

ROYAL OAK RUMBLINGS.

EDITED AND CONDUCTED BY ARTHUR W. CAMPBELL. Subscriptions Received and Advertising Contracted for in this Paper by the Grand Editor, at Royal Oak.

Correspondence: Miss Alice Campbell spent last week in Detroit.

S. J. Wilson has another vacation from Lansing.

C. G. Wilson has started a novel enterprise. He has planned an acre of sunflowers for the seed.

The most prominent feature of last week was the real live, wide-awake thunderstorm of Friday night.

No services at the Congregational church the past few Sabbaths. A new Minister has not yet been suggested.

The daughter of our former citizen, Capt. Tobin, is dead. She died in Colorado where she went for her health.

The glorious Fourth came again in four weeks from Saturday. "Where are you going?" is again a common inquiry.

John Campbell is very lowly in inflammation of the lungs. He has been sick for a long time and has suffered much.

Mr. French has removed from W. H. Knapp's house and left Royal Oak. He operates the blacksmith shop at Thomas Brown's.

The Rev. H. B. Rogers says the prayer meeting was not held, as he didn't say so. It was, but what he said was intended to say by one concerned.

Milton W. Campbell and wife of Oakland are visiting their many friends in the vicinity. Can't say they are there, and the spring week is all done.

"B. P. H." Road Oak, Mich., says: "Has either Whitehead or Mitchell any distinguished relatives?"

Whitehead is a descendant of the Prophet, and Mr. Mitchell would be pleased to join the family of President Cleveland.

Preparations on an extensive scale are in progress for a grand jubilee at the M. E. church to work from Sunday, June 11.

Children's day occurs on that date, and the church will be decorated with flowers, and birds will lead the singing.

Spouting and song exercises will entertain the audience.

HAZEL PINE BIRDS: Mrs. H. P. Beck has recovered and is about again.

The rain last Friday and Saturday did loads of good.

The Sunday school is progressing finely and is a blessing to our community.

School closes here three weeks from tomorrow, ending the nine months term.

Mr. Kruger tried to raise his barn last Thursday. Got part of it up and found that there were not near enough timbers.

Next day he got the frame, but ground and got raised it up at last.

POLYA'S BOYS: "Oh! it's a kind of a game."

There are no one to call the game. Will Graham has had the monkey.

Wm. Parks is getting back for a milk house.

Farmers here are nearly through planting corn.

Chris Bart is checking his cult for the Fourth.

Miss Lizzie Cramie visited at Mr. Bart's last week.

Miss Lizzie White of Pontiac is visiting friends here.

H. Bartels is painting his house and fixing up things generally.

Mr. Sharp is building a new board fence in front of his place.

171 AND HUMOR.

An Ohio man was so badly frightened by a ghost that his hair turned as gray as his hair.

A "constant reader" wants to know how much ashes coal will cost to the ton.

Texas—"I trust, sir, you don't mean to call me a liar?"

Betsy, an old colored cook, was musing around the kitchen one day.

"Hello, Jim, old boy," said the conductor to one of his passengers.

"Mighty lively when I left," especially naming "What kind" "Mighty for train," "Chicago Herald."

There are differences even among Italian Priests.

The religious opposition to cremation is reinforced by opposition from the life insurance companies.

"Hello, Jim, old boy," said the local chief of the Washoe Indians.
