ATWOOD AGAIN CANDIDATE FOR STATE OFFICE

Former Secretary of State Orville E. Atwood of Fremont is definitely in the race for the Republican nomination for the office he held during 1935 and 1936, according to Don Vander Werp, publisher of the Fremont Times-Indicator and senator from the 26th district. Senator Vander Werp said that Atwood's one term as secretary of state had proved his fitness for the job.

In the election of 1936 Atwood demonstrated his popularity with the people by leading the state ticket. In the landslide of that year he was 6,600 votes nearer to election than any other Republican candidate for state office. Atwood carried 62 of the 83 counties which was more than were carried by any other Republican candidate. He was the only Republican candidate for state office who received a majority in Kent, Ingham and Mason counties.

In 1931 Atwood was appointed Director of the Motor Vehicle Division of the Secretary of State's office. Through his organizing ability, this office was soon able to render quick and efficient service to the motorists and motor vehicle dealers of the state.

Orville E. Atwood

Atwood was appointed director of the Michigan Safety Council made up of organizations and individuals. After a careful study of the subject, the Council's recommendations were put in a bill which was unanimously passed by the 1937 legislature. As a result Michigan is leading the nation in the reduction of highway accidents.

During his several terms in the legislature Atwood was a member of the committees which had consideration of motor vehicle legislation. He was the father of the gasoline tax for highway construction.

An Honest Start

"So you started paving golf today. How did you make out?"

"Not too badly, I took 63."

"Marvelous! Why, it's wonderful for a beginner!"

"I thought so, too. I'm going to try for the second hole tomorrow."

CHILDREN'S DAY SERVICE WILL BE HELD AT CHURCH

The Children's Day worship service will replace the usual order of morning service at the First Presbyterian Church on Sunday, May 12. The program will start at 10:30 a. m., under the direction of Norman Grubbs, superintendent. Doris Franklin, Robert Navin and the Junior and Intermediate Choirs will conduct the service.

A dramatic sketch, "Child Friends of Jesus," will be presented by the children's departments of the church. Those who will appear include Bette Elliott, Corinne Goodwillie, James Chandler, Nancy MacQueen, Donald Turner, Sybil Findh, Ralph Coryell, Jane Coil, Tommy Butters, Marylin Harris, Andre Peterson, Suzanne Spiegel, James Coulter, Donald Clark, William White, Greta Berishagen, Suzanne Seiler, Ralph Everal, Donald Benscoter, and Lois Ackerly.

Mrs. H. E. Tremper, Mrs. B. W. Vorhis, John Toms and Emery Wellman are in charge of decorations. Mrs. Charles S. Kinnison, Mrs. C. F. Butters, Mrs. H. G. Wood, Mrs. William Morrison and Mrs. Robert Crawford, assisted by the parents, are in charge of costumes.

Infant baptism will be administered by the Rev. W. Glen Harris. Cradle Roll babies and children of the nursery department will be recognized by Mrs. J. Stuart Cobb, nursery superintendent, and flower girls Greta Seaholm and Martha Penfield.

The special offering goes to the work of Sunday School missionaries in The United States.

Made Themselves Welcome

OXFORD—The thieves that entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Allen while the owners were on a trip to St. Louis, Mo., made use of all available accommodations. Besides taking a radio, electric clock, two overcoats, two suits, and other wearing apparel belonging to the Allen's, the trespassers took a bath in their "hosts'" tub and spent the night in their bed.
