State Senator said Calvin B. Crosby will offer an amendment to the election laws at the coming legislative session, based on the New York law. He proposes a series of inspectors and ballot boxes at each polling place. The set of inspectors would receive the votes and the other count them. The first set of inspectors would be in the morning, and they would be turned over to the counting inspectors. At 2 o'clock the boxes would again be changed, and the votes would be taken in the afternoon.

Probably the last pick in existence on the Confederate States of America is owned by J. S. Caldwell of Dallas, Texas. It is an interesting relic of the war, and a check for $100,000 was offered on the Confederate States depositary at Columbus by W. M. Gilie, postmaster there, in favor of C. Caldwell.
