HOME NOTES.

THE BRIDE'S PLACE. Dick Cummings of Franklin lost a valuable dog by poisoning last week and is unaccountable, but in order to make life a dreary waste to the fellow who poisoned him, he will give $15 to find out who it was, so he can hit it.

A letter from Joe Rainey (Little Joe) received on Monday last was dated at San Francisco, Cal. states that he is in excellent health and good spirits, as Sullivan knock out Paddy Ryan in their recent fall and has no cause for complaint.

Stephen Whillins, who left this part of the country rather unexpectedly some weeks ago, to the consternation of every merchant in town, is said to be lying at Battle Creek under the euphonious title of Mr. Brown. The Browns ought to be mad about it.

A Thanksgiving boy is something new in this town, and as the Franklin hand boys have decided to give us "something new," let's turn out our "something new" and take the boys justly deserv'd. The evet takes place to-night at the National, King & Dewey filling the music and 75 cents pays the fee.

Several of our young folks took advantage of the festive and special rates on Friday evening last to witness Robson & Crane in their presentation of "The Merry Wives of Windsor" at Detroit on Thanksgiving.

Don't fail to turn out to-night and give the Franklin boys a benefit.

Jim McGregor has got a wild owl, which will eat anything but leather.

Frank Allen has erected a brand new woodshed with a French roof.

Another bizarre case of the last week was the case of the "last week" Miss Macie Bitters of Rochester is visiting her sister, Mrs. Art Blakeslee.

Mrs. Beatrice's house nears completion. Jim does the lathing part in good shape.

Over forty lives were lost in the terrific gale of Thursday last on the great lake.

Postic bachelors won't attend weddings "for fear it will get 'em in the notion."

James Shain and family will take up their abode with Mrs. B. Shain for the balance of the winter.

The probabilities of a new sidewalk on the south side of Townsend-street are very flattering.

"A Boy's Best Friend is His Mother" but girls, Sunday night is not the time to sing on the streets.

E. W. Reynolds of Armada arrived on town on Saturday last for a visit with his son-in-law, Charles Castle.

South Lyon is tickled over a new fire engine. 'Tis said the brand "Trunk railway company" gets it 'em.

A very interesting account of the death of Joseph Linabury at Hope, Idaho is in the last week's Postic Gazette.

See farm for sale in cheap volume. The old Inneson Hall farm is a good location and no better land lies out doors.

There will be services at the Presbyterian church every evening next week. Communion services on the first Sabbath in December.

On Monday last Louis Goodman commenced teaching school near Clare, and will wield the birch for the rest of the winter.

There is some good stove coal for sale, also a good horse to rent, one-half mile east of Birmingham Call on Adams Bros.

If you see the blue cross this week, it means that we want money, MONEY, MONEY! Get all you can to have it and must get it somehow.

The M. C.'s had a surprise party at North McCarty's last Monday night in honor of his son Bert's 21st birthday.

Remember the oyster supper at Albert Todd's in Troy to-night. Nothing like oysters for Thanksgiving, so enjoy your girls, ready boys, and go enjoy your- selves.

The treasurer of the township of Southfield will be at A. A. Rust, in Franklin every Friday during the month of December for the purpose of collecting taxes.

Geo. Tombs has been home sick from Detroit for a week and has put the boys up to all the game, may, deep-laid Vinks of the metropolis. The boys all bought 'em.

WARREN'S PLACE.

Warren took place at the residence of the bride's parents on Tuesday, November 16, a large number of invited guests being present to wish the happy couple all prosperity and joy in their new departure. The ceremony took place 10 o'clock a. m. and after the wedding feast was disposed of the remainder of the day was variously enjoyed until the shades of evening fell.

The publishers of Rutledge's Monthly offer twelve valuable readings for the Monthly for December, among which is the following: "We will give $20.00 to the person telling us which is the longest verse in the New Testament scriptures, foot of the revised edition of the Bible, 10th, 1886. Should two or more correct answers be received, the reward will be divided. The money will be forwarded to the winner December 15, 1886. Persons trying to solve the puzzle must send 20 cents in stamps or postal notes (no postage stamps taken), with their answer, for which they will receive the name and address of the winner of the reward and the correct answer will be published, and in which several more valuable readings will be offered. Address Rutledge Publishing Co., Easton, Penna.

