Commencement Speaker

Dr. David D. Henry

Dr. David D. Henry, executive vice-president of Wayne University, Detroit, and member of the board of trustees of Cranbrook Institute of Science, is coming to Birmingham for the evening of Jan. 25, as the speaker at the commencement exercises of the mid-year graduating class of Baldwin high school.

Dr. Henry was educated in Pennsylvania State college, receiving his Ph.D. degree there in 1931. He was on the faculty of that college four years prior to 1929 and then was professor of English and director, School of Liberal Arts, Battle Creek college, until 1933. For the next two years he was assistant state superintendent of public instruction of Michigan and then went to Wayne University.

At present Dr. Henry is vice-president of the American Association of Urban Universities and on the executive board of a number of Detroit civic and educational groups and clubs, planning committees, and is a consultant for The Nation's Schools.

Spanish Class Dinner Wednesday Evening Charlotte Mills Home

"Buenas noches, amigo mio" was the greeting exchanged last night at a Spanish dinner given by the second hour Spanish class in the south-of-the-border atmosphere of Charlotte Mills' recreation room.

The menu, in true Spanish style, consisted of arroz con pollo chicken and rice), salad, rolls, and cafe.

The committee handling the food was Mary Frahm, Shirley Eilola, Barbara Brenkert, Carolyn Wells, and Cynthia Heideman. Mrs. Julio Andrade directed the preparation of the food.

During the dinner the students spoke Spanish—sponsors, Miss Gerde Hansen and Miss Carol Metzger, language instructors, had promised beforehand not to correct the students, thus providing fun and gaiety for all.

Others were Ronald Chapman, Marilyn Norton, Nancy Ball, Shirley Eilola, Cynthia Heideman, Juanita Pearson, Carolyn Wells, Barbara Brenkert, Nancy Burns, Mary Quinn, Barbara Forster, Eleanor Ellis, Marilyn Harris, Junann Partridge, Carol Grant, Harriet Thompson, Dorothy Atkinson, and Bruce Robb.

Maples Will Battle Mt. Clemens, Jan. 19

By BOB LITTLE

The Baldwin cagers will travel to Mt. Clemens tomorrow night to resume an athletic acquaintanship which has been dormant for the past several years.

Birmingham will play Mt. Clemens two games this year, these encounters serving as an introduction for next year's league encounters as Mt. Clemens will be one of the main contenders in the new league with which the Maples will be affiliated.

The Mt. Clemens record to date is no more impressive than Birmingham's, with four losses and one win. One of the defeats was suffered at the hands of Royal Oak to the tune of 35-31.

The Bathers will meet the Maples with a team containing ten letter men, three of them playing regular last year.

With a little better luck on their shots the Maples should make a good showing at Mt. Clemens tomorrow night at eight o'clock.

Highland Park Junior College Adds Courses

On Feb. 1 Highland Park Junior College will begin the second semester of its 27th year. Registration for new classes will take place at the college Jan. 29, 30, 31.

Courses in aviation, secretarial training, laboratory techniques, art, music, dietetics, and homemaking will be offered in addition to the courses in liberal arts and the pre-professional courses regularly given by the college. Beginning courses will be arranged for entering freshmen.

High School Grads To Enter MSC Feb. 5

All high school principals in Michigan have been notified by Robert S. Linton, Michigan State college registrar, that the college will admit on Feb. 5 students who have graduated from high school in mid-year. This policy is being followed because of the drafting of 18-year-old boys, many of whom wish to get as much training as possible before entering the service.

Students who enroll then will be permitted to take nine credits of work between Feb. 5 and March 17, when the regular spring quarter begins. They will meet for double periods for each class. If they continue with a full schedule during the spring and summer terms they should be able to attain sophomore rating by the opening of the fall quarter in September, 1945, according to Mr. Linton.

Senior Open House To Be On Sunday

Commencement week activities begin with an open house at the Community House Jan. 21 from 3 to 5 o'clock by the parents of the graduating class in honor of the graduates, faculty, and board of education.

Mrs. G. W. Phister is general chairman; Mrs. H. N. Landis and Mrs. D. B. Lerkins, invitations, and Mrs. W. L. Kemp has secured Mrs. E. W. Schase, harpist from Detroit, for entertainment.

Mrs. C. O. Wadell, Mrs. T. D. Green, and Mrs. H. L. Johnson are handling the refreshments. On the financial committee are Mr. David Lavinson and Mrs. G. W. Phister. Taking care of decorations are Mrs. W. T. Daeschner and Mrs. F. J. Watkins.
