College Knowledge

By SOPHIE MORE

OOOOoooh dear . . . Graduation news is starting. It's always thuh-rilling, as who should know better nor you smart kids, but Sophie knows just how the poor seniors feel. And the underclassmen who are left to struggle along wit-out said seniors feel pretty low about it too. But cheer up! some of the career plans are really big stuff, and plans for summer vacations n'stuff are pub-ritty darned fascinating. Wait n'see.

He's In Again

Oh now LOOK. Here we thought that everything that COULD be said, had BEEN said about the elegant career of friend and brother Bud Herbst. And then he goes and crashes through again, and leaves us breathless. This time he's been presented a varsity monogram from William and Mary, on accounta doing such SWELL work on the track team. They had a HUGE banquet and everybody got letters and heard speeches and cheered n'stuff. It was colossal.

Another Graduate

They really had big-time doings at Monticello this week, what with a combination of prep-school and junior college graduations, beSIDES a 100th anniversary to celebrate!! And you KNOW that our lovely brunette pal Ann Caldwell was ALSO graduating from said prep school? We think this early graduation idea is one of the nicest presents one could have, and of course Ann's presence comes under the heading of presents too. (Do forgive the puns—but after all, Sophie IS overjoyed to think of all the NIcest peepul returning.)

Leave-Taker

Just to sorta balance things up, some of our smoothest inhabitants are up and leaving us, too. But the 25th of this month is going to be BIG stuff at Wisconsin, for our own Mary Palmer will arrive then, for a spot of summer school. She's going to stay at Tripp Hall, right SMACK by the lake which adorns the Wisconsin campus. And of all the smooth dorms, this Tripp place has its own boats n'stuff, and with classes in the mornings only, you can imagine the FUN. Before that, Mary's gonna toot back up to collith long enough for graduation doings, which she missed by getting through in January. And after all the WHIPPING she'll do at summer school, durned if she isn't planning a tour with her father before going back to teaching school next fall. Isn't it all ex-CIting?

Another Party

The Alpha Phis at State are going to hold their spring term party this week-end, and if the echoes which reach Sophie are correct, it'll be a WOW. They're going to frolic in the rustic cabin erected by the forestry students on the banks of the Red Cedar river, and informality n'stuff will simply run RIOT. Steve Wygant's one of the luckies going to it. He'll be the guest of Jean Johnson, Detroit red-head known to more and more of you as time marches on. Diggins Farrar will be there too, in a party with big-sister Ginny, who's a Phi pledge y'know.

Double-Lucky

While we're in the mood for festivities, did you know that we had an out n'out LUCKY in our midst? Janie Fowler is the gal, and she's going to go down to West Point starting next week-end, for JUNE WEEK. Of course she'll be the guest of kaydet Art Smith, Detroit flash. Art, besides being Jane's fiance, is a first classman, and the gal will be on hand to see him GRAduate. All of which sounds pretty extra super, what with Hops every night and special parades and sports and about EVrything you could think of.

Real McCoy

ZZZzzz . . . Flash! We would like it known to all and sundry that this is real and official dope. The subject is a senior at Ann Arbor, a member of Beta Theta Pi and a terrifically smooth gent. Of course we refer to Frederick Tisdale Cushing, no less, and we want it known that he now has an official title. He is Manager of Swing-Out, and if you wanna know the gory details, just apply to our boy Fred.

GIRL SCOUTS

Troop Two members entertained their mothers at tea Thursday, in the Girl Scout room of the Community House. The table was laid with a lace cloth over pink, and centered with red rose buds. Tea, lemonade and cup cakes in pastel shades were served to the 25 mothers and their daughters. Scouts who had passed the Hostess Badge tests poured. These are Constance Coulter, Phillis Chapel, Marilyn Gould, Jane White, Jane Hardin, Dorothy Heacock, Kitty Keller, Betty Ruth Middleton, Ruth Mary Potter, Jane Ray, Elaine Stutz and Patty Williams. Following the tea, the girls acted as a clean-up squad.

