Mrs. John Ormond To Speak Before R.O. Women's Club

Mrs. John K. Ormond, chairman of the "Government and Its Operation" panel of the Birmingham League of Women Voters, is to speak to the Royal Oak Republican Women's Club on the subject of important current legislation before Congress, at 2:30 p. m. on Friday, Nov. 19.

The three main legislations that Mrs. Ormond will speak on will be: The Repeal of the Chinese Exclusion Act, which has passed the House and is now before the Senate; the Anti-Poll Tax Bill, which has also passed in the House and is now before the Senate; and the Anti-Subsidy Bill, now before the House. Other legislative measures will also be discussed.

This is one of a series of talks to be made by representatives of the League of Women Voters, in line with their policy of helping to create a better informed citizenry. The league is striving to have the electorate not only informed but actively participating in the government through letters and communications.

The Thanksgiving Day edition of the Eccentric will appear on Wednesday, the 24th. Will all organizations having material to appear in this issue make sure that it is in our hands no later than NOON ON MONDAY.

All advertising matter should be prepared earlier as well.

Jones was attempting to find his way home during a blackout. He lighted a match for better observation as he picked his path through the gloom. Curiously enough he saw another bewildered also approaching with a lighted match in his hand.

"Rather murky, eh?" cheerfully volunteered Jones. Meeting with no reply, Jones answered himself with a crisp, "It certainly is!" and thereupon walked smack into a plate glass window.

Baldwin High School

Over 300 parents attended the open house held at Baldwin, Nov. 10. Ninety-six members joined the P.-T. A. bringing the membership to 265 so far this year. After the program and the ten minute classes, everyone enjoyed a social hour, at which time refreshments were served. Both parents and teachers considered it a very worthwhile evening.

Holy Name School

The Holy Name P.-T. A. whose membership has increased to 103 this year held its first meeting Monday evening in the school hall. It was decided that they would present the school with a new flag.

In January the P.-T. A. will sponsor an athletic banquet, in the alumnae house, which will honor members of the football and basketball teams. Mrs. Edwin T. Dowd will serve as Chairman of the Girl Scout Committee.

Refreshments were served after the business meeting and the rest of the evening was spent playing bridge.

Barnum School

The November meeting of the Barnum P.-T. A. will be Thursday, Nov. 18 at 7:45. The parents and guests will assemble in the gymnasium for a short business meeting.

Dr. Dwight B. Ireland, who will be introduced by Dick Austin, President of the Student Council, will give a short welcoming address.

Parents will be directed by members of the student council to the respective classes of their children, meet the teacher and have an opportunity to ask questions concerning the school's program. They will follow a schedule and meet with each class for 10 minutes.

The Birmingham P.-T. A. Council meeting will be held Monday night at 8 p.m., Nov. 22, in room 101 Baldwin High School. Arrangements have been made for a program on "Youth Guidance In Our Schools."

Catharine Houseal to Have "Splash Party"

Catharine Houseal, who is celebrating her 13th birthday, will be hostess at a luncheon and "splash party" at the Woman's City Club, on Saturday this week.

Those who will join in the fun are Betty Hooper, Marjorie Smith, Viva Jean Steger, Ann Drake, Jean Craig, Helen and Grace Mack, Phyllis Keenan and Ann Sauer.

Hush Money

"What is your baby going to be when he grows up."

"A blackmailer, I'm afraid."

"Why, what makes you say that?"

"Well, we have to give him something every little while to keep him quiet."
