WE HEARD IT SAID BY—

Fritters May Be An Intriguing Use For Left-Over Fruit, Meat or Vegetables

To some housekeepers fritters are merely a possible us of left-overs; to other housekeepers who like their menus to have personal touch, they offer opportunity. A fritter is a piece of meat, fish, fruit or vegetable covered with a batter and fried in deep fat. It should be cooked through and delicately brown on the outside. Drain on absorbent paper.

Fritter Batter.
1 1-2 cups flour.
1-4 teaspoon salt.
2 teaspoons baking powder.
1 egg.
2-3 cup milk.
2 teaspoons powdered sugar (for sweet fritters only).

Frosted Cherry Fritters.
Remove the stems from canned cherries and in their place put pecans. Dip in the batter, fry in hot fat, drain on paper and roll in powdered sugar. Insert a toothpick in the stem end. Garnish the dish with green leaves.

Tomato Fritters.
Cut the tops from small, solid tomatoes, remove the seeds and stuff the tomatoes with chopped green peppers, minced onion, bread crumbs and a bit of butter. Replace the tops and fasten with toothpicks. Dip in batter and fry in hot fat. Serve with cheese sauce.

Potato Fritters.
Beat into a cup of mashed potatoes, 2 beaten eggs, 2 tablespoons of grated cheese, 3 tablespoons of flour, a pinch of salt and a little paprika. After beating hard, let stand for an hour. Then drop by spoonsfuls into hot fat. When browned and puffed up drain on paper. Serve very hot with pickled beets.

Apple Fritters
Pare and core eight small apples. Cut the apples into small pieces; sprinkle over one cup of sugar, the juice of a lemon and 1-4 teaspoon grated nutmeg. Let the apples stand for half an hour. Dip in batter and fry in hot fat. Drain.

Orange Fritters
Peel oranges, remove the white skin, part into quarters, take out the seeds. Dip in batter, fry in hot fat. Drain. Sprinkle with sugar.

Peach Fritters
Sprinkle peach halves with a little brandy or a drop or two of pistachio extract. Dip in batter. Fry in hot fat. Drain.

Celery Fritters
Boil until tender 3 bunches of celery root. Dip in the batter, fry in hot fat. Serve with the tender stalks of celery stuffed with cream cheese and paprika.

Banana Fritters
6 bananas.
Powdered sugar.
2 tablespoons lemon juice.
Peel bananas, and cut each in half lengthwise. Then cut in two crosswise. Sprinkle with powdered sugar and lemon juice and let stand 30 minutes. Drain and dip in batter and fry in hot fat. Drain.

Corn Fritters
1 can whole grain corn.
2 eggs.
1-3 cup flour.
1-2 teaspoon salt.
2 tablespoons milk.
1-4 teaspoon pepper.
Beat the eggs, add the milk, corn, seasonings, and flour. Mix and drop by teaspoonfuls into hot fat and fry. Drain, garnish with lemon, serve hot with meat.

Apricot Fritters
Use canned apricots and drain well. Sift 1 cup of flour with 1-4 teaspoon salt. Beat the yolks of 2 eggs thoroughly and add the flour, beating until light. Add 2 tablespoons of lemon juice, the grated rind of half lemon and a dash of mace. Add one tablespoon of melted butter. Then add enough cold water, from one-half to three-fourths of a cup, to make a rather thin sauce. Add the beaten whites of 2 eggs. The batter must be just thick enough to coat the fruit. Dip the apricots in the batter and drop into hot fat. Fry a golden brown, drain and sprinkle with powdered sugar.

"Soul" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science Churches throughout the world on Sunday, February 13.
The Golden Text, from Psalm 35:9, is: "My soul shall be joyful in the Lord: it shall rejoice in his salvation."
Among the Bible citations is this passage (Proverbs 2:10, 11): "When wisdom entereth into thine heart, and knowledge is pleasant unto thy soul; Discretion shall preserve thee, understanding shall keep thee."
Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 322): "When understanding changes the standpoints of life and intellectual from a material to a spiritual basis, we shall gain the reality of Life, the control of Soul over sense, and we shall perceive Christianity, or Truth, in its divine Principle."

HOSPITAL GROUP WILL AID CLINIC AT BRIDGE PARTY

In the opinion of many, there is no pleasanter way to raise funds than by giving a party. So it is no wonder that members of the St. Joseph's Mercy Hospital Auxiliary should utilize the festive mood of Valentine's day for a bridge-party. It will be held in the hospital auditorium on Monday, Feb. 14, following a brief business meeting of auxiliary members, which begins at two o'clock. And all funds will be turned over to the children's clinic.

Many Pontiac and Birmingham matrons are interesting themselves in the affair, including Mrs. Frank Thiefels and Mrs. Henry Gaukler, who are sharing the duties of chairman for the party.

The co-chairmen will be assisted by a committee consisting of Mrs. W. L. Toohey, Mrs. C. R. Buell, Mrs. Paul Kern, Mrs. Mittie Riker, Mrs. Theodore Pauli, Mrs. Byron Judd, Mrs. William Cashin, Mrs. James McGovern, Mrs. Richard Doyle and Mrs. Gertrude Hanrahan. WE HEARD IT SAID BY—
David Levinson, Birmingham supervisor: "The banquet in Detroit Tuesday night for Harry S. Toy was a fine affair. Seems to me as though Mr. Toy will win over Mr. Fitzgerald for the Republican nomination as Governor. Reports I get from all over Michigan suggest that Mr. Fitzgerald hasn't much chance to win—and that he certainly will not be able to defeat Governor Murphy in November."
