Players Offer School Students Awards for Posters Advertising Public Show

Dates For Annual Performance Are April 24, 25, 26

Dates for the Players' public show for 1941 are announced as April 24, 25 and 26. This performance is of great general interest for it is the only time during the year when the doors of the Playhouse are open to everyone to see the hard-working Birmingham actors and actresses in action. "See My Lawyer" by Richard Maibaum and Harry Clark, is the play to be presented and George M. Dwelley is directing.

Following the custom of many years' standing, the first night, Thursday, will be family night, when the tariff will be modest enough to appeal to the school folk. Friday and Saturday nights will be more dressy occasions and will, no doubt, inspire the usual round of dinners and suppers before and after.

The Players this year are asking Baldwin High school students to make posters to advertise the show and they are offering prizes for this work amounting to $15.

While plans are taking shape for the 19 three-day show next month, the Players' more immediate concern for the performance tomorrow night, when they will present "The Undercurrent" by Ray Ehrlert and the second act of "Torch Bearers" by George Kelly. Mr. Dwelley, Mrs. Edward S. Reid, Jr., and Mrs. George Morton will handle the leads in "The Undercurrent" and Mrs. Dwelley, Mrs. Donald T. Stanton, Fred D. Farrar and D. S. Hastreiter will be featured in the other piece.

Mrs. Paul Neal Averill, chairman of the make-up committee, will have the assistance of Mrs. Alan W. Joslyn and Mrs. George D. Clark.

Mrs. George H. Fox is in charge of the Afterglow, assisted by Mrs. Clark E. Pardee and Mrs. Charles C. Hood.

The entr'act, in charge of Mrs. Clyde L. Hagerman, will comprise two-piano numbers by Warren Pease, Jr., and Mrs. Donald Bay; a piano solo by Miss Ruth Porritt, and a piano and song selection by Mrs. John P. St. Clair.

Audible Protest

"I'm not trash," complains this little London girl, deposited in a wastebasket for safekeeping.

Miss Matthews Sets April 5 As Wedding Date

Miss Dorothy Matthews, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Doane Matthews of Brewster street, has decided April 5 for her marriage to Harry M. Denyes, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Denyes, of Pleasant avenue. The ceremony will take place at noon in St. Dunstan's chapel at Christ Church Cranbrook. It will be an informal ceremony with just the immediate families attending. Virginia Matthews will be her sister's only attendant and Richard Denyes will assist his brother as best man.

Classmates of Miss Matthews at the Arts and Crafts academy, where she attends school will entertain for her at a kitchen shower this afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Denyes will be hosts at a dinner party for the families on March 29, at Devon Gables.

On April 4, Betty Ann Pease, Buckingham road, will give a shower for Miss Matthews. Mrs. E. Curtis Matthews, Woodale road, will give a luncheon and bathroom shower shortly after her return from Florida. Eleanor Costelle, classmate of Miss Matthews, is planning a luncheon soon in her home at Grosse Pointe.

Plans Mature For Baldwin "Basket Ball"

"The Basket Ball," Baldwin High school's annual dance given in honor of the basketball team, will be held in the high school gymnasium Friday evening, March 28. According to William Roberts, general chairman, this year's dance will take on a Latin-American theme, and will be known as "La Fiesta."

Swinging into the South American atmosphere, Mary Gardner, chairman of decorations, plans to use rich, exciting colors to enliven the drab gymnasium. An awning of many colors will cover the track above the dance floor. Outlines of palm trees will be placed on the large black curtains which will cover the windows. Palm trees and actual tropical flowers will be used in abundance throughout the room.

A Detroit orchestra, one of the most popular dance bands ever to play at the high school, will make a return appearance. Joseph Armstrong is serving as chairman of the orchestra arrangements. In accordance with the "Good Neighbor" atmosphere of the dance, it is expected that many tropical dance numbers will be played by the band.

The favors for this occasion are being kept a secret by Ann Sears, who heads this committee. Both the invitations and the program will carry out the Latin Theme, it has been announced by chairmen Jane Bronson and Barbra Holland, who heard the respective committees.

Louis Hagopian heads the publicity committee, while John Gillespie is in charge of the clean-up squad.

Because this is one of the biggest social events in the high school social calendar, the committee in charge has decided to make this a long-dress dance.

Even some of the dressy afternoon shoes have navy emblems embroidered on the sides.

IN FASHION NOW

It's in fashion now, as it always is, to have that well-groomed look. Any costume, no matter how attractive can be spoiled by frowsy hair, crooked hose seams, run-down slipper heels, unshined shoes, too much lip or cheek rouge, or too brilliant nail polish.
