HOME NOTES. Driving through Troy, recently we stopped at M. M. Lewis's and found him busily engaged with ten men laying the foundation for an immense barn 40x80 with a basement. John Melish of Franklin is basing the stone work and when completed this barn will be a daisy.

PERPETUAL NOTICE. You will please make date upon your name on paper and wrap up this note upon your shirt button, and if you ever come to old place call on postmaster.

Ortonville has a new postmaster. What is about all sown in this vicinity. Phil Durkee is home from New York state.

Henry Tucker is the Jonah of the Union Sentinel. Fine candies, fruits and nuts at J. R. Corson, Jr. & Co's.

Franklin downs Birmingham this year at everything. Miss Jennie Keys and Mrs. Kate Alger take in the Peabody excursion.

The Birmingham band has a new quarter which is simply immense. Mr. Henry George and family, of Ionia, visited at Wm. H. Camp's last week.

Miss Grace Gillespie is away on a two weeks' visit among friends in Detroit. Mr. Joseph Mead, we are pleased to say, is recovering as rapidly as possible.

Pension checks came last week and you recipients are correspondingly happy. But the waiting lady at a very low price will do well to call on J. R. Corson, Jr. & Co.

Miss Nellie Sowerby of Milford was the guest of Miss Carrie Stafford the latter part of last week. Maple avenue is all torn up and settled again, and new concrete walks laid all along the line.

Married at the residence of the bride's parents, Miss Ada Young to Harry Russell, both of Southfield. We had the pleasure of shaking M. J. Matthews last Monday morning, and he looked just as well as ever.

Hal's Halley of Rochester gave an exhibition here last Saturday and he is just "too nice for anything." The Ladies' Aid society will meet at Mrs. Utter's, Friday, Sept. 11, at 8 o'clock, p. m. By order of Com.

They've stolen our name! The Hungry Nine base ball club is at it once more. Mr. J. P. Mosher of Toledo, a brother-in-law of a wealthy Michigan street resident was in town on Sunday.

Married, at the M. E. parsonage by the Rev. G. W. Lowe, Sunday, September 6, 1886, Fred A. Gunn to Miss May E. Dodge, all of Pontiac. His Slade has coal for sale and invites custom by his new ad. elsewhere. He is pleased to quote prices on any quantity in person or by letter.

The old Henry Nine's ghost will have its first day this evening. We'd like to see Halley and Wright play them alone. Mrs. John Baldwin is visiting relatives in the vicinity of Grand Lodge and expects to return soon.

A curiosity in the shape of a spring full of blossoms picked at the Silberman creek apple tree, which hangs full of fruit, by Wm. Gillespie, ornaments our sanctum. Doctor Bancroft wishes us to say for the benefit of his numerous patrons and the public in general that he is here to stay, notwithstanding rumors to the contrary.

Twenty bicyclists and one excursion train of 17 coaches and two engines passed through here Sunday on route for the Catholic exercises held at Pontiac last Sunday. J. F. Kunder captured four first premiums and three second premiums at the Columbus O. fair last week, and made several sales. He is at the Toledo fair this week.

The two professionals who did the canvassing and soliciting last week for a worthy object, thank all their friends who helped them out and treated them so kindly. My art shadows never get any more red.

We are in receipt of a recent issue of the DeWitt, Iowa, Observer, containing an account of the installment of our friend J. P. Gibson as pastor of his new charge at that place. It is evident that he will have a fine place in prospect.

Mr. Isaac Linabury, a former resident of this place, is in town with Mrs. L. the guests of Mr. Blinburn. Mr. Linabury is not well, but it is hoped that a change of location and surroundings will have a beneficial effect upon him.

Mr. William Ferguson has again shaken the Michigan dust from his feet and returned to Massachusetts. He took his clothes in a pill box this time so the railroad company couldn't smash it as they did his trunk, before when he went east.

The juvenile Franklin club began a game with the Birmingham juniors last week and had the game continued to a fine score every Sunday. Under the score would have reached 507 for Franklin, and perhaps 5 for the Birmingham boys.

Somebody poisoned George Tom's hunting dog one day last week, and George never got real mad, but he came down the next morning and found his shop door decorated with craps. Ben has gone where all good dogs go and his place is already filled by another.

R. Woodcock, Addison; J. Taylor, Highland; J. Vanover, Boston; J. W. L. Frank West, 23rd ward; David W. Elwood, 34th ward; Marshall U. Gage, 4th ward; Augustus Newman, West Bloomfield; Wm. J. Allen, Independence.

A sad accident happened on the farm of W. B. Dickie of White Lake August 22nd. While Mr. Dickie and Edward Newman were digging a hole in which to sink a large rock, the earth gave way, crushing Edward against the side of the bank, killing him instantly.

On Monday last at the home of the brightest star in the galaxy of trotters at the Cooper farm just at present, is the 3-year-old foal named "Allie Whitehead." His trainers and driver declare him to be the most promising colt in Oakland county. The name of his is a pretty heavy handicap for a 3-year-old.

We were surprised to have our old friend W. W. Martin drop in upon us one day last week from Royal Oak, looking as well as ever and not one day older than when he moved from here. He reports George W. Morris and Brooks Martin clear to their eyes in the milling business and doing very well.

On Friday, August 14th, I left Melrose for a trip to the city. I was very much pleased to see the speaker without difficulty. It is a natural and beautiful place for a camp meeting ever since. The place occupied by the speaker's tent is the lowest part of the ground and there is a gradual ascent from three sides so all can see the speaker without difficulty. It is a natural and beautiful place for a camp meeting ever since. The trees are mostly pine and as there are 400 or more on the ground from 8 to 18 inches in diameter, the shade is very dense. There are good comfortable seats provided for at least 10,000 people, the lowest part of the ground and there is a gradual ascent from three sides so all can see the speaker without difficulty.
