Hospital Auxiliary Names Committees To Assist With Benefit Bridge

Benefit Chairman To Be On Program

Mrs. Arthur Fowler, a former resident of Birmingham, now living in Detroit, will appear on the "radio" program to be presented at the Community House on Friday evening, Feb. 17, for the benefit of the M. E. Church of Birmingham. She is also acting as chairman of the entertainment.

Mrs. Fowler has been soloist at the Calvary Presbyterian Church in Detroit, for many years. She has also gained recognition through her appearances at Graumann's Chinese Theater in Hollywood, with the Moslem Temple Shrine band and the Imperial Trio.

Mrs. Leland J. Bunyan of Birmingham's First Baptist Church, will appear in a monologue and Robert Tyson of the First Presbyterian Church will also appear on the program.

LUTHERAN GROUP LAYS PLANS FOR NEW ACTIVITIES

February will be a busy month for members of the Ladies Missionary Society of Redeemer Lutheran Church, plans of the organization indicate. Important activities are scheduled for the first two Thursdays of the month.

The monthly meeting of the group will be held at eight o'clock this evening. Mrs. Walter Faist will open her home on Dorchester road for the occasion. Acting as assistant hostess will be Mrs. Harvey Edwards.

The Society will sponsor an old-fashioned dinner, featuring roast ham and sauerkraut, on the evening of Friday, Feb. 9. The affair will be held at the Masonic Temple on South Woodward avenue, with serving in progress continuously from 5:30 to eight p. m. Mrs. Faist is chairman of arrangements for the dinner and on her committee are the names of Mrs. Roy Lewis, Mrs. Otis Hinton, Mrs. Clifford Hunt, Mrs. C. E. Raymond, Mrs. Adolphe Kowinski, Mrs. Elizabeth Clingan, Mrs. Viola Spaeth, Mrs. Alvin H. Knorr and Mrs. Robert McKee. The general public will be invited to the affair, Mrs. Faist announced.

Which made her plain Sue, Suzanne

Party Chairman

Mrs. Bell

General chairman of the matrons from Birmingham, the Hills and Pontiac who are planning a benefit for the Clinic at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, is Mrs. Donald Snow Bell of Forest Avenue. The affair will be given by the Hospital Auxiliary.

ANNUAL AFFAIR TO AID CLINIC AT ST. JOSEPH'S

Mrs. Donald Snow Bell of Forest avenue is general chairman of the bridge and tea, at which matrons of Birmingham, the Hills and Pontiac will join forces on behalf of the Clinic at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, in Pontiac. The affair will be held at Bloomfield Hills Country Club on the afternoon of Tuesday, Feb. 21, sponsored by the Hospital Auxiliary.

The list of Mrs. Bell's assistants from Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills includes the names of Mrs Harold R. Rohem, Mrs. John B. Taylor, Mrs. S. O. Wyllys Bell, Mrs. Charles J. O'Connor, Mrs. Walter R. Flannery and Mrs. R. E. Hammonds. Her chief assistant in Pontiac is Mrs. Charles P. Webster, who has enlisted the aid of Mrs. William P. Heike, Mrs. Walter Gregory, Mrs. Harry W. Kimmins, Mrs. Peter Davidson, Miss Madge LaValle, Miss Rose Griffin, Mrs. J. W. Brophe and Mrs. William D. Fraser, to serve on her committee.

The benefit, an annual highlight on the mid-winter social horizon, will feature a musical interlude during the tea. Non-members and guests of Auxiliary members are invited to attend the affair.

DETROIT GIRL TO BECOME BRIDE OF JAMES VERNOR 3

A toast by Arthur John Scully, father of the bride-elect, announced the engagement of Miss Patricia Scully to James Vernor III, at a cocktail party Saturday evening, given at the Scully apartment at The Towers, in Detroit. Mr. Vernor is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Vernor Jr. of Lahser road. No date has been set for the wedding.

About 40 friends of the newly-engaged couple assembled for the affair. Among the guests were Mrs. Carl McNabb and her daughter, Miss Marjorie Ann, of Grand Rapids. Mrs. McNabb is the aunt of the bride-elect.

Miss Scully chose a crepe gown for the occasion, in aqua, fashioned with a bouffant skirt and puffed sleeves. Dubonnet was used for ribbon trimming which adorned the sleeves and for the belt.

In the dining room, gladioli were used as decorations. Disposals of red roses were used in the rest of the rooms.

The bridegroom-elect attended Culver Military Academy. Miss Scully attend Sacred Heart Convent in Grosse Pointe, Loretta Abbey, and Marywood.

Blind Pianist Will Give Recital Here

Final plans are now complete for the benefit concert which Mrs. Helen Langstaff Wiedmann, blind musician, will present at the Community House at 8:15 on the evening of Thursday, Feb. 9. Underprivileged and handicapped persons will receive benefits from a portion of the funds derived from the concert.

Mrs. Wiedmann studied under Prof. J. Forbes Allen of the Royal Acadamey of Music in London, Eng., when he was in Toronto as a representative of the Academy. She was also a pupil at the Ursuline Convent in Chatham, Ont., and at the Toronto Conservatory of Music.

Her career as a teacher and recitalist was threatened when a serious illness left her blind, but Mrs. Wiedmann overcame the affliction and is now on another concert tour.

CONCERT TO FEATURE MUSICALE CHORUS

Continuing a winter's concert activities, the Birmingham Musicale will present the Musicale Chorus in a concert at eight o'clock on the evening of Wednesday, Feb. 15. The program, which will be held at the Community House, will be open to the public. The singers will appear under the baton of Frederick A. Protheroe, Chorus director.

BARNUM PTA TO FETE PARENTS WITH PARTY

A party for parents will be sponsored by the Parent Teacher Association of Barnum School at 8:30 this evening. Varied entertainment will be available at the affair, which will be held at the school. Mrs. Louis Hock, who is serving as general chairman, has made arrangements for a program which will include modern and old-fashioned dancing, games, cards, and a floor show, among other features of the evening.

GIRL SCOUTS

Patrol One of Troop B7 gave a party at the last meeting, held at the Community House on Wednesday, Jan. 25. Games were played and refreshments were served. Mothers on the committee also attended.

"Spirit" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science Churches throughout the world on Sunday, February 5.

The Golden Text (II Corinthians 3:17) is: "Where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty."

The Bible citations in this passage (I Chron. 29:11): "Thine, O Lord, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, for all that is in the heaven and in the earth is thine; thine is the kingdom, O Lord, and thou art exalted as head above all."

Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 228): "There is no power apart from God. Omnipotence has all-power, and to acknowledge any other power is to dishonor God."

TRIP YOU UP!

Stringing extension cords along the floor, under rugs, or through the air to reach a distant outlet is a makeshift arrangement at best. Such cords are unsightly and in the way, and very easy to trip over. Why not solve the problem by installing one or two additional outlets? Convenience outlets repay their cost many times over. They are such a great help that there's no reason why you should try to get along with fewer than you need. We do not install outlets, but any electrical contractor will be glad to do this work and give you an estimate in advance. The Detroit Edison Company.