* * *

Troop Three hiked to Gilbert Lake on Tuesday. A treasure hunt was staged, following which the members ate dinner out doors. Members are also completing work on their Hostess Badges. They will entertain their mothers and members of the Girl Scout Council at tea Monday, at the Community House.

A group from Birmingham will spend Saturday afternoon and evening in Port Huron, where the Rice Family Reunion will be held at the St. Clair Inn. Included in the party will be Mr. and Mrs. Henry Whiting, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Buick, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Dodds, Mr. and Mrs. W. Whiting Raymond, Mr. and Mrs. Harlow N. Davock, Mrs. Albert Wasey, Mrs. Edward G. Wasey and her daughter, Miss Eleanor.

PLANS TOLD FOR ANNUAL TOUR OF DETROIT GARDENS

The annual Grosse Pointe Garden Pilgrimage, sponsored by the Detroit Garden Center, has been announced this year for Saturday and Sunday, June 11 and 12. The gardens of thirteen outstanding estates will be opened for the tour, in which the public is invited to participate. The announcement is a cheering one to local garden lovers, since the tour of the Bloomfield Hills unit will not be held this year.

Among the gardens which will be viewed is that of Mrs. Charles Stinchfield Jr. It is constructed on the terrace plan, with a fine Bent lawn. Mrs. H. Robert Stoepel's garden is of the small, informal type. Mrs. Murray W. Sales will also open her perennial rose garden, which is also laid out on terrace lines.

Mrs. Hugh Dillman has a rose garden also, as well as a large formal one. Mrs. John F. Newbury will show her three formal gardens, of varying designs. The pool is a feature of Mrs. Arthur Gardner's estate. Mrs. Roy Chapin is another rose enthusiast, using them in a small garden, as well as in her large formal layout. Mrs. R. Lockhart Wilbur will exhibit her well-designed perennial garden.

Of unusual interest will be the twin formal gardens and pool of Mrs. Russell Alger. Mrs. Henry P. Williams is also the owner of an outstanding garden. It clearly shows the Spanish influence, with many unexpected and charming vistas. Mrs. Richard Jackson's garden is tiny, and of a formal nature, with a unique charm. Mrs. Lynn McNaughton will open her paved garden, which contains a pool. The tour will conclude with a visit to the yew gardens of Lakeside Terrace, at the Alger museum.

Tickets may be purchased at Schettler's, or at any of the gardens to be included in the pilgrimage.

Triangle Club Will Meet For Sports

So enthusiastic have Triangle Club members become over bicycling, that their next meeting, on Sunday, will be largely occupied with the sport. They will convene at the Community House promptly at two o'clock, and ride in a leisurely fashion to a nearby picnic spot. After a steak roast, they will go for a swim. Later they will return to the Community House for the remainder of the evening.

A number of the Club's sailors are planning an afternoon of sailing in the near future. The date will be announced later. Among those who have already indicated that they will attend the affair are Joy Stewart, George Ann McGrath, Alice Savage, Ruth Armstrong, Bill Torrence, Eleanor Phillips, Marian Kaltwasser, George Marin, Ratha Kirby, Philip Dorsch, Mary Elizabeth Olson, Betty Dupuis, Erlin Andrews, Elise Taylor, Henry Breslin, Kay Nestor, John Moon, Mary McGrath, Fred Johnson, David Wygant and George Flower.

SOCIAL BRIEFS

—Mrs. C. K. McCracken of West Lincoln road entertained 20 guests at tea Wednesday, complimenting her mother, Mrs. W. J. Lobach of Pittsburgh. Mrs. Lobach's visit is a stop-off en route to her home, after spending three months in California. Mrs. E. F. Brumbaum presided at the tea table, which was centered by an arrangement of lupins and yellow daisies. Mrs. J. R. Wagner will be hostess at luncheon Monday honoring the popular visitor, in her home on Dorchester road. Mrs. Hal H. Houghton of Birmingham boulevard will entertain Thursday, at a luncheon at Devon Gables. Mrs. Brumbaum, who is Mr. McCracken's sister, will entertain at a family dinner Saturday evening with Mr. Brumbaum, in their home on Aspen road.

