

ROYAL OAK RUMBLINGS.

EDITED AND CONDUCTED BY ARTHUR B. CAMPBELL.

Subscription Revised and Advertising Contract for this Paper by the Agents, Arthur B. Campbell, of Royal Oak.

What will you break by saying? (Say, please).

Who has assumed a golden hue and come to already out.

A sister of Supervisor Decker, from Missouri, is visiting him.

Too bad we haven't got a roller rink. Royal Oak is sensible or we would have.

Penies and excursions begin to receive attention from our Sabbath school loving people.

Married last Sabbath afternoon, Mr. Wheeler to Mrs. James Lewis, both of this place.

Mr. E. H. Wells and family have returned from Lakeside and think of settling in Royal Oak.

Miss Annie Randolph has returned from Hunter's Creek in poor health. She has been ill ever since going away.

We neglected last week to note the visit of Messrs. Tittle and Alice Thurlby of Birmingham with friends and relatives here.

Mr. H. N. Brown, formerly pastor of St. M. E. Church, and his wife, shook with their many friends here on Sunday. They live in Detroit.

The plan adopted by the Eccentric to celebrate the fourth was the highest and most sensible one out. Mr. Hoffman was so delighted with his new book that a typographical error will not in the paper for years.

When a person tells us they are going away or have been away and we publish it, it ends our soul down 12 or below zero to have them say afterwards that it was a big lie and they never thought of doing such a thing. See?

The hay rack of the moving machine falls upon our citizens, leaving ears both more and less between them. It makes us sad, the farmers glad, the grasshopper mad, and the awful and anxious lot now comes down to ride the mower and everything which he can't think of that he knows he can't do.

A brigade of 4-inch grasshoppers attacked and swallowed a large field of clover for Benjamin Parks, and then laid waste a field of wheat for P. Wheeler. In a piece of mown 40x35 rods in extent, and a piece of buckwheat 35x5 rods, we counted 149 hoppers on a single square foot. How many grasshoppers in the field and how long will it take them to clean it?

Obituary.

Mrs. Ruth McLaughlin, who sailed a long and busy life in many respects a remarkable life on Thursday, the 21st inst., was born in the county of Antrim, Mich., at the beginning of the present century. She came to Brooklyn, N. Y., in early womanhood, where she married Mr. McLaughlin. They lived together for sixteen years, and then moved to Southfield, Mich., on account of the poor health of the husband. In 1870, Southfield they labored together for 27 years, at the end of which time they were separated by the death of the husband. In 1897 they moved to Birmingham where they lived the remainder of their lives.

Mrs. McLaughlin, though she led a life of hard work, also led a life of improvement of her mind. She was a careful and thoughtful reader, and was possessed of a mind of extraordinary capacity and high order of intellect. She was not only thoroughly posted in the Bible which she almost knew by heart, but on questions of the times. On our country's history, its trials and triumphs she was a store of information, even to the words which were credited with broader knowledge than her own. She was a close observer and always took a lively interest in the politics of our nation. The policy of a new President was fully examined and followed. Those who equaled with her knowledge of the human and remarkable qualities, both of a mind and body, has passed away.

The many friends of the Hon. Darwin White of Southfield were startled to learn of his death on Thursday, the 21st inst., while not a week's illness, on Sunday, July 8. He was a great sufferer from very severe pains during his last hours, and at his death he suddenly closed both hands to his head, screamed out in intense pain and in a moment was dead.

Mr. White was born in Southfield in 1835, and has always lived in that town, occupying prominent positions politically, and has held the office of assessor and treasurer of his town several times.

He was in the legislature of Michigan during the sessions of 1867-70 and 71-72. He was a member of the Michigan bar, and fearless. His funeral took place last Saturday evening, July 11, and was largely attended. The Rev. Dr. Bennett of Detroit officiated. He leaves a wife and three children to mourn his loss, and the community in this, his deep sorrow and trouble.

Card of Thanks.

Mrs. J. B. Johnston and others wish to return their sincere thanks with the aid and help of their friends and neighbors who so kindly and so generously assisted and helped them in their bereavement in so many ways, during the long illness of their son. Such kindness shall never be forgotten.

Good News for Travelers.

