Four Project Chairmen Will Be Honored Guests at Luncheon

The final meeting of the year for the Birmingham Branch of the American Association of University Women is to be held next Wednesday afternoon, May 13. A one o'clock luncheon has been scheduled at Orchard Lake Country Club, and afterwards there will be a short, informal meeting before guests go to the lounge for an afternoon of bridge and knitting.

Honor guests at the luncheon will be Mrs. Max M. Roensch, of Eaton road, Mrs. Ward Randol, of Covington road, Mrs. Jack G. Kehoe, of Ridgedale avenue, and Mrs. Glen M. Davis, of Larchlea drive. These members have been chairmen of the four main projects carried on by A.A.U.W. this year.

On May 15 and 16, the North East Central Regional Conference of A.A.U.W. will be held in Indianapolis, Ind. Mrs. Hagh D. McLeese, president of the Birmingham Branch, is planning to attend.

Mrs. Dunlop to Address Garden Club About Gardens on Small Lots

Mrs. David Dunlop, of Detroit, will be featured speaker at the Birmingham Branch of the National Farm and Garden Club meeting on Monday afternoon, May 11, at 1:30 o'clock in the Community House. Appearing under the auspices of the J. L. Hudson Company, Mrs. Dunlop will discuss "Gardens on Your Own Lot," and she will illustrate her talk with colored slides of annuals and perennials for a small garden. She is a member of the Horticulture society, the Garden Center, and the Detroit Branch of the National Farm and Garden Club.

Mrs. John C. Kinsel is chariman of the tea committee, and assisting her are Mrs. William McCallum, Mrs. Harry Jay, and Mrs. S. Hanway. Mrs. H. M. Denyes is in charge of arrangements for the tea table at which Mrs. Elmore F. Wollering and Mrs. Durwood B. Gamble will preside.

Musicale to Have Big Luncheon; Moment Musicale Gives Fine Concert

Today is the big day for members of the Birmingham Musicale, for this is the date of their annual luncheon at the Community House. A novel means of presenting annual reports has been thought up by a committee headed by Mrs. H. H. Gardner. Mrs. H. T. Bynum is chairman of arrangements for the luncheon.

Following the luncheon, the Musicale's own chorus under the direction of Gertrude Heinze Greer, will give the following program: "An Die Musik," by Schubert; "Spirit Flower," Campbell-Tipton; "The Lords' Prayer," Malotte; "Lamp in the West," Parker; and "On Wings of Song," Mendelssohn. The Baldwin High School clarinet trio, composed of Jack Mellinger, Robert Marsh, and Frances Blackeridge, is also to give a few numbers.

The Moment Musicale's concert last Friday evening, under the direction of the counsellor, Mrs. Fenton R. Mathews, could be nominated as one of the club's biggest successes of the year. The opening and closing song by the whole group of young people was most impressive. The program showed much progress over last year's work, speaking well for the time and effort these Junior High School aged students have put into their music. The young musicians included Dorothy Adams, Barbara Black, Marilyn Black, Mary Elizabeth Corin, Gloria Fish, Barbara Gans, Edith Kendall, Katherine Kemp, David Goeffler, Martha Penfield, Jean Winters Hank Price, Bob Tyson, Dick Robertson, Ralph Peabody, Jean Kelly, and Robert Morrow. Accompanists were Mrs. A. W. Berndt, Mrs. I. W. Robertson, and Ruth Minks.

Piety Hill, D. A. R., to Have Luncheon at Fox and Hounds

This coming week seems to be the ideal time for annual club luncheons. Another one being planned is by the Piety Hill Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution. The luncheon, which is to be held at the Fox and Hounds Inn next Tuesday, May 12, at one o'clock, will be followed by a business meeting including election of officers for the ensuing year, and reports from all chairmen of standing committees for the past year.

A report will also be given on the Continental Congress, being held in Chicago this week, by Mrs. William H. DeGraff, regent, who represented Piety Hill Chapter at the congress. Members wishing to make reservations for the luncheon will please call Mrs. C. W. Wacker, general chairman of the affair, by Saturday, May 9.

Miss MacDonald Weds Clawson Man At Baptist Church

Marguerite MacDonald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George MacDonald, of Birmingham, and Kenneth Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Anderson, of Clawson, were married at the First Baptist Church, at 1:30 o'clock on Friday afternoon, May 1, with the Rev. J. O. Nelson officiating.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown fashioned on princess lines with a sweetheart neckline. Valenciennes lace was used at the neckline and at the cuffs of the long fitted sleeves, and the same lace formed her poke bonnet which held the long bridal veil in place, and she carried an old fashioned bouquet of white snapdragons and sweet peas.

Bridesmaids — Helen Anderson, sister of the bridegroom and Marion Jones, cousin of the bride, wore blue net and yellow organza, respectively, and carried bouquets of delphinium and sweet peas. The flower girl, Marie Griffin, wore pink organdy.

Mrs. MacDonald wore a dress of navy blue crepe trimmed in white for her daughter's wedding, and the bridegroom's mother chose a gown of blue and white. Both had corsages of yellow daisies and white sweet peas. Keith Anderson, brother of the bridegroom, was best man and the ushers were William Griffin and Dick Anderson, of Detroit.

A small reception for friends of the families was held at the bride's parents home on Henrietta street. For traveling the bride selected a powder blue dress with a matching fitted coat and navy accessories. The couple will make their home at 71 South Roselawn avenue, Pontiac.

Mrs. M. J. Bigler, Art Instructor, To Exhibit Work

An exhibit of paintings by Mrs. Mary Jane Bigler, art instructor of Birmingham junior and senior high schools, will open at the Hill School next Wednesday afternoon, May 13, with a tea from 3 until 4:30 o'clock. The tea will be especially in honor of members of the board of education, mothers, and other teachers. The exhibit will continue through the following Wednesday, May 20.

To introduce her work, Mrs. Bigler will exhibit water colors and oils of landscapes, flowers, and some figures. Some of the paintings were done in Southern Indiana, others, more recently, have been based on local subjects in Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills. Mrs. Bigler has her A. B. Degree from Indiana University, and is now enrolled at Wayne University. She has also studied in art schools at Saugatuck, Chicago Art Institute, Brown County School in Southern Indiana. She has received awards for her work in both water colors and oils.

Mrs. John Hutton and Miss Margaret Widick will pour at the tea and assisting them will be Mrs. Konnersman and Ruth Bowman. Student hostesses will include Dorothy Bickford, Joan Smith, Jo-Anne Herzberg, Betty Edelman, Grace Staples, Phyllis Tweedie, Billie MacDonald, Joan Fox, Jerry Marek, Joy Woolson, and Marjory Johnstone.

Laura Jane Ablett Wed on April 26

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ablett, of 29315 Southfield road, announce the marriage of their daughter, Laura Jane, to Basil Marvin Gray, of River Rouge, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gray, of River Rouge. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's parents on Sunday afternoon, April 26, with the Rev. H. Wallschlaeger, of Berkley, officiating.

Following the ceremony there was an informal reception. Bessie and Albert Ablett, sister and brother of the bride, acted as maid of honor and best man. For her wedding Laura Jane wore an afternoon frock of blue lace and a short white veil held in place by a small wreath of lilies of the valley and pink roses.

The young couple are making their home at Muir Park.
