Ed King of Detroit was in town last week on a visit to friends.

Miss Liza Blake of Birmingham was the guest of Mrs. C. Mills over week end.

Miss Ada Doyle of Farmington was visiting last week with Dr. Avery and lady.

Col. John P. Foster died Friday evening at 10 o'clock, aged 63 years. He was a member of the 11th Michigan Infantry during the war; he was chief engineer of the fire department since its organization and for some time he was commander of the Light's Trencher No. 2 and was buried by them Monday after noon.

Mrs. Moser Hill spent last week in Detroit.

Dan Heath and wife returned last week from Oregon.

The Republicans celebrated the recent election Saturday night by a big bonfire near the court house.

Mrs. James Burns has had the unfortunate habit of drinking for some time. On Wednesday evening of last week her husband came home drunk and lay on the floor drunk, picked her up and put her to bed and when he arose the next morning he found her dead.

VERMIN ON STOCK.

One of the most serious drawbacks to the farmer is the loss of his stock to vermin. It is a great nuisance and one that is becoming more and more annoying.
