WALNUT LAKE SCHOOL NEWSLETTER

Dear Pam:

The graduation exercises went off quite well Tuesday night considering how nervous all of the students were. Barbara Thorne was valedictorian with an all-A average. Jack Wallace was salutatorian and class president.

Dr. Ireland gave us a preview of our work in high school. We're sure that after his speech no one had any doubts as what to expect for the next four years.

Wednesday the upper room went into Barnum Junior High school to get acquainted with plan of classes and school. Miss Brulsie, the girls' counselor, and Mr. Tindall, the boys' counselor, took us on a tour of the school. We met some of the teachers and dropped in on a few classes.

Although the weather wasn't exactly agreeable Thursday, our school picnic took place. Since the school picnic is a community affair, there were people of all ages filling the gym and themselves on the delicious picnic menu.

So many people have wondered just who "Pam" is that we'd like to explain that her full name is Pamella Smith. She's fifteen years old and attends Cooley High school. She lives at 26509 West Ten Mile road where she spends most of her time with two hobbies, her horse and the piano.

This will end our weekly Walnut Lake Newsletter and we only hope you've enjoyed it as much as we have. It's been fun as well as interesting.

I'll be seeing you.

Barb.

The trolly coach, street car and bus industry paid employees more than $632,000,000 in wages last year, an average of $2,612 per employee—an increase of 5.5 per cent over 1944 and the highest wage scale in transit history.

Her Congressman

This is a sample of the way women voters feel about Rep. John Kunkel (R) of Pennsylvania, a banker, farmer, and bachelor. That's Miss Betty Wood of Harrisburg bestowing the kiss, one of a group of nearly 1000 women who "dropped in for lunch" on Kunkel's invitation, extended to women voters who rallied to his support back in 1938. Kunkel tried to call on two dozen colleagues for help as hosts.
