RECEPTION WILL FOLLOW SECOND DAY OF SEMINAR

A prominent part is being taken by Birmingham matrons in the three-day seminar conducted by Edward S. Lindemun, which opens today at the Detroit Institute of Arts under the auspices of nine organizations allied in sociological and educational interests.

"Changing Patterns in City Life" at 4 p. m. today and "How Are Educational and Social Work Influencing People?" at eight this evening, will be the initial discussions in the seminar.

Friday's program will include "After the New Deal—What?" in the afternoon and "A Return to Reason in International Affairs" at eight. After the meeting in the evening, the audience will have an opportunity to meet Dr. Lindeman at the reception which will follow the discussion.

Mrs. H. S. Burlingame, state chairman of the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom, will be chairman of the evening, and will be in the reception line. Others who will receive include Dr. and Mrs. Benjamin Bush (Mrs. Bush is a member of the Women's International Education Council); Frank Cody, Superintendent of Schools in Detroit; Judge and Mrs. Homer Ferguson, Rev. and Mrs. Fred C. Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kohn, Dr. and Mrs. Robert Kelsoe, Mrs. Charles D. Williams, Miss Edna White, of the Merrill Palmer school; Mrs. Edward L. Bryant, general chairman of the seminar; Mrs. Frederick H. Holt and Mrs. George T. Hendrie.

The reception is being given by the Women's International Education Council, of which Mrs. Charles J. Shain is an active member, and the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom.

Among the other local women, besides Mrs. Burlingame, Mrs. Hendrie, Mrs. Holt and Mrs. Shain, who have evinced great interest in the seminar are the following: Mrs. Clyde R. Payton, Mrs. Angus D. McLay, Mrs. John J. Cahill, Mrs. J. Nicholas Hadjskey, Mrs. Donald McGraw, Mrs. William E. Essery and Mrs. Wallace Frost.

FRANK MANLEY WILL SPEAK TO QUARTON P. T. A.

Frank J. Manley, supervisor of physical education in the Flint public schools and director of adult physical education in that city, will address the Parent Teacher Association of the Quarton school at 8 p. m. on Monday, Feb. 7. His subject will be "Recreation and Physical Education."

Mr. Manley has shown an active interest in problems of youth guidance and delinquent cases. His talk, from his record, promises to be of special interest to students of community recreations problems. The highly successful Flint recreation plan is a project of Mr. Manley and his associates.

In this plan, nearly all of the city's 35 public schools are used as recreation centers for students and adults. They meet to participate in sports and arts and crafts activities. Playground facilities are provided by the public school system, and the expense of staff members and equipment is largely underwritten by the Mott Foundation.

Mr. Manley's Monday night address will go into greater detail on the plan, which is part of the all-inclusive Flint Civic Plan, coordinated by the Flint Community Association. As such, the Quarton P. T. A. program committee expresses itself as sure that his remarks will interest a local audience.

NEWCOMERS TO BE WELCOMED BY COMMUNITY

"Just consider this story a cordial invitation to attend our Newcomers' Reception Tuesday night at the Community House, if you are a newcomer to Birmingham who somehow missed being put on our guest list." With these words of Mrs. Julia K. Lally, House director and general chairman of the reception, the last arrangements for the unique affair are complete.

This is the first affair of its kind to be given in Birmingham in recent years, but if the enthusiasm shown by hosts and guests beforehand is any judge, it won't be the last. It will be an informal affair and is scheduled to start at eight o'clock.

Pupils from the Bertha Thompson school of the dance will present a variety of numbers on the program which will open the evening. The dance will include tap and novelty numbers and those in the acrobatic manner as well as selections in the classic style.

Hosts and hostesses for the newcomers' reception will include the following: Mr. and Mrs. Forbes S. Hascall, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Boynton, Mr. and Mrs. Charles O'Connor, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Eade, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Byers, Mrs. Satia York Osborne, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Westcott, Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Brelsford, Mr. and Mrs. Merrill C. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Shain, Dr. and Mrs. W. Lloyd Kemp, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Webster, Mr. and Mrs. Rufus B. Jones.

Others who will receive the guests are Mr. and Mrs. George T. Hendrie, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton E. Sears, Mr. and Mrs. Ray H. Bechtold, Mr. and Mrs. Howard D. Crull, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence G. Heinmiller, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Moreland, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Chissus, Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Pyle, Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Lynd, J. B. Howarth, Miss Marjorie Howarth, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas R. Navin, Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Kinnison, and Mrs. Warner L. Forsyth, Rev. and Mrs. W. Hamilton Aulenbach, Rev. and Mrs. John E. Martin, Rev. and Mrs. Joseph A. Mears, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred J. LaBelle and Miss Adeline Cooke.

ENTIRE FAMILY TO BE INVITED TO FOREST LAKE

Something new in the way of family entertainment will be presented at Forest Lake country club at 8:30 on the night of Friday, Feb. 14. A veritable "three ring" evening is in store for all members of the family who plan to attend the party with their guests.

The masculine members will hold a stag party at which E. A. Batchelor, noted sports writer, will appear. Mr. Batchelor will address the group in his own inimitable style on the subject "Golf Can Be Fun!" A short talk will also be made by Leslie H. Green, donor of Forest Lake's Turtle Lake Farm trophies.