* * *

Miss Peggy Bailey will return today from Bay City, where she was the house guest of Miss Helen Beckett of Tenth street. On Saturday evening she attended a dance at the Midland Country Club, as the guest of Eric Wilson.

* * *

Mrs. George M. Dwelley will motor to Knoxville, Tenn., over the weekends to be the house guest of her brother-in-law and sister, Major and Mrs. A. K. Kupfer. She will return next week accompanied by her mother, Mrs. I. T. Hunt, who will spend several weeks in Birmingham.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Rowland left Monday to motor to Washington, D. C. They will return to their home on Lincoln road early next week.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. O'Connor of Avon Lane were hosts Saturday evening at a dinner at the Bloomfield Hills Country Club, honoring Mr. and Mrs. M. B. McCafferty, who will leave soon for Wheeling, West Va. Besides the honor guests, the party included Mr. and Mrs. Fred P. Darden, Mr. and Mrs. Richard DuBois Young, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Fohey, Mr. and Mrs. Fritz K. Kleene, Mr. and Mrs. Chad Ritchie, Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. McGinnis and Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Smith.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Fred D. Farrar, of Greenwood avenue, spent the week-end and Memorial Day in Cadillac with Mr. Farrar's mother, Mrs. F. L. Farrar. They stopped en route to Cadillac in Lansing, to pick up their daughter, Virginia, who is a student at the Michigan State college.

* * *

Honoring Mrs. P. W. Guest of Brookside road, on the occasion of her birthday anniversary, Mrs. Arthur Wragby and Mrs. J. Elmer Harvey were joint hostesses at a bridge-luncheon on Wednesday, at the Pine Lake Country club. Others in the party were: Mrs. George Y. Reed, Mrs. Henry A. Manley, Mrs. J. S. Hammes, Mrs. A. Fletcher Plant and Mrs. Watt E. Ray.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Kalbfus were hosts at a small bridge-dinner last Saturday evening, at their home on Waddington road. Their guests were: Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Cole and Mr. and Mrs. Rufus B. Jones.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. William T. Cushing, Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Kalbfus and Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Mau will join forces on Friday evening of next week, to celebrate their respective wedding anniversaries with a picnic supper at the Cushings' home on Manor road. There will be 24 guests.

* * *

Mrs. Richard G. English and her daughter, Miss Frances, of Cranbrook road, are leaving today for New York, whence they will sail Friday on the Statendam, to spend the summer in England.

* * *

Among Birmingham residents who motored to Ann Arbor Tuesday night to see Pauline Lord in "The Late Christopher Bean" at the Lydia Mendelssohn theater, which event is a feature of the University of Michigan drama festival, were: Mr. and Mrs. Pat Eden, Mrs. M. W. Cochran, Dr. J. B. Hassberger and Mrs. Elizabeth Hassberger, and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred J. LaBelle.

* * *

Pink and white peonies decked the table Wednesday for the luncheon and kitchen shower given by Mrs. Brooks Marshall, of Pilgrim road, at the Orchard Lake Country club for Miss Anne Louise Smith, of Detroit. Miss Smith will become the bride of William McClennahan of Wyandotte, on June 8.

* * *

Shirley Trump and Marjie Petrie entertained 35 of their school friends at a gay hayride and al fresco supper party last Friday evening, in observance of the two hostesses' birthday anniversaries. Following the ride, the party returned to the home of Shirley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hal G. Trump, in Franklin, where a spaghetti supper awaited them. Bright-colored electric lights were strung about the garden and a fire blazed in the outdoor fireplace, lending additional enchantment to the scene.
