Harriet Brelsford Sets Sept. 9 as Date of Wedding to F. W. Boynton, Jr.

Popular Couple to Exchange Vows At Local Methodist Episcopal Church

The announcement made this week of wedding plans of Miss Harriet Irene Brelsford should prove of considerable interest to local residents for it concerns two of the most popular members of Birmingham's younger set.

Miss Brelsford, who will become the bride of Frederick W. Boynton, Jr., of Wyandotte is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Brelsford of Pilgrim road and Mr. Boynton is the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. ll Boynton of South Bend, formerly of Dorchester road in Birmingham.

The couple will exchange their vows on Saturday, Sept. 9 at the Methodist Episcopal Church in Birmingham with Rev. John E. Martin officiating.

Miss Brelsford is a graduate of Baldwin High School and later attended Michigan State College where she was active in undergraduate activities. She is a member of Alpha Phi sorority and also of Tower Guard, scholastic and leadership honorary sorority for women.

Mr. Boynton is also a graduate of Baldwin High School. He received his degree in engineering from the University of Michigan where he was affiliated with Beta Theta Pi fraternity and Triangles, junior engineers' honorary society.

One of the first parties following the announcement will be the breakfast and kitchen shower at which Mrs. John Woolfenden and Mrs. Robert Allen will entertain on Sunday morning at the Allen residence on Collingwood avenue, Detroit. Guests who will attend this affair from Birmingham are Virginia Richardson, Dorothy Ray, Mary Ann Reed, Elizabeth Williams, Alice Savage and Elise Taylor. Detroit guests at the shower will be Betty Polutnick and Dorothy Burk.

WE HEARD IT SAID BY—

Monty Wood, in charge of Cranbrook School printing department: "Hurrah for Governor Dickinson! At last he is revealing to the world life as she actually is lived. He needs help to lick the devil—and I don't mean any printer's devil, either."

Fire Chief Asks Fire Prevention

The dry vegetation problem continues to harass the Fire Department as seven grass fires this week continued on a par with those of last week. Unless rain falls soon, more fires of this nature are in prospect," said Chief Griffith yesterday. He asks that citizens be on the alert to prevent as many of these fires as possible. Practically all have been the result of carelessness of children.