While their husbands frolic below, the wives will participate in a bridge tournament in the lounge. Mrs. Lloyd L. LaDriere is hostess for the evening.

The children are not to be neglected this evening. They will be much in evidence at the second Junior party, which will be a Valentine Dance. Over 100 members of the very-young set and their guests will be in attendance. Some of the early reservations include the names of J. G. Walsh, Jane Kerby, Patience Wells, Betty Baker, Dorellen and George Lyons, Burton and Barbara Kelly, Jean Moffat and Dick and Bill Hopkins, all of whom will bring parties of varying sizes. A number of dinners among the parents will also precede the evening's activities.

Mrs. Eugene A. Murphy will entertain informally at a tea and musicale on Friday afternoon of next week, at her home in Franklin.

Weds Local Man

Mrs. Deer

Announcement of the marriage on October 20 of Muriel Margaret Fatrell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Hamilton Farrell of Minneapolis, Minn., to Dr. Edwin W. Deer, is made this week by Dr. Deer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin J. Deer of Riveroak avenue. The Rev. John E. Martin read the nuptials at a quiet ceremony.

The young couple are at home on Gladstone avenue in Detroit for the present, while Dr. Deer is interning in oral surgery at the Henry Ford Hospital.

Mrs. Deer is a graduate of the University of Minnesota and Detroit Business University. Dr. Deer attended the University of Pittsburgh and was graduated from the University of Michigan. He is affiliated with Delta Sigma Delta and Phi Sigma Kappa fraternities.

BARN DANCE OF FRANKLIN PTA TO BE REPEATED

The recent barn dance given under the auspices of the Franklin Parent Teacher Association has been written down as an overwhelming success. In fact, so successful was the work of Mrs. R. D. Sewell, general chairman of the dance and her committee, that another barn dance is being planned by the organization. The date will be Friday night, Feb. 18, and the place will again be the town hall. Mrs. Sewell will have a chance to enjoy the affair without responsibility, for the general chairman of this month's affair will be Mrs. P. R. Shaeffer.

A busy week-end is indicated for the P. T. A. members. On Saturday, Feb. 19, they will participate in a Founders' Day program. They will join the Detroit P. T. A. by invitation at a dinner at the Tuller hotel to be followed by a program.

Howard McClusky, professor of education at the University of Michigan, will be the principal speaker of the evening. Also on the program will be selections by the Mother Singers and the Schoolmen's Chorus.

VARIED PROGRAM WILL BE OFFERED TO GARDEN CLUB

A program to interest widely diversified tastes will be featured at the next meeting of the Birmingham unit of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association, to be held at the Community House at 2 o'clock on the afternoon of Monday, Feb. 14.

Ralph Peterson of the Detroit Department of Public Works will be the principal speaker of the afternoon. He will address the group on "Evergreens for Michigan Gardens." Mrs. Craig Richey will present a short talk whose theme will be "Practical Gardening." And, not content with these two features, the ambitious program committee has arranged for a display of winter bouquets.

Mrs. Wallace Dodds is chairman of the tea which will follow the program. Assisting Mrs. Dodds at the tea table will be Mrs. Fred C. Pew and Mrs. James R. Mogk.

Mrs. Lewis Kahn will appear at the Garden Center meeting to be held at the Detroit Institute of Arts on Thursday, Feb. 17, according to an announcement made this week. She will lecture on "Photography in the Garden." Colored moving pictures, involving some new principles in photography, will be shown by Mrs. Kahn during her talk. The meeting will be preceded by a luncheon at the Wardell.

Dance Sponsor

Miss Cobb.

Miss Louise Cobb is one of the young socialites who will serve as patronesses for the coming dance, to be sponsored by the Swing Club. It will be held at the Community House on Saturday, Feb. 12. Others who will act as patronesses include Mrs. Wallis R. Kinney, Mrs. William G. O'Rourke and Miss Betty Minor Forsyth.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Henshaw and their daughters, Marjorie and Elizabeth, and Mrs. Henshaw's sister, Mrs. Myrtle T. Pratt, made a recent brief trip to Niagara Falls to view the falls in its winter aspect.

DATE OF SECOND DANCE REVEALED BY 'SWING CLUB'

The Swing Club is making plans for its second party, again under the co-chairmanship of George Flower and Kenneth Hunt, and members of Birmingham's school, college and younger married sets are rapidly getting into a dancing mood as a result. Four popular members of these sets have been invited to serve as patronesses of the affair. Besides Miss Cobb, they include Mrs. Wallis R. (Lenore) Kinney, Mrs. William G. (Ellen) O'Rourke and Betty Minor Forsyth.

Reservations are already coming in for this month's party, which will be held at the Community House on Saturday, Feb. 12. As at the last one, the dance will be of an informal nature so far as dress is concerned.

Local talent will be a feature of the entertainment, with music being furnished by Bill Gall's band, and the services of Alice Savage as vocalist definitely promised. Remember what fun resulted at the first party sponsored by the Swing Club when the awful sleuths spotted talent among the dancers and invited them to appear at what was almost a "command performance?" Mary Jane McCurry sang, Betty Minor Forsyth contributed a hilarious specialty number and Charles Savage gave a unique exhibition of trucking. Well, there will be more of the same at this party, the chairmen assure prospective dancers.
