Women's Club to Hear Art Lecture on Cities of Central American Countries

Village Variety

Next Wednesday evening the committee in charge of the coming USO Benefit Party, which is being sponsored by Birmingham's young married couples, is meeting at Mrs. John L. Shepherd's home. They're to discuss plans for the big event—plans that include having service men from the USO attend the forthcoming party, and also of lining up a group of "duration widows" as hostesses.

This party, you'll remember, is to be held on Nov. 14 at the Birmingham Golf Club, and is causing quite a stir amongst Birmingham's younger crowd. The committee warns that there will be accommodations for only 150 couples and that tickets are going fast. Attending the committee meeting next week will be Mrs. John R. Hutton, Ruth Porritt, Mrs. William L. Martin, Mrs. Marc J. Parsons, Mrs. Thomas Stolberg, Mrs. William H. Burgum, Mrs. Thomas J. Usher, and Mrs. John Hammond.

EASTERN TRIPS

Trips to the Eastern Coast seem to be most popular with Birmingham-folk this week. Mrs. Richard H. Kalbfus is leaving Friday for Troy, N. Y., where she will spend some time with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Bogart. She then plans to go up to Smith College to visit her daughter, Virginia, a student there. Incidentally, Virginia is going over to Dartmouth this weekend to be the guest of Bill Merrill at a Phi Psi house party.

Mrs. Karl B. Lutz left on Monday for New York City where she will meet her husband. They plan to stay there about a week. Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Etter (Kabby Walton) returned last Thursday from a ten-day trip in the East. They spent some time with Kabby's parents, Capt. and Mrs. Thomas R. Walton, at Hempstead, N. Y., and for the remainder of their vacation, they were in New York City.

Doris Otter is in Charlottesville, Va., this week as the guest of Mrs. Robert L. Graham, mother of her fiance, Capt. Robert Lee Graham, Jr. On Friday evening, Capt. Graham and Doris are giving a party in Washington, D. C., for Doris' sister, Phoebe, who is coming up from Sarah Lawrence College for the event. Capt. Graham is stationed in Washington.

CALIFORNIA BOUND

Despite the 35 mile limit, Lorraine Stanley, and Mrs. Kathryn Burtnett, will leave early Monday morning by motor for California. Mrs. Burtnett has been making her home with her brother-in-law and sister, the R. V. Lawrences of Pine Lake, for the past year. Going with them are Mrs. Lionel Roberts and Kay Stickel, both of Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. McGinnis are planning to attend the Navy-Notre Dame game at Cleveland this weekend. They will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Dore, of Shaker Heights.

MILITARY NATURE

Now for news of a military nature—Mrs. Fred D. Farrar left last week for a month's stay with her husband, Major Farrar, at Bolling Field, D. C. Mrs. Norman Clark left yesterday for St. Louis, Mo., where she is to join her husband, Sgt. Clark, who is stationed at Jefferson Barracks. Mrs. Clark is the former Barbara Pratt.

Lt. James Lowman is home this week on a ten day furlough. He received his second lieutenant's commission last Saturday at Fort Knox, Ky., and his mother, Mrs. Maurice Lowman, and sister, Mrs. Gordon Chamberlain, were on hand to pin on his bars. After his furlough he will return to Fort Knox for further training.

HALLOWEEN PARTY

Halloween will be royally celebrated on Saturday night by the Herbert K. Poppletons, who are entertaining eight guests at a buffet supper in their apartment, to be followed by a hay ride in the hills. Guests for the evening will be Mr. and Mrs. Harry MacDonald, Mr. and Mrs. George Tryon Gorman, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mellen, Jean McKinney, Art Miller, Catherine Haefner and Jack Gay.

Cranbrook Plans 'Victory Formal' For November 14

Big plans are afoot out at Cranbrook for the "Fall Victory Formal," first formal of the year, which will be an event of Saturday evening, Nov. 14. In keeping with the title they've given the party, the committee has decided that guests shall be given war stamp corsages, rather than flowers.

Music will be furnished by Hal Bridgh and his orchestra. Chaperons for the evening are to include Dr. and Mrs. Rudolph D. Lindquist, Mr. and Mrs. Harry D. Hoey and Mr. and Mrs. Vernon B. Kellett.

Tickets may be procured now from any of the dance committee members, who are John Brehm, chairman, John Dieterle, Wendy Holzworth, John Larsen and Ed Lobdell.

GIRL SCOUTS

Oct. 29, 1942.

Attention, Girl Scouts:

This is Girl Scout Week, the week when all Girl Scouts, 750,000 of them, celebrate the birthday of the founder, Juliette Low. Today, Thursday, is the day chosen to be international friendship day. In a time of war the thought of international friendship may seem out of place; however, if you look behind the scenes in the Eccentric you will find an explanation of what Girl Scouts have in mind to do about international friendship.

The Mariners, in addition to collecting grease for the Victory Fund, are busy sewing, painting and pasting, working on gifts to be for sale on the last Saturday before Thanksgiving. The profits from this sale are to go to the Victory Fund. With all this activity they are not forgetting the cookie sale which is keeping all Scouts busy this week.

Troop 2, Adams School, has had election of officers. Their four patrol leaders are Carol Harding, Elizabeth Henshaw, Judy Tucker, and Marilyn Staley. The assistant patrol leaders are Nancy Cheney, Marilyn McLaren, Janet Steele, and Patty Quarnaby.

