Presbyterian Church School Family Night

The Junior Department Sunday school of the First Presbyterian church will be entertained at a family night Sunday evening, Oct. 28. Light refreshments will be served at 6 o'clock followed by a program.

This evening is planned in an attempt to get parents, teachers and the young people better acquainted. Y. C. Smith is superintendent of the department.

The teachers planning the affair are Mrs. Lester Stinson, Jane Wooton, Mrs. Ralph I. Coryell, Bronson Brant, William Morrissey, William Howting, and Alex Gray.

JR. League Musicale Enjoys Full Program

Last Saturday evening the Junior League Musicale had a hayride and following it the members were entertained at the home of Phyllis Boyes on Frank street. On Monday evening the group met at the home of Ralph Dunbar, Pleasant street, at which time auditions were heard.

Next Monday evening Mrs. John Abbott will take the group to the Birmingham theatre to see "A Song to Remember."

League Of Women Voters Turning Attention To Labor And Management

At the well-attended afternoon session of the October 15 open meeting of the League of Women Voters at the Community House, devoted to inquiry into the labor situation, Dr. Harrison B. Fagan, professor of economics at Wayne University, spoke on the present management-labor difficulties. Dr. Fagan presented Labor's side of the argument.

Management's side will be represented soon, possibly at the next meeting, in fairness to the problem, according to Mrs. F. G. Garrison, program chairman, since the League, an unbiased organization, seeks to inform itself objectively on all points of view.

Dr. Fagan, whose remarks provoked great interest, often disagreement and many questions from his listeners, has had industrial experience as a laborer abroad and in this country all the way from Mexico right to the nearby Excello plant.

During the morning Mrs. John May traced the history of labor unions from the shoemakers union in 1792 to the present. Mrs. Brooks Marshall gave a resume of labor legislation since 1935 when the Wagner Act gave employees the legal right to bargain collectively. Mrs. S. J. Duncan traced conciliation methods through arbitrary boards in Australia which thus settles two-thirds of its strikes. Mrs. Peter Loomis, chairman, pointed out that the League has taken a stand on labor only on the state level and only there in child legislation.

Mount Clemens League Board members were guests in the afternoon to hear Dr. Fagan.

Mrs. Frank Haskins, state president, and Mrs. Walter Kull, state chairman of structure and administration of government will be guest speakers at the November meeting, according to program chairman, Mrs. F. G. Garrison.

The local League has been notified that Miss Anna Lord Strauss, national president, was named by President Truman as a member of the U. S. delegation to the United Nations Food and Agriculture organization conference which opened in Quebec Oct. 16.

Social calendars will be available for sale at the November meeting.

November 2, Judge Florence Allen will speak at the Rackham building in Detroit on the "Bridge to the Future." Tickets are available to those interested. Telephone Mrs. H. J. Liverance. Judge Allen will be sponsored by the Intergroup Council, of which the League is a member, as a part of its Institute.

League members enjoyed a relaxing hour between Monday's two sessions while they ate their sandwiches, chatted and enjoyed the coffee served by Mrs. A. S. McPike and members of her social committee.

Club Notes

The League of Women Voters Study group on county government will meet Tuesday, Oct. 23, at 2 p. m. in the Municipal Building. Everyone interested is invited to attend.

The Birmingham Woman's Club was well represented at the Adult Education Day Detroit Federation last Thursday. Among those attending were Mrs. C. F. Butters, Mrs. R. W. Bricker, Mrs. H. T. Ellerby, Mrs. William O. Merrill, Mrs. A. S. Pope, Mrs. E. G. Potter and Mrs. Charles J. Shain.

The League of Women Voters International Relations Committee will meet Thursday, Oct. 25, at one o'clock at the home of Mrs. R. S. Plexico, 4204 Arlington. Everyone interested is invited to attend.

The Philemon club is to hold its meeting of Tuesday, Oct. 23, with Mrs. Charles L. Richards, of 1569 Pierce street, with a luncheon at 1 o'clock. An afternoon of sewing is planned.

THEATER MANAGER BACK

Miss Eleanore B. Stanton, for the past two years manager of the Fisher theater in Detroit, last week returned to her former post at the local Bloomfield theater, which she had held for one year. She was the first woman appointed by the United Detroit theaters to such a post after Pearl Harbor. "I am happy to be back at the Bloomfield," stated Miss Stanton, "to renew the many friendships I made while I was here." The former manager of the Fisher has been discharged from the armed forces, and is back on his old job. "When I was given preference for another theater, I chose the Bloomfield."
