Pontiac Orchestra To Give 4 Concerts In Greek Theatre

The lovely Greek theatre at Cranbrook has been selected as the appropriate background for the series of four concerts to be given this summer by the Pontiac Philharmonic Orchestra of 75 musicians under Ceasar Chanfone's baton.

These musical events are to be known as, "Oakland County Symphonies Under the Stars," and are scheduled for Tuesday evenings, July 16 and 30 and August 13 and 27.

The programs will start at 8:30. In the event of rain the concert will be held on the following evening.

Since the inception of the symphony orchestra a year ago under the guidance of Maestro Chanfone, four successful concerts have been given, utilizing the best in classical and popular music. The orchestra continues to grow in interpretation and sensitivity.

Conductor Cranfone came to Pontiac at the suggestion of the Chamber of Commerce. He has conducted in the Hollywood Bowl, also the Woman's Symphony of Los Angeles.

Mr. Chanfone's work has met with the approval of music lovers throughout California, and he was an outstanding figure in the musical activities of the Pacific Coast section, not only because of his ability as conductor, but also because of his talent as composer.

Tickets for the season are a dollar. They may be obtained from Mrs. D. L. Tate 959 Westchester Way, Phone 1233.

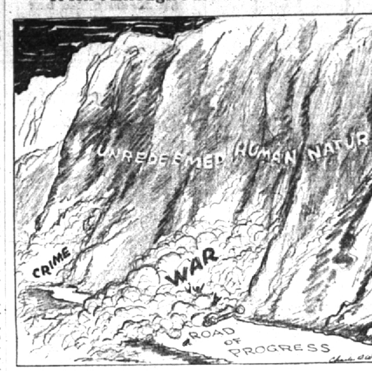
It Isn't Enough Just to Build a Road



These are days to make us humble. The educator, if he is sincere, should feel like pulling his diplomas down from the wall; the scientist should almost want to break his test-tubes and lock the laboratory, the lawyer to close his books and the healer to throw away his formulas and instruments. For of what use are all these developments when man so quickly reverts to his most savage instincts, perverting all his knowledge to augment his savagery? No wonder two years ago a national convention of scientists said that a holiday should be declared on scientific advancement until man's moral and spiritual nature should catch up. Eventually we must face the truth that behind every social breakdown, every international catastrophe is the hopelessness of man without the redeeming influence of God's spirit upon him. The progress education and science makes can mean nothing except as the church can complete its task.—Charles A. Wells.

"Christian Science" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science Churches throughout the world on Sunday, June 30.
The Golden Text (II Peter 1:21) is: "The prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost."
Among the Bible citations is this passage (Luke 17:20, 21): "And when he was demanded of the Pharisees, when the kingdom of God should come, he answered them and said, The Kingdom of God cometh not with observation: Neither shall they say, Lo here! or, lo there! for, behold, the kingdom of God is within you."
Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (576): "This kingdom of God 'is within you,' is within reach of man's consciousness here, and the spiritual idea reveals it. In divine Science, man possesses this recognition of harmony consciously in proportion to his understanding of God."
