Obituary

Francis C. Campbell

Funeral services were held on Saturday afternoon at the Norton Funeral Home in Detroit for Francis C. Campbell, of Detroit. Truman F. Campbell, of 1690 Dorchester road, Birmingham, a prominent member of the First Church of Christian Science here, Mr. Campbell died Thursday at his home in the Wardell Apartments.

Mr. Campbell was one of seven persons whose petition in 1939 for an investigation of police grafting charges resulted in the naming of the Judge Homer Ferguson grand jury. Since 1912 Mr. Campbell has been a Christian Science practitioner and has been a resident of Detroit since 1905. He was born in Washington, D. C., 77 years ago. He was president of the Detroit English Speaking Union and a past president of the Michigan Chapter of the Sons of the American Revolution.

Surviving are his widow, Grace Campbell, and two sons, Truerhan F., and Colin C. Campbell.

William Claude Wright

Funeral services were held on Saturday afternoon at the Bell Funeral Home for William Claude Wright, 56, who died on Thursday evening at the Oakland County Tuberculosis Sanatorium, where he had been confined for the past two years. The Rev. John Frye, of the First Christian Church of Pontiac, officiated and burial was at White Chapel Memorial Cemetery.

Mr. Wright was born in Mulvane, Kan., and attended school in Waco, Mo. In 1911 he was married to Eunice Chase in Bakersfield, Calif. He moved to Birmingham 25 years ago and for 16 years was with the Detroit Edison Company here.

Surviving besides his widow, who now lives in Brown City, are his mother, Mrs. Mary Jane Wright, of Detroit; a daughter, Mrs. Levon Holmquis and a son, John Wright, both of Birmingham; a brother, George Wright, of Birmingham, and four sisters, Mrs. Pearl DeVaney, of Birmingham, Mrs. Harry Osborne, of Detroit, and Mrs. Glen Hall, of Pittsburg, Kan.

Eugene P. Opperman

Funeral services will be held on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Bell Funeral Home for Eugene P. Opperman, of Detroit, who died of pneumonia early Wednesday morning after an illness of two weeks at the Mercy Hospital in Manistee, Mich. The Rev. Perry M. Gilfillan, of Detroit, will officiate at the services and burial will be at Roseland Park Cemetery.

Mr. Opperman was born 43 years ago in Saginaw and attended the Saginaw Public Schools, the University of Michigan and the Detroit College of Law. For the past five years he has lived in Detroit and is a member of the St. Phillip and St. Stephan Church there. In 1928 he was married to Stella H. Opperman, at Cleveland. He is the nephew of Mrs. Anna Kreger and Mrs. Louis Randall, of Birmingham.

At the time of his death, Mr. Opperman was housing manager of the Parkside Housing Project in Detroit.

Surviving besides his widow are two daughters, Anne and Ellen, at home; one sister, Mrs. John P. Edgerly, of Wilmington, Del., and five brothers, Paul P. of Washington, and Arthur P., Karl, Robert P., and Peter, all of Saginaw.

Mrs. Mary Rowan Crawford

Word was received here this week by Miss Margaret McCarroll, of 431 Park street, of the death in Beirut, Syria, of Mrs. Mary Rowan Crawford, on April 13. She was the daughter of the late Rev. Joseph McCracken, one time pastor of the Southfield Reformed Presbyterian Church. Some 40 years ago she went to Syria with her husband, the late Stewart Crawford, who was a professor at the American University there.

Burial took place at the Anglo-American cemetery at Furn-al-Sahebbak.

Surviving are four children: Mrs. Merton Stuck, of Dexter, Mich., Rowan Crawford, of Milwaukee; Archie Crawford, of Beirut; and Forrest Crawford, of Istanbul, Turkey.

LAKE FLEET TO SALVAGE FATS FOR WAR DRIVE

LANSING—Ships of the Great Lakes passing through the Sault Ste. Marie locks may furnish the State Council of Defense as much as 60,000 pounds of fats each week to be turned into glycerine and then into explosives. D. J. McDermott, chairman of the household fats section of the salvage committee of the Chippewa County council of defense, has just made arrangements to collect from the fleet of the United States Steel Corp. fats the ships previously have discarded. Each ship is expected to produce 30 pounds a week, or 6,000 pounds a week for the entire fleet. If all of the ships of the Lakes Carriers' Association participate this amount will be increased ten times.

The U. S. has appropriated 148 billions for war since Pearl Harbor, about twice the total for all the other wars in our history.
