Bloomfield Village Election Called

The annual meeting of the Bloomfield Village Protective Association will be held in the Bloomfield Village school next Monday evening, April 26, at 8 p.m. More than 150 members and residents of the village are expected to attend.

Among the features of the program will be the "launching" of the new fire truck and equipment which will be permanently stationed in the village and operated by the volunteer firemen of the local OCD unit. Residents will also hear how, after nearly a year of work on the part of the village board, substantial savings in fire insurance are assured the area.

Four new directors to the board of trustees are to be elected. Candidates are:

For full three-year term (three to be elected)—Harry G. Corbet, 480 Woodale; Mrs. Howard Green, 555 Hupp Cross road; Walter Kleinert, 454 Yarmouth road; J.R. Mosby, 485 Westwood drive; Mrs. John K. Ormond, 627 Waddington road, and R. K. Vinton, 950 Waddington road. For one-year term (one to be elected)—Robert F. G. Copeland, 516 Hupp Cross road, and Jasper Reid, 412 Glengary road.

Present officers include Elmer Sylvester, president; Paul N. Averill, vice-president; William C. Howe, treasurer, and Lee E. Joslyn, secretary.

Bruce Booth Raised To Lieut. Colonel

The commandant of infantry school, Fort Benning, Ga., has announced the promotion of Major Bruce G. Booth, infantry, to the grade of lieutenant colonel.

Col. Booth is a member of the tactical section of the infantry school. During World War I he served in the A. E. F., and since then he has been active in the Officers Reserve Corps. After serving on the staff of the Commanding General, Sixth Corps Area, Chicago, Col. Booth was ordered to Camp Croft, S. C., and from there to the battalion commanders' course at the infantry school. Upon graduation from that course, he was appointed to the faculty of the infantry school.

In civilian life, Col. Booth was an attorney on the legal staff of General Motors Corp. at Detroit.

Mrs. Booth and their three children have left their home on Amberly road, and are living at Fort Benning with Col. Booth. Peggy Booth attended Kingswood School, and Dick was a pupil at Brookside School.

HOUSEKEEPER SEEKS $2,720

A suit has been filed in Circuit Court on behalf of Catherine D. Chelton, who alleges that Arthur F. Ritter, of Birmingham, owes her $2,720 for her services as housekeeper. She said she worked from Jan. 1, 1935, to March 22, 1943, and that a balance is due. Mr. Ritter's side of the question has not been filed with the County Clerk.

ATTRACTS PHEASANTS

Verne G. Woodbury, Laingsburg farmer, has found a simple and practical way to prevent crop damage by pheasants in the spring. He has advised the conservation department that ear corn, broken and scattered along the grass border of fields planted to corn will divert the pheasants' attention until the planted corn is past the pulling stage.
