Several years ago, in the depth of the depression, The Eccentric reduced its rates from $2.50 outside of Oakland County, and from $2 within Oakland County. Subscribers in Oakland County who may desire to save 50 cents for the coming year may, even though their subscription does not expire for several months, renew same at the dollar rate by remitting the dollar before April 1. WENDORPH IS CHAIRMAN FOR LODGE BANQUET

J. Howard Wendorph, Deputy of District 12, is general chairman of the Annual Banquet sponsored by Birmingham Lodge 149, Knights of Pythias. Mr. Wendorph's appointment was made with the release of plans for the affair, which will be held at the Community House on Friday evening, March 4.

The committee on arrangements includes the names of Carl Symons, Dominic S. Caputo, George Jones and Harold Gregory. Mr. Symons is also chairman of the ticket committee and will be assisted by Mr. Jones, Mr. Gregory and Peter D. Aristos.

C. C. Bradner, news commentator for radio station WWJ, will be the chief speaker of the evening. He will be introduced by Clarence C. Smith, Pontiac attorney who will serve as toastmaster. S. W. F. Garnett, Grand Chancellor of Owosso and other Grand Lodge officials will attend. The banquet and the eight acts which will follow Mr. Bradner's talk and which are to be contributed by the three Lodges of this district, will be open to the public.

This has been an active month for the local Lodge. The degree of Knight has been conferred on Charles Sprague and Walter Bratch, and that of Page has been received by three other candidates.

BITS OF B'HAM

Signing himself "A Realtor," someone late Friday addressed a letter to The Eccentric, offering suggestions and criticisms regarding the City's plan to erect a new sewage disposal plant. The anonymous writer suggests that an attempt be made to secure W. P. A. funds. The Eccentric regrets that the letter writer, due to the nature of its content, failed to sign his or her name; therefore we shall turn it over to the City Clerk for enlightenment of the City Commission. (The Eccentric ALWAYS requires public letters for publication to be signed, even though on occasion we will withhold the writer's identity. The reason for this rule is obvious.)

J. L. Smith, now connected with Marshall Field & Company's New York manufacturing division, is leaving for a trip to Europe in the near future. In asking us to suspend his subscription until his return, he writes: "The Birmingham Eccentric has been a source of great pleasure to me since my arrival in New York, as I am always interested in 'keeping up' with Birmingham life." Thanks, Mr. Smith, and happy and interesting trip to Europe.

Walter W. Smith, retired Pontiac journalist, secretary of that City's Rotary Club, is taking a trip around the world with Mrs. Smith. One of The Wanderers received a postcard from Mr. Smith a week ago, written, "Somewhere on the Aegean Sea, 12 hours from Athens." The Smiths left late in December and will be home some time in late May.

Mrs. Dorothy L. Beals, herself an artist in black and white and color, is giving instruction to boys and girls Saturday morning at her home on Pierce street. "It is a real joy to play a part in directing the talents of youngsters," says Mrs. Beals.

Even though your subscription to The Eccentric may not expire for several months, you may want to take advantage of a 50 cent savings by renewing for another year—but you will have to do this before April 1, when the rate will increase to $1.50 in Birmingham, Bloomfield Hills, or any other area in Oakland County.

North Central College of Ferndale will offer scholarships of $100 for March, $75 for April and $50 for May to high school seniors and graduates on subjects to be determined by the college. The topic for March is "Why I Wish to Enter College." The rules state that manuscripts must be in by April 1; all must be original; each contestant must interview three or more college graduates and include their reactions in the essay; contestants are limited to one prize and the decision of the judges will be final. Visitors to the college will be welcome.

Harlow N. Davock and his racing partner, Mason Rumney of Detroit, had this Wanderer's best wishes before they ever embarked on the yacht races between Miami and Nassau. Now the successful sailors have the Wanderer's congratulations to add to the many which they must have received after their thrilling victory.

Recent additions to the membership of the Birmingham Rotary Club are: James W. Robinson, principal Barnum public school; Dr. Clayton H. Gracey, dentist; and Clyde C. Bennett, local realtor. This brings the Club's roster up to 42, according to J. B. Howarth, secretary.