The Brownies "flew up" to troop 2 from the Adams Brownie Troop 16 at the last meeting, Oct. 22. The Brownies were Betsy Chatay and Jean Sanderson. They had a Halloween Party Monday, Oct. 26. The Committees did splendidly. Those serving were decorations, Joanne Tait, and Joyce Beggs; and program, Jane Kohr, Marcia Loomis, and Martha Merriam. Last week they finished their leaf planes.

Troop 5, at Barnum School, reports that they also have had election of officers. They are as follows: president, Patricia Hemphill; vice-president, Marilyn Johnstone; secretary, Marie Lou Johns; patrol leaders, Abby Grant-Watters, Sara Ragatz, and Betty Schaaf; and scribe, Joan Toothacker.

Last week Troop 6 at Adams hiked to the Girl Scout Cabin and enjoyed a "cook out." This week the following girls were selected to office: scribe, Patricia Page; treasurer, Patricia Mullen; patrol leaders, Patricia Underhill, Judy Parks, and Pat Bell; assistant patrol leaders, Lois Steel, Nancy Fisher, and Nancy Sweeney.

Mrs. M. L. Heath to be Speaker at Meeting on Tuesday, Nov. 3

Mrs. Marion Leland Heath, for the past 12 years a member of the curatorial staff of the Detroit Institute of Arts, will be guest speaker next Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 3, at the general meeting of the Birmingham Women's Club at the Baldwin Public Library. The club's art department is sponsoring the meeting, and Mrs. Forbes S. Hascall, chairman of the day, will introduce the speaker.

A former Birmingham resident, Mrs. Heath spent much of her childhood here and attended Baldwin High School. Her family moved to Detroit about 20 years ago. Mrs. Heath studied at Wellesley College, was graduated from the University of Michigan in 1927, and later did post graduate work at both Columbia University and the University of Wisconsin.

During the summer of 1940, the speaker was granted a leave by the museum to do research in Guatamala and Mexico. In her lecture on Tuesday she will discuss, "Cities of Central America" and will show colored slides and motion pictures taken in those countries. She will also exhibit samples of modern weaving and costumes made by Indians of today.

Mrs. Floyd Franklin is in charge of the tea, which will be served following the program. Assisting her will be Mrs. E. H. P. Elliott, Mrs. F. E. Hughes, and Mrs. J. E. Stroup. Mrs. William O. Merrill, chairman of the art department, will pour.

Mrs. H. A. Barber to Show Slides At Hills Garden Club Meeting Monday

Members of the Bloomfield Branch of the National Farm and Garden Club will meet next Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock in Christ Church Cranbrook. Mrs. H. A. Barber, featured speaker of the day, will show and comment on her series of colored slides entitled "Michigan Gardens Through the Seasons."

Samples of the Christmas garlands made each year by farm women of surrounding communities will also be on display, Mrs. William Purves, chairman of the project, will take orders for them. In former years these garlands have always been sold during the holiday season in downtown Detroit.

Tea will be served following the meeting and Mrs. Carl Flintermann and Mrs. G. W. J. Linton will preside at the tea table.

Presbyterian Women's Division Will Meet For Luncheons, Business, Sewing

The eight divisions of the Women's Union of the First Presbyterian Church are meeting at luncheons next Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 4, for sewing and business sessions. Mrs. George B. Bogtwell, of Lakeview avenue, will be hostess to division one; Mrs. C. V. Ball, of East Maple avenue, will entertain division two; members of division three will meet with Mrs. William C. Howe at her home on Tilbury road; and Mrs. Melvin Dorr, of Riverside drive, will host division four.

Mrs. Robert Cinesus, of East Maple avenue, will be hostess to division five; Mrs. Stuart Allen, of Harmon avenue division six; Mrs. H. Torrence, Glenwood avenue, Lathrop Townsite, division seven; and Mrs. William Hughes, of Norwich road, Pleasant Ridge, division eight.

Methodist Women Attend District Meeting; Will Hold Executive Session on Nov. 4

Members of the Women's Society of Christian Service, First Methodist Church, will attend a district meeting at the Metropolitan Methodist Church in Detroit on Friday, Nov. 6. The sessions will begin at 10 a.m. and continue through the afternoon. Reservations for luncheon must be made with Mrs. Clarence P. Dorey, 1670-E by Monday, Nov. 2.

Next Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 4, at 1:30 o'clock, there will be an executive meeting of the local society at the home of Mrs. Dodhart L. Tate, 900 Westchester. Following the business meeting, a study session will be held under the direction of Mrs. Everett Allen. All ladies of the church are invited to attend this study period which will begin at 1 o'clock.

SOCIAL BRIEFS

MRS. MARVIN C. KIRN, of Puritan road, has as her guests this week three aunts. Mrs. A. C. Barr and Mrs. H. F. Hedges, both of Cleveland Heights, and Mrs. David Herr, of Springfield, Ohio. They arrived on Tuesday and are leaving tomorrow. On Wednesday Mrs. Kirn and her guests went over to Ann Arbor to have luncheon with freshman Nancy Kirn and her roommate, Jackie Vandenberg, of Chicago. Today Mrs. F. H.
