To Exhibit Work

An exhibition of paintings by Lois Luce of North Woodward avenue will have its opening on Monday from 4:00 until 7:00 o'clock at 331 North Woodward and will run through Dec. 11.

Mrs. Luce has formerly had shows in Detroit and last January presented an exhibition here in Birmingham.

'Don't Charge Us for Water Mains,' Residents Demand

Although property owners spent two hours and twelve minutes Monday evening trying to convince the city commission it was not necessary to install 8-inch water mains on portions of Northlawn and Southlawn, commissioners nevertheless decided the "necessity" of the project and sent it to the engineering department for detailed plans.

Arguments centered about the city's proposed installation of 6- and 8-inch mains in Crestview subdivision. Certain properties are presently served by a 4-inch water main at the rear of the lots, while many other lots, particularly on the east side of Maryland blvd. between Lincoln and 14 Mile, are without water facilities.

Assessments Questioned

The City had proposed to install a new 6-inch main down Maryland, charging project costs to both sides of the street. But property owners were strong in their protests against this plan.

"We on the west side of the street already have water and fire protection," declared R. W. LeMoyne, 1380 Maryland. "Why, then, should we be asked to pay for part of a water main that will serve the opposite side?"

Others also argued that they should not be assessed for the mains.

Mayor Milton F. Mallender explained that much of the discussion could be reserved for subsequent hearings when the commission would be asked to approve, modify or reject the assessment roll.

Harrison Company Purchases Local Furniture Store

The Harrison Floor Covering company of Grosse Pointe and Detroit has purchased Quinn's, a home furnishings store at 777 Bowers and Hunter. Quinn's will be operated as Harrison's third outlet for fine floor coverings and draperies.

"Harrison's have built an enviable reputation in Grosse Pointe and Detroit by their personal supervision of each floor covering installation and their insistence on complete customer satisfaction, Harrison stated. "In our organization are specialists who will plan a carpeting installation for the greatest economy, and who will assist in the selection of the carpeting most suitable to the customer's particular requirements and budget. Only the best and most modern methods of matching patterns, sewing, binding and pressing are used by these men who have laid carpeting for years and know every detail of their job to perfection.

More Discriminating

"Customers interested in floor coverings have become more discriminating, styleminded and value-conscious than ever before", said Harrison. "Their knowledge and awareness of style and values is a challenge to the industry to promote only merchandise that is carefully selected. Every carpet we show has been purchased from one of the nation's leading mills of manufacturers. It must be a leader in its field. It must be an outstanding value. We must be proud to sell it and glad to stand back of it."

The Birmingham store will be managed by Edward P. Jones of Romeo, a former resident here. Prior to the war Jones was manager in the home furnishings department of Crowley-Milner in Detroit, and has an excellent background in the home furnishings field as well as being an expert on fine interiors.

To facilitate perfect matching of draperies and floor coverings, the new Harrison store will carry a complete line of very fine drapery materials. Here a customer will be able to see drapery fabrics and carpeting together and thus compare texture, tone, pattern and color of both at one time.

In addition to carpeting, rugs and draperies, the Birmingham store will carry complete lines of inlaid linoleum, asphalt tile, and linoleum floor tile, and Veos Porcelain Wall Tile. Since the Harrison company does not include furniture, lamps, etc., in their regular stocks, all such items are being sold out in a clearance sale.

We Heard It Said By:

Fred A. Wilson of Lathrup Village, Southfield Township: "I have just mailed a $500 check to the Greater Detroit Community Chest in Detroit. Incidentally, I have never been solicited here in Southfield township, although I have made the same contribution each and every year. Is there any way in subsequent drives that this situation can be eliminated, and solicitors sent out here? I presume there are many others in the township who would contribute if contacted."

THE NEWEST BOOKS ARE HERE,
together with the older, but ever new classics (some with fine leather bindings). Children's books, too. Beautiful new ones which can be chosen to delight the youngsters of any age level. May we mention a few—especially the Anderson Portfolio of Horse Pictures, fitting in all ways for this area.

EXQUISITE GIFTS IN THE AMERICAN TRADITION
Copies of the famous Calder Collection at the Chicago Museum. Porringers small, used as ash trays at $1.25, used with a larger one selling at $2.00, which is used as a nut or candy dish, make a very acceptable gift for only $4.50 A large scalloped dish selling for $8.50 can be used as a cold meat dish or for molded salad or canapes or sandwiches. Also, there are four very small porringers in a set which can be used as individual salt dishes at $3.95 the set.

SILVER — ANTIQUE — MODERN
It has been a pleasure to collect odd pieces in silver for choosing of those unusual gifts for hard-to-suit people. Our selection ranges from small pieces at a moderate price, to English Tea Sets and Trays that date back to the years around 1860. If you have read this far, we also would like to call your attention to the fact that we have many pieces from the Georg Jensen collection in our department. And if we may say it, they are beautiful.

CRANE'S AND ETON'S STATIONERY
These outstanding creators of fine writing papers have really outdone themselves in offering unusual creations in plain or colored stationery, at prices ranging from 65c up to $4.00 and $5.00. Beautifully boxed in typical gift boxes for pleasant giving.

BRASS — COPPER — LEATHER
All fitting into the country house. Copper and brass planters to make a home more livable. In sizes and prices to suit anyone. It is astonishing the number of people who have added to the beauty of their rooms by using these planters (try Parmenter's for planting). As for leathers, we still have a fine selection of articles in leather for men; also, just received, are fine waste baskets in leather at about $10.00.

We mean off the same old dishes—Why not select some new China? Get out of the rut. We are showing many patterns—some modern, some new—some in betweens. Any one of them may be an extremely pleasant change. All are reasonable in price.
