Very Young Set Prepares for Concert Saturday in Detroit

Children's Program Awaited Breathlessly Here by Many

Nearly a hundred students in music appreciation, ranging in age from four-year old Eleanor Hamil to several grandmothers who acknowledge participating in more than one presidential election, will attend the first of the 1940-41 Saturday morning series of Detroit Symphony concerts for young people, which begins in the cathedral auditorium of Masonic Temple, in Detroit, on Saturday morning.

David Hamil and Mrs. Frank Maurice will be seated beside diminutive Miss Eleanor Hamil. Bruce Bootts will accompany his daughter, Marjorie, while Miss Doris Protheroe will go with a chaperone and other young friends. Similar family groups or groups of young friends will include some of the Draper Allens, the Henry S. Booths, the Ferd Broocks and the Harold Broocks, the Donald Stantons, E. J. Andersons, Russell Barnes, Ralph Marsons, S. A. Morrills, Whiting Raymonds, Charles Drakes, H. H. Gardners, D. Q. Miller sand Elmer Wollerings.

Others will represent the Edward Reid, Jr., family, that of Mrs. I. W. Robertson, Mrs. Ernest Seaholm, Mrs. Colin Campbell, Mrs. George Goodall, Mrs. Oliver Kelley, Mrs. Edward C. Shaw, Mrs. H. P. Walmsley, Mrs. Hazen Stephens, and Mrs. L. M. Woolson, Mrs. W. H. Mitchell will go from Franklin, and another group will represent the Brookside School. In addition to these season ticket-holders, a group of young people is expected to meet at the Birmingham Community House at 9:45 Saturday morning for the special bus which will go directly to Masonic Temple and return for this concert, and will become a regular feature of the young people's concert series if a sufficient number of parents and children use it.

At the Saturday morning concert, Suzanne Bloch, young lutenist, singer to the lute, one of the best such performers in the country, will be the guest artist.

"Our Orchestra—Ancient and Modern" is the subject of the Saturday concert. The purely orchestral performances will be from the writings of Wolf-Ferrari, Mendelssohn, Tschaikovsky, Berlioz Saint-Saens and Rossini. Miss Bloch will present a group of solos for the lute as well as a group of songs to the lute. She also will perform on the alto and soprano recorders to string accompaniment.

Dinner Party Precedes Dance Saturday Night

A large subscription dinner at the Fox and Hounds Saturday evening will precede the dancing party of a group that is meeting this year for the first time—the Cotillions.

The party is to be held Saturday evening at the Playhouse.

Those who have already made reservations for this dinner include the Edwin H. Strunks, Mr. and Mrs. Donald M. Chaffee, the junior John T. Spencers, Mr. and Mrs. Walter W. Ayrault, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Vershure, the William L. Martins, the Donald S. Beks, the junior Clarence Vliets, Mr. and Mrs. Howard E. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Mackay, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Whittlesey, Jr., the Arthur B. Mowreys, Mr. and Mrs. Karl B. Lutz, Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. McCombe, Helen Shepherd, Sidney Richard, the Paul Neal Averills, the Newman T. Halvorsons, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Shenefield, the Garland Taits, Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Crockett, Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Smith, the Parker Dickinsons, of Pleasant Ridge.

Also attending this subscription dinner will be the following members of the committee: Mr. and Mrs. Forest B. Hubert, the J. R. Wagners, Mr. and Mrs. Lance C. Minor, the Thomas Y. Watsons, and Mr. and Mrs. Fraser Pomeroy.

Dr. and Mrs. Watson entertained members of the committee at dinner at their home on Pleasant avenue.
