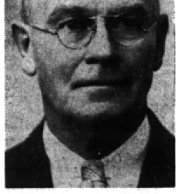
To Be Part of U. S. 10

The new Birmingham cut-off will not actually become a part of Woodward Avenue. Woodward will, as always, be the main street through Birmingham. The cut-off has been named Hunter Boulevard in memory of John Hunter who was the first white man to bring his family and settle on the site of modern Birmingham. The new cut-off will be made a part of U. S. 10, however.

Utility Veteran



First person to serve 50 consecutive years with Consumers Power Company, GEORGE F. STECKER, one of Michigan's most widely-known electrical men, will be honored Nov. 8 at a company luncheon in Kalamazoo. He will be presented with a diamond service pin by Wendall L. Willkie, chairman of the board of Consumers and president of the Commonwealth & Southern Corporation.
