Food Concessions Are Assigned by Baldwin Congress

Concessions for food and dances were granted to the various classes and organizations in the opening session of congress at Baldwin last week.

The 11B's have food concessions for the Holly Hop, the Mt. Clemens football game, Ferndale, and the alumni basket ball games.

Cloakroom concessions for all events were granted to the 12B class which also has refreshments for the Pigskin Prom. The 12A class received the food concession for field day and a dance after the East Detroit game.

Students congress will give a dance after the Mt. Clemens home game; GAA will supply food for the Keego Harbor encounter, and the Varsity Club has the Turkey Day food stand concession.

Sideline 'Backs Name Campbell New President

Back in the swing of fall activities, the Birmingham Sideline Quarterbacks held their annual election meeting last Thursday night at the high school.

Officers elected were president, Colin Campbell; vice-president, Art McCall; treasurer, Lee Shallberg; secretary, Harold Gasser.

As this was the first meeting of the year, there are only a few definite plans so far. The most interesting of these is the purchase of a whirlpool bath for the new field house under construction at Pierce Field. This bath will be of great use in the treatment of sorains and bruises in all types of sports.

Trip to U of M

Other plans for the year include the showing of several movies on leading football games and later in the year a trip for the basketball squad to a University of Michigan game. Also planned for next spring are the Junior Olympics, a yearly undertaking of the Quarterbacks.

As a form of relaxation and entertainment, the club again has formed a bowling league which will bowl every Wednesday night. Several teams have been formed, and the project promises to be a very successful undertaking.

Hills High School Elects Officers

The first class meetings of the school year were held this past week at Bloomfield Hills high school. In the senior class the following students were chosen by their classmates: president—Harry Martin, vice-president—Howard Rogers, Secretary—Sally Palmer, treasurer—Shiela Flannery.

In the junior class, a discussion of the Student Guide rules took most of the hour, so the elections were deferred until the next meeting.

Results for the sophomore class President John McLennan, Vice-President Robert Hum, Secretary Laurene Mularoni, and Treasurer George Pickering. Joan Lovely and Charles Koella were chosen Student Council representatives.

Freshmen elected Dick Vachon as president; Robert Nelson, as vice-president; Violet MacDonald, secretary, and Mitchell Sime, class treasurer. Pat Eslinger and George Bay were selected as representatives to the Council.
