The week before election A. A. Root had a little Durham cock and designed to improve the gussing abilities of the Franklins. He proclaimed that he would present it to the person gussing the nearest to the majority on election in Oakland county. There were eighty gusses. Ten gusses on Hager and twenty on Mathews. Hager got 10 to 300. Mathews from 10 to 370 not counting one will unapproved prohibitionist who gussed 1200. Chas. S. Murphy of Southfield captured the cock on the night of 28th on Mathews, coming within seven of the true state of affairs. If Charlie always came near the truth as this we would never kick a bit.

We report the following from the Zanesville, Ohio, Daily Courier. The marriage of Mr. Lorenzo Corey, of Stanton, Mich., to Miss Eliza J. Harris took place to-day at 12 o'clock at the residence of David Harris, Esq., of Wheeling, Pa. A. K. Green officiating. There were no guests outside the family except Mr. Herdman and wife. A sumptuous and elegant dinner was served. Mr. and Mrs. Corey left at 5:30 p. m. for a trip east to visit Washington and other cities. Mrs. Corey is a thrifty, enterprising business man and Mrs. Corey has been for many years one of the most successful teachers in our public schools. Many friends will regret that Mrs. Corey's home is not to be in Zanesville. They pair have with them the good wishes and congratulations of a host of friends.

There was a young man from Troy, whose will gave birth to a boy. That he said "Yes, by God!"

The road was laid up for repairs.

The following from the Michigan Christian Advocate which explains itself we gladly publish in order to set things right among the friends of a good man whom we are pleased to respect and for whom many of us have the warmest feelings of friendship.
