Story of a Hotel Clerk.
 Town Topical in the New York World: "The following story was vouchsafed by the urbane and gentlemanly clerk of an uptown hotel. A country guest on a certain uptown history having as a dread of pickpockets and hand-stealers, went to the clerk and handed him a $100 bill to be put in his pocket. Asking for it next day he was thunderstruck when the functionary told him it was not his bill. He was coolly denied any recollection of the matter. Whereupon the guest produced the bill to a lawyer. "Get another $100 bill," said the lawyer, and go, accompanied by a friend, back to the hotel. Apologize to the clerk for your mistake; say it was a defect of memory, attributable to the drink of the evening; deposit the second $100 bill in the presence of your lawyer, and come back to me." The mystified realist obeyed instructions to the very letter. "Now," said the lawyer, "go back alone to the clerk and ask him for the $100." Knowing that the previous demand was him receive it, he went back the second $100 bill. Then take your friend with you and go to the clerk. Ask him boldly for that one hundred dollars, and when he says, no, use your two days' rest of that newly arrived daughter. J. H. Campbell has moved the Am. Herald from south of the city. Dr. Mason Gray has moved into the new residence on Andrews street.

CLAWSON CULLINGS.
 The Most brothers want to sell their farm. Meads Hendrickson and Phillips have each owned a hog house. Frank Phelps and wife have gone to Case City on a visit. Mrs. Coofor has been very sick with inflammation of the stomach, caused by taking cold. She is still slightly better.

PONTIAC PICKINGS.
 Mrs. Frank Wladiale presented her husband with an 8-pounder on Monday last. S. W. Sutherland of Oxford was in town one day last week. A. Partridge of Birmingham was in town last week. The art loan exhibition at the Congregational church last week was a success. Fred Cusick died last week. Mel Sny of Franklin was in town one day last week buying Christmas presents for that newly arrived daughter. J. H. Campbell has moved the Am. Herald from south of the city. Dr. Mason Gray has moved into the new residence on Andrews street.

 "I don't know, father," says I, "I never have done it."
 "Well, my boy, if you will do it this morning, I'll give you a bright silver dollar," said my father, patting me on my head, while he held the silver dollar in his hand.
 "Good," says I, "I'll try, and then I went to work. I dug and poked and lifted and dug and poked and dug, and father gave me the bright silver dollar, saying:
 "That's right, Ulysses, you did it splendidly, and now I'll give you do so now, I shall have you do every morning all winter."
