other in the Paramount picture "Wells Fargo." Adolph Menjou and the Mrs. known to us as Verree Teasdale will be together in Sam Goldwyn's "Marco Polo" and the one extra clause they insisted on in their contract was that the dividing wall between two dressing rooms should be taken down so that they could be together.

Everybody is wondering just what is to become of Simone Simon. After a few days' work in "Danger—Love at Work" she was taken out of the cast and Ann Sothern substituted. The heroine was supposed to be an American girl educated in France, and Simone's heavy accent was just too much to be convincing. Twentieth-Century-Fox officials still have faith in her, and say that when they find just the right story for her they will put her to work again.

The dinner party that marked the end of the recent Twentieth-Century-Fox convention put on a show that included about a million dollars' worth of talent. Irving Berlin sang "Remember," the Ritz Brothers made the rafters ring with hilarious shout by their impromptu foolishment, but Eddie Cantor walked off with the honors of the evening when he arrived in blond curls and baby dress and did an imitation of Shirley Temple. Prettiest girls at the party were Loretta Young, who came with Merle Oberon's former fiance, David Niven, and Alice Faye, who came with her constant beau, Tony Martin. Incidentally, Tony will be back on the radio regularly again soon.

Mary Pickford is asking $700,000 for Pickfair, because when she sells the house she will include all the treasures that she and Douglas Fairbanks collected in their travels around the world. When she marries Buddy Rogers, she will live in a simple beach house and an old-fashioned ranch house, and wants no reminders of her former life around to haunt her. Whoever is purchaser will possess an estate at which notables of the world were entertained in the days when Mary and Doug were filmdom's most celebrated couple.

Appetizer

Slice bread into thin slices and cut into rounds with the biscuit cutter, place into oven until crisp and a delicate brown; spread with anchovy paste. Slice hard boiled eggs and remove the yolks. Place a white egg ring in the center of each appetizer. Chop up a green pepper and add a little minced parsley and put this in the center of the egg white. Surround with pickled beets chopped fine.

BOOKS
for summer

ONE of life's greatest pleasures, that of reading, knows no vacation during the warmer days when one has books to fit the moods of summer. Come in and look the new ones over, and take your time, for it has long been our policy to let people just buy books. We never attempt to hurry your decisions. When you come in, have a look at the following which we recommend:

"American Dream" Michael Foster
"Theatre" Somerset Maugham
"Wind from the Mountains" Author of "Beyond Sing the Woods"
"Sisters" Myron Brinig
"King Edward VIII" Hector Bolitho
"Present Indicative" Noel Coward
"Dead Man's Mirror" Agatha Christie
"Before I Forget" Burton Roscoe
