University Lecture Series Revealed

ANN ARBOR—Dorothy Thompson, Warden Lewis E. Lawes, Leland Stowe, and Admiral Harry Y. Yarnell will highlight the 1940-1941 oratorical series at the University of Michigan.

Ruth Draper, noted monologist and author of dramatic sketches, will open the series on Oct. 29 with "Character Sketches."

Leland Stowe, journalist who uncovered the news of Norway's betrayal into Nazi hands will speak on "Hitler Over Europe," on Nov. 5. Warden Lawes, of Sing Sing Prison, will discuss the American prison system the following week, Nov. 11.

Miss Thompson, who will speak on Nov. 19, has chosen the topic on which she writes daily, "Current Problems."

Fifth in the series is Julien Bryan who will show his movies on Brazil and the Argentines on Dec. 2. A month later, Wendell Chapman will appear here with a lecture and motion pictures on animal life in the Rocky mountains.

Dr. William Beebe, scientist and naturalist, will present a lecture on his underwater explorations entitled "500 Fathoms Down."

Completing the series will be Admiral Harry E. Yarnell, late commander of the Navy's Pacific fleet. On March 11, he will discuss the Far Eastern problem. Admiral Yarnell was given a free hand by the State Department to carry out America's diplomatic policy in the Far East, and was decorated with the Distinguished Service Medal for his work.

Red Cross Seeks Winter Apparel

Washington, D. C.—A request for 340,000 articles of winter apparel for men, women and children refugees and evacuees in Great Britain, received from the American Red Cross Committee in London by cable today, will be immediately furnished, Chairman Norman H. Davis announced today.

Daniel Grant, cabling for the American Red Cross Committee in London, stated 500,000 persons had been evacuated from their homes in Great Britain, while 100,000 foreign refugees also required care. An acute shortage of woolen garments to meet the winter months was foreseen by the Committee, and a total of 340,000 articles of clothing was requested.

BUILDING A BETTER WORLD

Men who know God have never been frightened uncertain souls. They have often been persecuted and impoverished but their marks on history and human thought have always possessed a quality of abundant resourcefulness. Rich rulers have often in frantic desperation sought out the hovels of the prophet, for they knew he would have something their power and wealth could not secure. Yet how strange it is that these rare possessions, which money and privilege cannot buy, are free to all! These are vast over-flowing tides of strength, joy and confidence, instead of the little pumped-up dribbles of courage and faith that we can secure for ourselves without God. The world is now torn and bankrupted by the efforts of man to build life in his own small willful pattern while beyond us are the immeasurable plans and resources of the infinite.—CHARLES A. WELLS.

"Mind" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science churches throughout the world on Sunday.
The Golden Text (Dan. 2:20, 21) is: "Blessed be the name of God for ever and ever: for wisdom and might are his: . . he giveth wisdom unto the wise, and knowledge to them that know understanding."
Among the Bible citations is this passage (Isa. 40:13, 14): "Who hath directed the Spirit of the Lord, or being his counsellor hath taught him? With whom took he counsel, and who instructed him, and taught him in the path of judgment, and taught him knowledge, and showed to him the way of understanding?"
Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 468): "Mind is God. . . There can be but one Mind, because there is but one God; and if mortals claimed no other Mind and accepted no other, sin would be unknown."

The reply of the United States to the note of Austria-Hungary, refusing to stop the exportation of arms and munitions to the enemies of that nation as requested in representations June 29, was made public at Washington. Among the reasons for its refusal the United States gave the following: To refuse the sale of implements of war to belligerents would force militarism on the world and work against universal peace.

The distinction of being the only American student ever to attend the Royal Army School at Bath, Eng., founded more than 70 years ago as a preparatory school for daughters of English Army officers has fallen to 14 year old Caroline Holt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. Farrington Holt.

Possibility that the City of Birmingham may be forced to revise its proposed refunding program on one point loomed at a conference in Lansing yesterday between city officials, bondholders' representatives and the State Debt Commission. The only feature of the proposed program which was questioned was the date the refunding bonds would bear.

A wedding announcement which will come as a surprise to their many Birmingham friends is that of Dorothy Kist, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Kist, of Chestnut street, and Patrolman Samuel T. Stinson, a member of the Birmingham police department.

Bell Plant Engineer Congratulated After 30 Years' Service

Friends and associates today were congratulating Jesse R. Peters, district plant engineer for the Michigan Bell Telephone Company in its Pontiac district, on his 25th service anniversary with the Bell System.

The Michigan Bell's plant engineer in this district has jurisdiction over the engineering and design of telephone plant in a territory with 17 central offices and approximately 30,500 telephones. In addition to the Pontiac office, others in this district are at Armada, Big Beaver, Birmingham, Clarkston, Lake Orion, Leonard, Mt. Clemens, New Baltimore, New Haven, Oxford, Commerce, Drayton Plains, Rochester, Romeo, Utica and Washington.

He first started work with the Bell System in 1911 as a repairman for the old Central Union Telephone Company at Dayton, Ohio. He was still with that company in 1917 when he resigned to enter the World War. After serving overseas, Peters returned to work first with the Ohio Bell Telephone Company and later with the Michigan Public Utilities Commission on appraisals.

Nineteen years ago this month, he started with the Michigan Bell at Detroit and was assigned appraisal duties. Peters was transferred to Saginaw two years later where he remained in various capacities until 1927 when he was made district plant engineer here. Peters supervised the conversion of Pontiac's telephone system in 1929 to dial operation.

The wife came home breathlessly after a day of shopping.

"Look, darling," she told her husband happily. "I've got one of those new hats without a crown, and a dress without a back, and shoes without toes."

"You think that's something," grunted her husband. "Look at this suit of mine: It has pockets without money!"