The United States of Rest of Southfield had a business meeting at Chapman's blacksmith shop the other day and accepted of the same day the following special charge brought against the president, James Adams, to the effect that he had been detected doing manual labor. Although the charges were not sustained, the slighting of his his hitherto unblemished character was sufficient to induce him to resign, and the subsequent balloting for the vacancy was extremely dry. Messrs Dunbar, Lockwood, Buttrick, Simmons, and others, with Lockwood slightly in advance, until the rumor gained ground that Lockwood had been husking corn during the past week, he decided the business and Buttrick was finally elected. During the transaction of the business of minor importance which followed, our reporter escaped.

A good story is told of a most estimable citizen of this town who had used persistent efforts to have for a long time the house, her husband protesting that the big coal stove was good for nothing. He was persuasive, tact and steady and continued argument prevailed, until he always did in such cases, and the furnace went in. The first coal day this fall Maria proposed that the new arrangement be tested and John accordingly went down to the house, which she put in the wood, coal, etc., while his wife stationed herself near a register and anxiously awaited results. Suddenly a gleam of satisfaction beamed in the corners of his classic mouth. "Hah! I haven't built the fire in it yet, Maria," and he had it.

It rather surprised the good folks of Franklin, Southfield and North Farmington, to see the mail come on Friday Monday last. It only means that the contractor, Mr. Leet, is going to carry it according to his contract with the government. He is not to be carrying it to the satisfaction of every one concerned, because some smarter than the average, in the office of the 24 assistant postmaster general, proposed that it should be carried by the electric.

By the result of the patrons of the office named being served with their mail every day, but the carrier being obliged to leave according to the schedule cannot wait until the train arrives at 7.35 and consequently leaves at 7 a. m. This makes every body's mail one day late, but the department of the post office has got the matter to have to submit. Mr. Leet has given every satisfaction to everyone during his term of service and only performs the service in the most perfect manner against his wishes and he is to be congratulated if he is done or you'll get no pay" and it is compelled by arbitrary rules to do so.

The present manner of doing the business of the post office has been in force of three times a week. We don't wonder that the people of the office affected are kicking, but we hope they won't. As a matter of fact, he is entirely faultless in the matter.

Oakland county purchasers of Bohemian oats may be interested in the following Rochester, N. Y., special to the Detroit Free Press, Nov. 11. "A curious case of speculation has been known to light here by the arrival in the city of W. H. Clark, a wealthy farmer of Groveland, Mich. Clark, it appears, had purchased at that rate price a large grain speculation two years ago, buying a large quantity of oats of an agent of a concern calling itself the Bohemian Oat and Cornel company, located in Rochester, N. Y. Clark had paid for the oats at $10 per bushel, and gave Clark a bond that the company would this year sell at his double the amount he purchased at that rate price per bushel. About a month ago an agent against good sold the double

ROYAL OAK REBUILDING.

A new fence and new steps greatly improve the looks of our town hall. Mr. N. E. Springsteen has just completed a new horse barn. It has a course of brick foundation which will make it nice and warm for the winter stock. H. J. Kenney has a fine barn just finished of which we are just proud.

Some of the ladies of this place attended the semi-annual meeting of the W. M. A. at South Lyon last week. Mrs. C. Fay will spend the winter in New York state.

Mr. Will Barham of Sand Beach, formerly Royal Oak boy, visited his many friends here last week. Oyster supper at the town hall last Friday night for the benefit of the Congregational church. The matter will be James McKibbin, Jr., was in town last week.

We impatiently wait for the drama "Above the Clouds"—yours truly (L.Orecock).

Mr. John Stott has purchased Dr. Campbell's place. Consideration, $5,000. Mrs. Stott is visiting relatives at White Lake.

HERE AND THERE. Waterports occur almost daily of Key West.

The other season proved to be very successful. The owner had been born June 2, 1846, in Troy, Oakland county, Mich., and died at Clawson, N. Y., November 13, 1886, in the 41st year of his age. Her funeral was held on the 14th inst. at the U. P. church in Royal Oak, the Rev. Mr. Ward officiating. Her relatives and friends attending her funeral were the wife of A. B. Bean, whose maiden name was Elizabeth A. McDowell, oldest child of Peter McDowell, was born June 2, 1846, in Troy, Oakland county, Mich., and died at Clawson, N.