Appleton's National Railway and Steam Navigation Guide has been prepared from Messrs. D. Appleton & Co. by the Knickerbocker Guide Company, and consolidated with the Knickerbocker Ready Reference Guide. The consolidated publication is the first published in which is the issue for July, 1885, is called the "Traveler's Ready Reference Guide" and will be slightly larger than Appleton's Guide, but will be sold for the same price (25 cents) and is the only national railway guide which is sold at that price. It contains many features which the present Guide does not contain. The July number contains a Tourist's Guide, in addition to the usual matter. The department of "Amusements and Resorts" is a popular feature of Appleton's Guide, and will be retained.

County Correspondence.

Having in about done. Some folks down this way think they have a right to build their fences so as to make up about half the road. Well, the county may have a better way, considering their small farms.

The Smith of Warren is building a barn. Of course the sidewalk comes next.

If our county line friend would attend the valuation year meetings he would find out whether they are a benefit to us or not.

Having in as high in this vicinity. It is a good thing to have a smiling face.

It is a good thing to have a smiling face. C. Gibbs, who is in the employ of G. H. Gibb, has broken his leg, and is laid up for the season. Mess. Raitz is home from Ypsilanti.

Students' Songs.

Moses King, while a student at Harvard college, carried his entire school expenses of about one thousand dollars a year by making books, such as "Harvard and its Surroundings," "King's Handbook of Boston," "The Harvard Register," etc., and since graduation, a few years ago, he has published many successful books; among them "Students' Songs," which has had the most remarkable sale ever known for a book of its class. Over 40,000 copies of this "Students' Songs" have been made and the demand is almost the same everywhere. The probable cause of this success is the fact that prior to the publication of "Students' Songs" there was no book containing songs and music that were popular with the students of the U. S. The book was published in the fall of 1878, and has since been heard and heartily enjoyed by thousands of people at great schools, college festivals, fraternal societies and at home gatherings. They have a peculiar breeziness and mirth-making quality that makes them enjoyable on all occasions.

The book itself is also a case of its success. It is handsomely printed, and contains sixty of these songs with their music, nearly all of which are copyrighted, and to be found in no other collection. It is a surprise to find so choice a collection of new and copyrighted lyrics and music selling for only fifty cents.

It is almost all successes, if they are its imitations and some are rather deceptive in their make-up. Already several so-called collections of students' songs and music are in the market, but the original work of "Students' Songs," the only one that has been thought worthily selected, is edited and compiled by Wm. H. Hills, a young Harvard graduate, and published by Moses King, the publisher, at Hanover square, in Cambridge, Mass.

The plan adopted by the Eccentric to celebrate the fourth was the highest and most sensible one out. Mr. Hoffman was so delighted with his new book that a typographical error will not in the paper for years.

When a person tells us they are going away or have been away and we publish it, it ends our soul down 12 or below zero to have them say afterwards that it was a big lie and they never thought of doing such a thing. See?

The hay rack of the moving machine falls upon our citizens, leaving ears both more and less between them. It makes us sad, the farmers glad, the grasshopper mad, and the awful and anxious lot now comes down to ride the mower and everything which he can't think of that he knows he can't do.

A brigade of 4-inch grasshoppers attacked and swallowed a large field of clover for Benjamin Parks, and then laid waste a field of wheat for P. Wheeler. In a piece of mown 40x35 rods in extent, and a piece of buckwheat 35x5 rods, we counted 149 hoppers on a single square foot. How many grasshoppers in the field and how long will it take them to clean it?

Fish Yarns.

Snooser and Crispin, two old residents of Birmingham, are now and have been for about half a century intimate friends and associates. They are fishermen of Birmingham, and out of no other collection. It is a surprise to find so choice a collection of new and copyrighted lyrics and music selling for only fifty cents.

where she has been attending school during the past year.

Almon Gibb has gone to visit his daughter at North Branch. Troy, you may hear it said that it is not becoming for the pot to call the kettle black. If all are the better on the evening of the fourth, had been drinking it certainly could not have been detected from the appearance of the best of order prevailed through out the evening. We overheard a gentleman remark that the company was much "nicer" than the company at Troy the evening before, which has led to the "Troy lady" for making such an assertion. He proved himself to be another George Washington by replying, "I must speak his truth."

The strawberry and ice cream party at Mrs. Bedford's on the afternoon and evening of the 4th was well attended. The party was installed an older in the U. S. The breakfast which was laid the following week was well attended. Jim Demond and his brother Sam are long gone to St. Louis.

Mrs. Eva Young is visiting her father, Harry Young has gone to London. She will visit his brother Arthur in the fall. The scholar bridge is possible one more.
